CAVE ON ACADEMY STREET

Is Causing Much Uneasiness to Property Owners on That Street, Near Hyde Park Avenue.

A cave-in on Academy street, midway between South Hyde Park avenue and Mullen street occurred early yesterday morning. It threatens the sewer main and is causing considerable uneasiness among the residents of the vicinity. At present, nothing beyond the roadway, a small section of sidewalk and the people's peace of mind are disturbed.

The main caveing lies directly in front of Select Councilman Richard H. Williams' home at 1298 Academy street. It runs from the gutter out beyond the street center and is somewhat the shape of an enaulette. The deepest part about 2 feet lies at the lobe and nearest the gutter. About 50 feet further along a hole, or rather a series of converging cracks appear just beneath the sidewalk and two bags have dropped down in a V-shaped manner. This spot is just at the gateway of the dwelling occupied by Henry Kinsley, at 1212 Academy street.

Here and there within a radius of 500 feet small cracks are apparent. A Tribune reporter called upon Mr. Williams, who is outside foreman of the Continental mines, to ascertain the cause of the cave. Mr. Williams thought it was from the workings of the old Central mines. He further stated that no signs of the disturbance was apparent in any of the cellars or dwellings near the spot.

This same locality was similarly affected about 5 or 10 years ago. So much so, that it was thought at the time that the old No. 14 school which stood at the rear of the present lot, was built of brick, would have to be torn down to prevent a collapse. The present cave-in may not increase in area or even affect the sewer main but the heavy rains of a few days back and the present bad weather lends an uncertain aspect to the trouble.

MR. THOMAS A CANDIDATE.

Select Councilman W. J. Thomas, of the Fourth ward, is to make a run for re-election. He was not what might be called seeking another term, but when he found a quite general desire on the part of his constituents that he should continue in their service until he had seen a consummation of the many excellent plans he has projected, he decided to be a candidate, and is now pushing his canvass with the energy which has characterized his work in city hall. This means a lively three-cornered fight in the caucus.

FUNERAL OF MRS. REED.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles W. Reed took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 322 Twelfth street. The services were attended by a large number of friends, and the floral remembrances nearly hid the casket. Rev. J. P. Moffatt, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, officiated and preached the funeral sermon. At the conclusion of the service, the remains were borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were: Charles Moska, Howell Morgan, William Decker, Thomas Jenkins, Albert Beckler and Gomer Hughes.

THE SHAFT COMPLETED.

Benjamin I. Phillips, of West Elm street, recently successfully completed the sinking of the new shaft at Pritchburg for the O. S. Johnson Coal Company. As a reminder of his suc-

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The lecture given by Yataro Okano, a native Jap, at the Summer Avenue Protestant church, was well attended last evening. His lecture dealt with the Japanese and their customs, and is illustrated with beautiful stereoscopic views.

An additional nurse will soon be added to the staff of the West Side hospital in the person of Miss Florence Yeager, of North Broomey avenue. Miss Yeager was one of the first of a number of persons who, seeing the announcement of a chance at the hospital to become a trained nurse in the Tribune, applied.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Sweeney will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Banning, of 342 North Lincoln avenue. Interment will be made at the Duryea cemetery.

An attempt to get lunch without paying for the same, and then trying to wreck the fixtures at the Joseph Gross lunch room, 706 West Lackawanna avenue, on Thursday evening resulted disastrously for three Hungarians. Patrolman Jones, with the assistance of citizens, arrested the wreckers, and yesterday morning Alderman Kellow impressed their wrong doing upon their minds by fining each $2, and to pay $3 for damage done. August and Frank Bergan and August Cossa paid the penalty and departed.

MR. JONES' LATEST POEM.

Written at His Home in Stroudsburg Where He is Reading Law.

The poem printed herewith is the latest effort of J. Twyson Jones, of Evansburg. Mr. Jones is a brother of the Rev. R. Shirkway Jones, of Evansburg, who won The Tribune prize poem a few years ago.

J. Twyson Jones will be remembered by many persons up and down the valley, as he was pastor of the Baptist church at Jermyn for several years, but left the ministry to enter the legal profession. He is now engaged in reading law at his home in Evansburg. He occupies a high position in Welsh literary circles and his poems are among those classed highest in the Welsh tongue. His latest effort is as follows:

A man of faith is happier far,
Than he who lives in doubt,
For faith is like the morning star,
Whose light goes never out;
It cheers him in the darkest night,
And smiles upon his way,
It keeps his disposition right
And heralds in the day.

