

Lackawanna County.

CARBONDALE.

The Carbondale correspondence of the Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. R. Mann, Salem avenue and Church street, to whom news items may be addressed and also complaints of irregular delivery.

AT HYMEN'S SHRINE.

Notes About Numerous Nuptialistic Knots Nicely Knotted.

Four young ladies of this vicinity were made happy brides yesterday. At 2:45 o'clock at St. Rose of Lima church, Rev. T. P. Coffey made Miss Nellie J. Duffy, of the First Methodist church, Miss Josephine Bradley, of Mechanicsville, Miss Josephine Bradley, of Mechanicsville, and John Taylor was best man. The bride and her maid were handsomely arrayed and the wedding was a very pretty one. A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Duffy, of Fairbrook street. The newly wedded pair will keep house on Fairbrook street.

At three o'clock at the same church Father Coffey united Miss Julia Kane and George Ward. Miss Sarah Knox was bridesmaid and Mark Collins groomsmen. The bride was prettily attired and carried chrysanthemums. A pleasant reception was given at the bride's home in the evening. The groom is a prominent member of Mitchell House company.

Half an hour later at the same place Miss Margaret Kerwin and John J. Hamm took the marriage vow. Father Coffey also performed this ceremony. Miss Annie Korwin attended the bride. The ladies were beautifully gowned in cadet gray with pearl and satin trimmings. A delightful reception was given at the home of the bride's parents on Pike street last night.

The other wedding was a quiet home one. Miss Eliza A. Stone, of Crystal Lake, and Frederick Wallis, of Belmont street, were married at three o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Irving Stone, of Berkert street, by the bride's father, Rev. G. W. Stone. Miss Alice Hamilton acted as bridesmaid and Sidney Wallis was best man. Gray gowns with chiffon and pearl trimmings were worn by the bride and her maid. The contracting parties are persons of charming personality and they have the well wishes of numerous friends.

THE CASE POSTPONED.

The damage suit of Trainman Gage, of Nineveh, against the Delaware and Hudson company did not come off at Hinghamton Tuesday. The judge put everything off until after Thanksgiving. Drs. Burns and Wheeler will go to the Parlor City again Friday to give their testimony, which may be essential in saving that corporation several thousand dollars.

NEW OFFICERS.

Lucretia Lodge, Daughters of Rebeccah, have elected officers as follows: Noble grand, Mrs. Rose Jones; vice grand, Mrs. Mary Havenstrick; recording secretary, Miss Nellie H. Havenstrick; financial secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Hughes; trustee, Mrs. Ann Huddy. The installation will take place at the next meeting and will be conducted by the grand lodge officers.

THANKSGIVING ATTRACTIONS.

"Darkest America" will be presented at the Grand Opera house this afternoon and evening.

The high school and St. Thomas' college football teams will play at Alumni park this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Kelly and Murphy, of the Indians, will strengthen the high school eleven.

At Anthracite park this afternoon the Richmond and Peckville and Vandling and Throop teams are scheduled to play association football.

The bicycle race between Lee and Wickie, which was to be contested, has been declared off, as it has been too cold for the men to train.

ORSPQUES.

A Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. W. A. Nealon at St. Rose's church yesterday morning over the remains of the late Mary Sheridan. Interment was made in St. Rose's cemetery. Mrs. Charles Benson and Miss Maggie Sheridan, of New York, attended the services.

Rev. Charles Lee preached the funeral sermon of the late Mrs. Pettigrew yesterday. Interment was made in Maplewood cemetery. The pall-bearers were: John Murray, H. B. Jadin, Edward Clarkson, Thomas O'Connell, Angus Cameron and Patrick Powderly.

When a young woman sits down and ponders over her future life, there are all-important subjects which she should not forget. In a day dream she may build castles in the air with happy home, laughing children and a loving husband in the foreground. At that moment she may be facing death. Matrimony and motherhood hold out no happiness to the young woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. The woman who suffers from this way will be a weak, nervous, sickly, petulant wife, an incapable mother and an unbearable hostess. Not knowing the truth, her acquaintances will not understand her. It is deserving of pity rather than reproach.

Any woman may be strong and healthy in a womanly way if she will use the right remedy. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all medicines for weak and ailing women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs that make wifehood and motherhood possible. It makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It banishes the dangers that surround maternity. It insures a healthy baby and an ample supply of nourishment. Thousands of women who were weak, sickly, nervous ailing, are now healthy, robust wives and competent mothers of healthy children. The result of the use of this medicine.

Mrs. John M. Conklin, of Patterson, Putnam Co., N. Y., writes: "I am enjoying good health and have been since I took the last bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had falling of the internal organs, or female weakness, and flowing caused by miscarriage, and was very weak when I commenced taking your medicine. The unfailing, never-failing cure for constipation—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Archbald.

The last sad rites over the remains of the late Samuel Collins occurred at No. 4 Tuesday. Rev. G. A. Place, P. D., of the First Methodist church, officiated. The remains were laid at rest in Maplewood cemetery. Those who acted as pall-bearers are: Arthur Carroll, John Medland, Joseph Hawkins, Frederick Kropf, Samuel Thorpe and W. Williams.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. Thomas Duffy, of Archbald, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Devaney, of Brooklyn street, has returned home.

Evyan Tucker is ill. Philip Farrell, of Mechanicsville, is spending today at his home on the West Side.

Miss Maud Taylor, of Williamsport, is a guest in this city.

Miss Helen Shields is spending Thanksgiving in Scranton.

