BIG CONTRACT FOR PENNSYLVANIANS for supplies.

A Philadelphia Bridge Company the Lowest Bidders.

WILL SPAN THE RIVER YSSEL

The Pencoyd Iron Works, In Compe-Holland.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—The A. & P. Roberts company, who owns and operates the Pencoyd Iron works, of this city, has received a cablegram from Utrecht stating that the company's bid of $474,000 is the lowest in the competition for the contract for the mater-ial and erection of an extensive iron bridge over the river Yssel, near West-eryoor, Netherlands. The bridge is to be built for the government of Holland, and the Pencoyd Iron company had as competitors a number of the leading iron manufacturers and bridge builders of England and Belgium. The next lowest bld was $487,000

Stanford Newel, the United States minister to The Hague, has vouchsafed to the government of Holland the thorough reliability of the Pencoyd company and its ability to promptly fulfill the contract should it receive the

The Pencoyd company has just closed a contract for about 4,000 tons of Iron bridge material for the Imperial rail-road of Japan, which is owned and controlled by the Japanese government. The material is for the construction of smaller bridges on the line of the railroad. Prior to the receipt of this contract the company had finished a large contract for bridge work for Japan and had also recently forwarded a supply of material to Mexico,

BADLY HANDICAPPED.

Percival Roberts said that in competing for work and the supply of material in South and Central America, his company as well as all other manufacturers in the United States, are badly handicapped by the lack of transportation facilities. England and Germany. he said, had steamship lines to ports in South and Central America which sailed weekly, and this certainty of transportation gave English and Ger-man manufacturers a great advantage over the Americans in their endeavors to obtain the trade of those sections. and in a great measure deterred Americans from entering into competition for the same.

The government, he said, should subsidize steamers so that regular sail-ings to South American ports could be looked for. Such a line of steamers, he felt confident, would in a few years be self-supporting and the assistance from the government could then cease. With equal transportation facilities, he said. the American manufacturers could compete with the world.

PLAY ENDS IN A TRAGEDY.

Fatal Termination of a Make-Believe Gunning Trip.

blown off by her 9-year-old brother

Monday afternoon and returned with considerable game. Upon his arrival at his home he placed his shotgun in the kitchen, but did not take the pre-caution to remove the lead. Shortly afterward he left the house. In his absence his little son and daughter took it into their heads to have a makebelieve gunning trip, the sight of the weapon inspiring the thought. The boy, Harry, aged 9 years, procured the gun, and pointing it at his sister Kate. admonished her to look out.

While the girl laughed and danced in glee as she looked into the grim muzzle of the gun, her brother pressed The deafening report the trigger. brought Mrs. Fisher, who was at the harn, in baste to the house. Groping her way through the blinding smoke in the kitchen, her worst fear was realized-one of her children had been mortally shot in play by the other.

The little victim of a brother's prank had met instantaneous death. The heavy charge of shot entered her neck directly about the shoulders, crashing its way through to the skin, literally tearing off the upper port of her head. A coroner's jury, after hearing the boy's recital of the events leading up to the tragedy, returned a verdict of accidental death.

COAL-WEIGHING LAW ATTACKED.

Denounced in Court as Degrading to a Laborer's Manhood. Pittsburg, Dec. 1.-The law passed by the last legislature requiring all coal mined in the bituminous regions to be weighed before being screened was vigorously attacked in court today by W. B. Rodgers, counsel for Captain S. S. Brown, a leading coal operator, who was prosecuted for violating the law, Attorney Rodgers said in his argument that by this act the legislature attempts to prevent persons from making their own contracts. "The act infringhe said, "In the same manner upon the rights of the employer and employed. It is an insulting attempt to place the laborer under a legislative tutelage that is not only degrading to his mandhood but subversive of his rights as a citizen of the United States." In defense or the act W. J. Brennan.private prosecutor in the case

"The business of coal mining in Alleghery county must be thoroughly demoralized when one man claims the right to pay his miners ten cents less than the price offered by his competitors, simply because he claims he does not cheat them."

A special veriflet was rendered reserving the point of law as to the constitutionality of the act, and the case came up for argument today.

Hanged for Unintentional Murder.

Pittsburg, Dec. I.-George Douglass, colored, who killed Albert Grayer, at Snowden, Pa , last spring in attempt ing to murder another man with whom he had quarreled over a game of craps was hanged in the county jail yard today. The accused expressed serrow for his crime.

TWENTY YEARS FOR ROONEY. Punishment for a Jealous Lover Who

ey was today convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to twenty years in the Eastern penitentiary for instantly killing Alphonse Picard and attempting to kill Miss Verona Selheim, whom he shot three times on Aug. 23 last. Picard and Rooney were rivals for the affections of the girl and the murder was committed when Rooney encountered the couple on the street together. The defense was that intoxication had made him irresponsible.

