CARBONDALE.

The Carbonate correspondence of 'The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. R. Mann, Salem Avenue and Church Street, to whom news items may be addressed and also complaints of irregular delivery.

CANDIDACY ANNOUNCED.

Alderman Jones of the Second Ward Will Come Up for Re-election. Alderman S. E. Jones has issued in the form of a circular letter the following announcement to the voters of the Second Ward:

I take this method of informing you that I am a candidate for reelection to the office of alderman and most respectfully solicit your cordial support in my behalf. During the present term I have endeavored to perform the duties of the office faithfully and impartially, and should the voters honor me in the coming term, I will strive to conduct the affairs of the office in a business-like manner. Thanking you for the courtesies you have shown me, and trusting that kindly relations may be continued for all time, believe me, yours truly, S. E. Jones.

Five years ago next May Alderman Jones took the office resigned by the veteran alderman, Jesse G. Thompson. Since that time he has systematized the work of caring for the growing business of the office, which has become a model of smooth-working machinery. Those who have had business relations with Alderman Jones appreciate his painstaking and that appreciation will be emphasized at the primary election. It is but probable that there will be any opposition. The incumbent has been an honor to the office.

"THE CHERRY PICKERS."

Immense Audience Witnesses a Charming Play at the Grand.

The theater-goers of this city and vicinity broke the rule last evening by turning out in large numbers to see a guaranteed attraction. "The Cherry Pickers" caused an immense audience to assemble at the Grand Opera House. The drama is full of interest from beginning to end and it was presented in finished style. The scenic auxiliaries were elaborate and historically interesting. The company is a strong one and each filled the requirements of his or her part. Of any special mention is deserved it should be made of Miss Drexel whose emotional work was excellent. The fun-making of Miss Sartorius is seldom equaled. "John T. Haines" is a heroic actor of ability. The great gun scene was thrilling. As a whole "The Cherry Pickers" were highly satisfactory.

REASONS WHY

At Least 1,000 Carbonatians Should Take the Scranton Tribune.

There are many good reasons why at least 1,000 Carbonatians should subscribe for The Scranton Tribune. Not one of them interferes with the duty of every resident to help home enterprises. This city has no morning daily enterprise at present and 'The Tribune' is made to very happily serve the purpose of one. The Carbonate news department has already been brought up to date and within the next month it will be still further improved.

That there is a taste-in fact a strong demand, I may say-for a morning paper in this growing city cannot be denied. The Tribune is pre-eminently the greatest morning daily in the state outside of Philadelphia. The extensive scope of its general news service is remarkable and its style is always attractive. Editorially it is interesting and sound and without it is clean and wholesome-such a paper every good citizen should feel proud to have in his home.

There are, however, more potent reasons why there should be 1,000 subscribers to 'The Tribune' in this place. Take, for instance, the court news of Lackawanna county, in which every Carbonatian is interested. It appears first in 'The Tribune'. In fact the local papers depend upon that journal for their accounts of the court proceedings. There is the Van Horn murder trial, which is just now attracting so much attention. The details reach you first through the columns of 'The Tribune'. This is cited simply as an example. Scores of articles come the same way.

MONTHLY STATISTICS.

Twenty-five deaths occurred in this city during November. Fifteen interments were made in St. Rose cemetery, nine in Maplewood, two in Brookside and one in the old Catholic cemetery. One body was taken to Bethany and another was laid at rest in Stone cemetery in Fell township. During the month three bodies were brought into the city from Fell township, one from the poor farm and one each from Deland, Florida; Pontiac, Michigan; and Jermyn for burial. Following is the list of deaths accredited to different maladies: Heart failure, 5; one accident; 2; bronchitis, 2; pulmonary tuberculosis, 1; still-born, 3; cholera; 1; toxic infection, 1; capill-

LOCALS. Anna Perry and Andrew Pellick, Hungarian lovers, of Simpson, appeared "Thanksgiving Day, and now Pellick is under $800 bail for his appearance at court to answer the charge of shooting at Anna with intent to kill. Lawrence Shumski, of Simpson, would like to know who the fellow is that robbed him of a watch and three dollars near Richmonds last week. A catbox ran into and killed the horse of Thomas Harris, of Eldale, at Simpson Monday. Mr. Harris sat in the wagon and was unharmed.

