UP-TO-DATE BEGGARS.

Four Who Were Profiting by Thanksgiving Benevolence Ran Against the Police.

"Say, mister, can I talk to you a minute?"—and then without waiting for consent—"you see it's Thanksgiving tomorrow and I haven't had a bite to eat in four days. Now—" "I don't like to look like that," said the man, "I look like a beggar, and I haven't eaten a bite since. I'm most dead. You wouldn't see a fellow drop off right before Thanksgiving, would you?" "No answer." "You have a turkey under your arm. Now, I'll bet you'll have a big feed, you an' yer family. An' me—well, I guess I'll have to rob some one and go to jail. You wouldn't see a man go to jail, would you, and Thanksgiving tomorrow?" "Yes, I'd see you go—here, officer, this fellow's bothering me. He's a beggar."

Yesterday four of them were landed in the police station during the day and evening. They all had the same up-to-the-minute ruse; all played upon man's extraordinary good nature in this festive period. One man was pointed out to Patrolman Bloch at the corner of Spruce street and Washington avenue during the afternoon. The charge on the police docket said that four men had made complaint against the fellow. Patrolman Day collared two on Lackawanna avenue at different times. One man was soliciting alms in the stores. In the evening Patrolman Gurrell talked one. This fellow was distributing cards on which in big black type was printed: "GIVE HIM A LIFT!" Then read the rest:

While journeying through the unseen dangers of life, if Providence has been merciful to you, please to help me, all you can to cast a ray of sunshine on my sad and gloomy pathway. Accidents will occur; who can tell how or when? They who give to the poor lendeth from the Lord. Give him a lift, don't kneel in prayer. Nor morose, with his despair. The man is down and his great need is ready help, not prayer and creed. To him than tons of saintly lore. To him than tons of saintly lore. Pray if you must in your full heart. But give him a lift, give him a start!

The world is full of good advice. Of prayer and praise and preaching need; But the generous souls who aid mankind Are scarce as gold and hard to find. Give like a Christian—speak in deeds—A noble life is the best of deeds. And he shall wear a royal crown Who gives them a lift when they are down.

Patrolman Gurrell read one of the "pomes" and generously responded to the appeal.

WEDDINGS ON EVE OF DAY OF THANKS

Many Pretty Ceremonies Performed in Several Parts of the City.

THE JENKINS--REYNOLDS NUPTIALS

Miss Margaret Jenkins Wedded to Thomas J. Reynolds at the Bride's Home in West Scranton--Among the Other Marriages in All Parts of the City Were the Mawson-Wilkinson, Cadwgan-Slote, Hornbaker-Griffin, Maloney-Kelly, McAlister-McDonald, Jenkins-Zimmerman, and Watkins-Pugh Ceremonies.

Wednesday at any time of the year is the wedding day, and when Wednesday joins hands, so to speak, with the Day of Thanks, it is doubly dear to that portion of the seventh heaven of which it has been said: "All the world loves a lover." These people hereabouts accepted the opportunity yesterday as a perusal of the following accounts of marriages will show.

Jenkins--Reynolds.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Jenkins to Thomas Jefferson Reynolds, chief of the road agencies for the Pittston Stove company, took place at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins, of 413 South Main avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church.

At the appointed hour the strains of Lohengrin's familiar march, played by Mrs. Nellie Moses Evans-Thomas, announced the coming of bride and groom. Both were unattended save by pretty little Elizabeth Jones, a niece of the bride, who was the flower girl, and the young miss' escort, Arthur Reese, 10 years old, and in full dress attire. The two little people proceeded through the first to the second parlor, followed by the bride-elect and Mr. Reynolds.

The bride's gown was of moussin de soie over white silk, becomingly fashioned and elegant in construction. She carried a handsome bouquet of bridal roses and under the arch of green and flowers the effect was charming. Rev. Mr. De Gruchy's recitation of the rites was a striking instance of the solemnity of a marriage ceremony when dutifully performed.

The light and lovable melody of Liszt's "Flower Song" had a most impressive moment. After the ceremony, when the spirited Mendelssohn's was played, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds received the congratulations of the friends present. A very pleasant time followed, refreshments were served by Misses Jenkins, Gladys Joseph, Mary Davies, Katharine Warner, Margaret Youngs and Mrs. Gomer Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left on the midnight Delaware Lackawanna and Western train for a visit to New York city and Washington, D. C. They will be at home at 413 South Main avenue after Dec. 12.

Mr. Reynolds is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of Hampton street, and a brother of Reynolds Bros., stationers, of Wyoming avenue. He is a valued attaché of the Pittston Stove company, his territory as agent extending from this city to Toronto, Canada. The bride is a prominent worker in the Jackson Street Baptist church. Her friends are Miss Josephine, Olyphant; Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKenna, Buffalo; Miss Margaret Watkins, Olyphant; Rev. Thomas De Gruchy and Mrs. Gruchy; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pryor, Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. John Genter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pethrick, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. THE APPEAL HAS BEEN WITHDRAWN.

Report of Viewers of Seventeenth Sewer District Confirmed Finally.

WHAT CITY'S ACTION MEANS.

Sewer is Not to Be Constructed Forthwith but by Having the Assessment Confirmed the City Can Use it Whenever it Sees Fit to Cause the Much Needed Improvement to Be Made--City's Share of the Cost Will Be $22,936.75.

Yesterday, City Solicitor M. A. McGinley, following the instructions of councils, withdrew the appeal he had entered in the matter of the Seventeenth sewer district assessment. September 15 last, council reconsidered its action and directed the city solicitor to withdraw the appeal. Court acquiesced and confirmed the report finally.

This does not mean that the sewer is to be constructed forthwith, as some might be led to suppose. Many councilmen voted to repeal the appeal with the understanding that it was to keep the assessment alive to be used at any future time in case of necessity. If the appeal was allowed to stand and assessment was nullified, it would mean the throwing away of the money represented in the cost of making the assessment. By simply leaving it stand it will be at the city's disposal at any time, and it costs nothing to keep it on file in the prothonotary's office.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Nos. 6 and 15 May Be First Used Next Monday Morning. The new Nos. 6 and 15 school buildings will be inspected by members of the board of control this afternoon. It is desired to open the buildings Monday but this cannot be done until after it has been accepted at a special or regular meeting of the board.

As the next regular board meeting will not be held until Monday, Dec. 6, a special meeting will have to be called at once if the buildings are to be accepted and opened Monday. It is probable a special meeting will be called for tomorrow night. The buildings are completely furnished and equipped.
