MRS. MORELAND DEAD.

She Who Was Miss Grace Alexander Passed Away at Pontinc.

Sad news was received in this city yesterday of the death of Mrs. Frank R. D. Moreland, of Pontiac, Michigan. Deceased was Miss Grace Alexander, well-known and popular young person who formerly resided here. She married about a year ago and went west with her husband. Last summer she spent four months renewing friendship in this town and her sudden death largely attended by a representative comes as a decided shock.

Three days ago her aunts, the Misses affair will long linger among the happy Annie and Catherine Alexander, re- recollections of those who were presceived a telegram announcing the birth ent. of a son to their niece. A day later a second message brought news of her serious illness and shortly afterward intelligence of the fatal result was wired. Death occurred at 7.50 Wed-nesday evening. At last accounts the masque in the W. W. Watt building. baby was doing well.

Deceased was twenty-one years of well attended and the details nicely age, having been born here on the arranged. The costumes embraced Gussle and Ahnie Sutter, of Lehigh eleventh of September, 1876. Her girleverything known to the fantastic art hood days were spent in Carbondale, and in originality and variety surwhere her friends equal the number of passed anything heretofore seen. The managers have every reason to feel her acquaintances. She was a member of Trinity Episcopal church, a proud of their venture. young lady of retiring disposition and noble qualities.

In accordance with her dying request her remains will be laid beside those of her deceased aunt, Mrs. George Germanias added one to their list of Swift, in the Joseph Alexander family pleasant affairs given in their pleasant in Maplewood cometery. The time ant rooms on South Main street, These of the funeral cannot yet be announced, as it is not known when the halves and they have the best wishes remains will reach here. However, the of numerous friends for all future unfinal rites will be held in the First dertakings. May the good will for the Presbyterian church and Rev. Charles Germanias never wane. Lee will officiate.

EXCITING FIRE.

Ice House Burned and Endangered Much Valuable Property.

A fire occurred in the very centre of rendered and the thanksgiving was whole-hearted. the city last evening at half-past five o'clock and for an hour or so great excitement prevailed. Flames broke out in Confectioner R. H. Tralles' ice house, which has been used for a store house since the summer season. The structure was nearly enveloped in fire before the discovery was made by Mr. Trailes' son Frank, who was attracted by the crackling timbers. Mr. Trailes ran to the Columbia hose house and a few minutes later a general alarm was sounded. Company 5 made a connection at the Merchants' and Mechanics bank and the Mitchell ran hose from the First Presbyterian church down Church street and through Mark Campbell's yard to the blaze. Soon the life was under control, but not until the building, which is 20x25 feet and two stories, had been ruined. Only the frame was left standing.

By the fire much valuable property forgered, Moses' barn, in which in kets, large quantities of gasoline onging to the dye works, was ignited, but the fire was extinguished before the highly inflammable substance wa reached. Among the valuable buildings in danger was Dr. Gillis' handsom: new three-story brick.

As to the origin of the fire nothing is known. Mr. Tralles thinks some boy: threw lighted matches in the building He says he has had trouble keeping the urchins out, they having gone so far a to break off three or four locks. The fortunate feature is that the blaze oc curred early in the evening. Several thousand people soon gathered in the vicinity of the fire. The volunteers worked heroically and deserve much credit. The Mitchells worked short banded, as many of their members were in Pittston cating Thanksgiving turkey with the Eagle boys.

ELABORATE SPREADS.

The hotels prepared elaborate spreads for their patrons yesterday. The din-ing room of Hotel American was invitingly decorated and Boniface Jacobus was all attention to his guests.
