THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 25, 1897.

SCRANTON.

leading

NORTHEASTERN

m. and from 6 to 7 p. m. The Y. M. I. will meet on Friday evening to effect a permanent organization.

A union Thanksgiving meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church in Moosic this evening. Rev. Mr. Humphreys will make the address. A collection will be taken up for the Armenian sufferers. The members of the Foreign Missionary society will serve a turkey supper this afternoon in the Odd Fellows' hall, Admission, 15 cents, which will ing for an entertainment and social to be held in Sarsfield opera house on Dec. 22.

An application will be made on Dec. pany of Avoca. The incorporators are A. H. Squiers, E. J. Jordan, B. F. Zeigsame gentlemen who compose the electrie light company of Tunkhannock. D. C., is the guest of Miss Maine Crans-pointed subreme deputy of the L. C. B. A. division of this section. Mrs. C. Osborne has returned home after a few months' visit with friends in Towanda. Three prominent young men of this town will become benedicts today and each will secure his partner out of town, John Maloney and Celia Moon will be married in Holy Rosary church, Scrasten; M. F. McGowan and Mary Donnelly will be married in St. John's church, Pittsten: John Morton and Margaret Tischler will be married at home of the brile's parents in Pittsten.

Mrs. James Hartnett, of Scranton, was a visitor in town this week. burned while driving home from Pittston on Monday evening, was removed to the Fittston hospital yesterday morning. His condition is quite criti-critically ill of pleurisy.

was driving home on Wednesday morning, his carriage collided with the electric car and was entirely demotthe embankment. The horse ran a caught.

Thanksgiving at the Mansfield Normal school.

Those who heard Mrs. L. M. Lake at the Sarsfield opera house on Tuesday evening will not forget that they beard one of the most gifted and most the pulifting of humanity, throwing into the C. T. A. U. movement all her force, character and ability. It is to the lasting credit of Mrs. Lake that she has done more for the total abstinence movement than has any other woman in the country. In the course the audience to lay aslde any prejudice they might entertain or any affiliation with the liquor interests and listen to her remarks with unbiased minds. She contrasted the life of the godly man with that of the drunkard and the comparison was so vivid that prices and compare them with any other goods in the city:

We have some choice lots of Wall Papers that we are closing out

J. SCOTT INGLIS, 419 LACKA. AVE