A man of faith is stronger much
Than one of unbelief;
The spring of action feels its touch
However deep the grief.
Doubt paralyzes every nerve,
And makes one's spirit pine
But faith from duty will not swerve,
To act is its design.

A man of faith is happier far,
For he has found a rest,
And nothing can disturb or mar
The music in his breast;
But he who doubts but discards fears,
Which grate against his soul,
And hallowed is by dismal fears,
Which nothing can control.

Blindfolded are the eyes of doubt,
Uncertain is its tread,
And as each day it gazes about
Till with a trembling shock it treads,
But faith both sees and walks along
The paths our fathers trod,
And this is why its side is strong
It grasps the hand of God.

NEW WAY TO WEALTH.

Will Power as a Means of Winning Riches.

From the Essex Times.

According to theosophy, said Dr. A. W. Curry, the human will was a definite force, and when strongly moved by desire it was able to accomplish visible results, although no apparent action had been taken. The desires of men were constantly affecting their outward circumstances, and even in the case of a man wishing for wealth, no immediate result is seen, the ultimate effect would be that in another earth life he would be born amid wealthy surroundings. It always happened, however, that when the desire had been obtained some unexplained and unlooked-for circumstance accompanied it, and so the wise man avoids definite wishes about his future, recognizing his ignorance of what is really best for him, and contentedly accepting the desire met out to him by the just law.

George Muller, of Bristol, supports a large institution for orphans by prayer. The venerable founder retired into his room, and mentally formulated to meet a pressing engagement. Thoughts were things, and once the idea, strongly vitalized by his will, passed out into the ether, it floated about until attracted to the congenial soil of the brain of some wealthy philanthropist, who "struck by the thought," sends his check for the required amount.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Jane Davis, relict of David J. Davis, died at her home, 1118 Jackson street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock after an illness of several months. The deceased was 74 years of age, having been born in Merthyr Tydfil, South Wales, Oct. 6, 1843. Mr. and Mrs. Davis came to this country in 1857, shortly after being married and first settled at Minersville, Schuylkill county. Later they removed to Summit Hill, now Lansford, and after a short residence there they came to Hyde Park in 1858. For many years Mr. Davis conducted one of the largest livery stables in the city, being located on Jackson street, below Main avenue. In 1868 he built the dwelling at 1118 Jackson, where he died in January, 1894. Mrs. Davis was an active member for many years of the Tabernacle Congregational church, being a charter member of the old South Main avenue edification society. She is survived by three sons and three daughters: D. W. Davis, of East Stroudsburg; W. W. Davis and Robert Davis, of this city; Jennie Williams and Mrs. Joseph Knauus, of this city; and Mrs. John Morris, of Plymouth. The funeral services will be held at the residence Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church, will officiate and Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church, will assist. Interment will be made at the Forest Hill cemetery.

Michael Prendergast, aged 45 years, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, 347 New street. He is survived by his wife and one child. The funeral will take place Monday morning, services at St. Peter's cathedral and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Huldest Schofield, an old and highly respected resident of North Scranton, died at the home of her son, M. J. Schofield, on Bloom avenue, yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

John W., the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Martindale, died Thursday at the family residence, 916 Capouse avenue. The funeral will occur Sunday afternoon. Interment will be made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Mrs. George Houston, aged 63, died yesterday evening at her residence, 813 Orchard street. Funeral Monday morning; services at the cathedral and burial in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

CHICAGO'S GREAT DITCH.

The Canal Will Admit Any Vessel That Sails on the Great Lakes. From the Review of Reviews.

The city of Chicago is so remarkable in every way that we have ceased to view with surprise any undertaking which it may assume. After its White Wonder, risen like a dream from out of a bleak morass; after its thirty-story skyscrapers floating on the unstable foundations of a bog, we can in no wise marvel that it should build a drainage sewer to carry a volume of water as large as the Ohio river, and costing $30,000,000.

But the import of the Chicago Drainage Canal has been obscured by its name. Few, besides engineers, realize that its unique contrivances, its monster machines and novel methods of construction, were to show this nation how it might be possible to build a canal which would carry a boat from New York, at the mouth of the Hudson, 2,400 miles inland, to the base of the Rocky mountains.

The canal is in reality a huge artificial river. Its functions, as a sewage carrier promises to become as rela-