The art exhibition under the management of ladies of the Berean Baptist church, which is held in the tabernacle yesterday, attracted large numbers of pleased connoisseurs. The exhibition will continue this afternoon and evening.

A cottage prayer meeting full of spiritual blessing was held at the Spencer street home of Mr. Whittington last evening. Don't forget the New Century club's third entertainment, Alexander Clark's picture play, at the Academy of Music tonight.

The probabilities are that Dr. Stafford's subject in this city will be "Hamlet."

Mrs. J. E. Burr delightfully entertained her first Presbyterian Sunday school class last evening. Games were played and refreshments served. The Carbonate Tritons will play football with St. Thomas college eleven in Scranton, Saturday.

Thomas Campbell was the lucky holder of ticket 14, which drew the Shield of Honor's photograph album.

PECKVILLE. The funeral of the late John H. Cook took place yesterday afternoon. At an early hour a large concourse of relatives and friends assembled at his residence to take a last look at the remains. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Thomas. The music was furnished by the choir who rendered some very fine selections. The pallbearers were selected from the attorney's office, members of which the deceased was a member. Interment was made in the Prospect cemetery.

The pie social, held at the home of George Trevozon, on Main street, last evening, under the auspices of the Episcopal League of the Methodist Episcopal church, was largely attended and very enjoyable. During the evening the following programs were rendered: Solo, John Warner; recitation, On Toppers; vocal duet, Misses Budd and Charles; recitation, Walter Williams; piano selection, My and Miss Anna Miller; solo, Florence Taylor; instrumental duet, Mrs. William Shodor and Miss Maud Trevozon; recitation, Grace Day; solo, John Warner.

their annual ball, which will be held on New Year's eve in the St. Joseph's hall. Mrs. Stella Ward, of Clark's Green, who has been visiting in this place, has returned home.

SILENT SUFFERERS.

Women do not Like to Tell a Doctor the Details of Their Private Ills.

The reason why so many women suffer in silence from the multiple disorders connected with their sexual system is that they cannot bear to branch the subject to a man, even if he is a physician. No one can blame a modest, sensitive woman for this reticence. It is unnecessary in those times, however, for a woman makes to all afflicted women a most generous offer. Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., bids every woman who suffers to write to her and confide every symptom that annoys her, and she will give her advice without charge, and that advice is based upon the greatest experience ever possessed by a man or woman in this country, and extends over a period of twenty-three years, and thousands upon thousands of cases. Why suffer in silence any longer, when you can get help for the asking? Don't fear to tell her everything. The case of Mrs. Colony, whose letter to Mrs. Pinkham we publish, is an illustration of the good to be received from Mrs. Pinkham's advice; here is a woman who was sick for years and could get no relief--at last, in despite she wrote to Mrs. Pinkham--received in return a prompt, sympathetic and interested reply. Note the result and go and do likewise. "I was troubled with such an aching in my back and hips, and I felt so tired all the time, and had for four years. For the last year it was all I could do to drag around. I would have such a ringing in my head by spells that it seemed as though I would grow crazy. I ached from my shoulders to my feet and was very nervous. I was also troubled with a white discharge. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. I received a prompt reply and followed her advice, and now I have no backache and begin to feel as one ought; in fact, I never felt better in ten years than I do now. I thank God that I went doctoring with Mrs. Pinkham when I did, for if I had not I know I would have been in my grave." --Mrs. NELLE E. COLONY, Nahma, Mich.

What's the Use of advertising, anyway--isn't advertising any good or does the fault lie with the man who gets them up? By actual count, not one customer in ten is influenced to come by our newspaper ads. Our customers are either people who have bought of us before, or who come here by their friends advice.

In other words, it isn't what we say but what we do that brings the public to us. The secret of the big business we are doing lies wholly in the merit of our clothes. Just think it over to yourself how you became a patron of ours.

Overcoats
