Will Be Celebrated by the Members of the P. O. S. of A.

The members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, generally of this city, and of Camp No. 171 particularly, are looking forward to the celebration which this camp will hold in Mears' ball, Wednesday, Dec. 8. The affair is double in its purpose, being the observance of the golden jubilee of the

The camp appointed a committee sevweeks ago to arrange matters, and their labors have been nearly completed. In addition to the best of local talent, some outside entertainers have been secured. Miss Gertrude Garland, Perry brothers and the Alpha trio, all of New York city, will appear here for the first time At the close of the entertainment refreshments will be served, and a dance will follow for which excellent music will be provid-The committee in charge are: M. T. Bradshaw, Linden V. Decker, John Miller, Alfred Bevan, Alfred Twining. J. J. Green and Robert Eldred.

INTERESTING DEBATE,

The Literary and Debating society of the Scranton Street Baptist church held one of its regular meetings in the church parlors last evening, which proved exceedingly interesting. The debate was upon "Resolved. That woman should have the right of suffrage." It was a warmly contested argument, but was decided in favor of the affirmative. The successful three were Edwin Wilker, Willie Phillips and George Asbury. The other debaters were: Harry Davis, Miss May Jones and David Evans. It was made known that the negatives did not lose on account of an that side. The judges were: Miss Mattie Watkins, Mrs. J. Armstrong and George Phillips. There were several lentown impromptu spe ches and vocal selections. Miss : tions in addition, George Watkins acted as chairman. The bi-weekly meetings are becoming more and more interesting to the young people of the Scranton Street Baptist church.

WAS HARD TO CATCH.

After three unsuccessful attempts to eatch his man, Constable Dean at last succeeded in landing Martin Mangan. of Third street. The first time the constable called at Mangan's house, Mr. Mangan departed by the rear way, sayng he would get his coat and return. He did not come back. Yesterday morning he was committed to the county lall in default of $300 ball by Alderman Moses. Mrs. Mangan and daughter preferred the serious charges of assault, felonous wounding, non-support and threats to kill, Mr. Mangan admitted he was in fault in the main, but he would not kill anyone,

COMPLIMENTARY DANCE.