MT. M'GREGOR HOTEL BURNED.

The Balmoral, Near the Grant Cottage, Destroyed. Troy, Dec. L.—The Hotel Balmoral, on Mount McGregor, near Saratoga, was destroyed by fire between 12 and I o'clock this morning. The origin of the fire is not known. Painters were vorking in the building yesterday, and it is surmised that the fire caught in ome way from their oll-sonked rags. The fire was discovered by occupants of Grant cottage, near by. The hotel was erected in 1882, at a cost of $50,000, and the contents were valued at $25. 600. The insurance on building and contents was $28,000.

THE TEA SITUATION.

The New York Journal of Commerce of recent date says:

"Stocks are running low, and cannot e replenished this year from China or Japan, as teas available in those coun tries are not up to standards, and would be stopped at the customs. In 1895 the imports into North America were 112,000,000, in 1897 they are estimated to be only 97,000,000. The population meantime has increased, and so should the consumption of tea. From Calcutta and Colombo the shipments of India and Ceylon tens to London are short, while consumptin in Great Britain and exports thence have increased rapidly. From June 1 to September 30 the London imports were 984 millions in 4895 and 99 millions in 1897. Home consumption was 72% mil lions in 1895 and 77% millions in 1897. Exports were 10 millions in 1895 and 12% millions in 1897. Stocks have consequently fallen, and prices have risen. the average price of Ceylon teas sold by auction in London during the last week of October this year being 9.00 pence, against 81gd, for same week of last year. Importers are making stren-nous efforts to secure low priced teas from India and Ceyion, but in the present statistical condition of the trade this is hopeless if teas up to the stand-ards are to be imported. As members of these firms fixed the standards we must suppose they want teas at least equal to them. Ceylon and India teas are always at their best between Octoher and March. If quality be desired, those teas should be bought

Since the above was published, the board of general appraisers has refused entry to about 15,000 cases of Pingsuey teas, each case weighing 28 pounds. This still further increases the shortada, as the cost of reshipping them to China or Japan would be too expensive; besides, there would be no market for them there, as the natives of those countries will not drink the "lie" and doctored teas that are especially made to fool consumers in Apparatus of the standard of accountries will not drink the "lie" and doctored teas that are especially made to fool consumers in Apparatus of the standard of accountries will not drink the "lie" and doctored teas that are especially made to fool consumers in Apparatus of the standard of accountries will not drink the "lie" and doctored teas that are especially made age, and there are many shipments on

EVIDENCE CHAIN IN KAISER CASE

Mrs. Huzzard Comes Forward With an Interesting Story.

SHE IDENTIFIES CHARLES O. KAISER

Satisfied That He Is the Man Who Rode in a Buggy with a Woman Who Was Huddled Up in a Heap. Lizzie KeKulb Is Cheerful -- Requisition Papers for Clemmer.

Norristown, Pa., Dec. 1.-Interest in the Kaiser murder case was stimulated today by the rumor that Charles O. Kaiser was about to make a confes-His attorneys, however, assert that he has never made any such in

Mrs. Huzzard, who lives in the De Kalb turnpike, near the Gulf Mills road, has turned up with an interesting story which would tend to show that the murder was committed before so'clock on the night of Oct. 28, 1896, and in the (wilight instead of later and in pitchy darkness. She says that at 5,30 p. m. a team drove up containing a man and a woman, and that her attention was attracted to it by the attitude of the woman, who sat sideways on the seat, with her back to the The woman was Emma P. man. Kaiser, and the man Charles O. Kaiser. Mrs. Huzzard went to the court room when Kaiser was on trial and satisfied herself that he was the man. Almost immediately behind it came another carriage, and Kaiser shouted tack to its occupants Hetween 6.05 and 6.15 p. m. Mrs. Huzzard saw the same carriage returning, but instead of the man and woman being distant to each other, the man had the woman clasped to him and she lay all huddled up in a heap. There was also another man in the carriage.

LUZZIE ILL, BUT CHEERFUL. Lizzie DeKalb was ill today, having contracted a heavy cold during the drive yesterday. She was cheerful, however, her counsel said, and felt sure of being able to convince a jury of her innocence of any active participation in the shooting.

Concerning her statement, District Attorney Strassburger would only say that it will hang Clemmer, while Liz-zie's lawver asserts that it will send both Clemmer and Kaiser to the gallow, but acquit her. Governor Hastings has signed the requisition papers for the extradition of Clemmer, and Chief of Police Rod-enbaugh left for Newark, N. J., today to bring him here.

Charles O. Kalser will within a day or so, it is said, make a full confession of his crime to District Attorney Strassburger. Whether the confession will implicate Lizzie DeKalb, or Clemmer, remains to be seen. The general opinion among those who know of the contemplated confession is that Kaiser will show that they were all implicated to a greater or less degree.