Mrs. J. S. Jadin is convalescent. Miss Helen Shields is spending Thanksgiving in Scranton.

Mrs. E. M. Oiver, of Darle avenue, is entertaining Mrs. Emma Belcher, of Lake Ariel.

Miss Elsie Mannton has gone home to spend Thanksgiving.

Delaware and Hudson Despatcher H. B. Briggs and wife left yesterday afternoon for Herculioville, to spend Thanksgiving with the latter's parents.

Mrs. S. E. Raynor was in Scranton yesterday.

F. H. Estabrook spent last evening in Scranton.

H. G. Baker and wife were in the Electric City yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. T. J. Lamb is in Wilkes-Barre spending Thanksgiving.

John Omerout is a business caller in Scranton yesterday.

C. E. Chapman called on Prompton friends yesterday afternoon.

Horace Short, of No. 16, is spending Thanksgiving with Charles Chapman.

Miss Elsie Hunter and son left this morning for Daytona, Florida, where they will spend the winter.

LOCAL.

The postoffice will be open today from 8 to 12. The lobby will be open for lock boxes from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

The family of Daniel Thompson has moved from Darle avenue to Dundaff street.

Thanksgiving exercises were held in several of the public schools yesterday afternoon.

The union Thanksgiving service of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches will be held in the edifice of the last named this morning at 10:30.

Joseph Gluck's clothing store was closed by the sheriff yesterday afternoon on an execution issued by his wife. The sale will occur next Wednesday morning.

Drs. Thompson and Shields performed a surgical operation on James Westbury, of Oak avenue, yesterday afternoon.

"The Cherry Pickers" will be seen at the Grand Opera House Tuesday evening.

W. F. Will, of Green Ridge, Delaware and Hudson florist, opened a flower store in the Anthracite building last evening.

TAYLOR.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Robert Knapp occurred from his late home on South Main street yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Services were held in the family residence by the Rev. William Frisby, of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial was made in the Marcy cemetery.

Mrs. David Price and son Bert, of the Hillside home, who have been visiting relatives in this place for the past few days, have returned home.

PRICEBURG.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Primitive Methodist church will hold their annual turkey supper tonight. Supper will be served from 5 until 10 p. m. An entertainment will be given in connection with the supper. Tickets for supper and entertainment, 25 cents; for entertainment an admission of 10 cents will be charged, which will entitle the holder to free cream. After the supper and entertainment the contest for the doll will be closed.

The postoffice will be closed today, except mail hours. Mail hours will be as follows: From 10 to 12 a. m. and from 2:30 to 4 p. m.

Miss Hartie Savras has returned to her home in Hollisterville, after a few days' stay with her sister, Mrs. Tugle, of Scott road.

Misses Katie and Mary Rogan and William Rogan attended the Y. M. I. social at Scranton last evening.

Mrs. P. J. Boyle, of Upper Delaware street, is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

District Attorney John R. Jones and family have returned from New York, where they have been attending the horse show.

Thompson Pettigrew, of Carbondale, visited friends at this place yesterday. Richard, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sweeney, of Lackawanna street, is very ill.

JERMYN NEWS.

Fair of the Horse Company--The Roberts Oakley Wedding.

The postoffice hours today, being a legal holiday, will be: 10:30 to 11:45 a. m.; 2:30 to 4 p. m.

Dr. M. J. Shields assisted his brother, S. S. Shields, in an operation at Carbondale Tuesday.

M. and Mrs. Theodore Spittigue and daughter Mary are spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pray.

Miss Bessie Calloway, of Archbald, is visiting Miss Tillie Mains, on Bacon street.

Special divine services at St. James church and Sacred Heart church.

The most successful engagement at the Academy of Music, yesterday afternoon they gave a fine presentation of the "Lancers" and last night the company was new laurels in the comedy, "Eccles' Girls." This afternoon "The Galley Slave" will be seen and tonight "Ick."

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

This is the Package—

remember it. It contains

GOLD DUST

Washing Powder that cleans everything quickly, cheaply and perfectly.

Largest package—greatest economy. THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Boston, Philadelphia.

ling relatives in Philadelphia, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jones, of Edwardsville, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Probert, of Delaware street.

Misses Katie and Mary Rogan and William Rogan attended the Y. M. I. social at Scranton last evening.

Mrs. P. J. Boyle, of Upper Delaware street, is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

District Attorney John R. Jones and family have returned from New York, where they have been attending the horse show.

Thompson Pettigrew, of Carbondale, visited friends at this place yesterday. Richard, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sweeney, of Lackawanna street, is very ill.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

For Thanksgiving Day. The Spencers and their company are having a very successful engagement at the Academy of Music. Yesterday afternoon they gave a fine presentation of the "Lancers" and last night the company was new laurels in the comedy, "Eccles' Girls." This afternoon "The Galley Slave" will be seen and tonight "Ick."

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play. Miss Claxton dramatized it herself, and has played with great success in New York and other cities. It deals with a boy's episode of the battle of Nauby in 1845, in which Bonnie King Charles and his famous cavaliers were defeated by the British. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and Miss Claxton will be seen in both plays, and thus give her many admirers an opportunity to see her in two distinct characters.

At the Lyceum this afternoon and evening Miss Kate Claxton will not only be seen in her famous drama of "The Hero's Orphan," which seems to never lose its hold upon the affections of these loving citizens, but will also appear for the first time in this city in her latest success, which is promised as an intensely strong and dramatic one-act play