REV. E. J. M'HENRY ACCEPTS. He Will Be the Paster of St. David's

Episcopal Church. Rev. E. J. McHenry, paster of the Grace Episcopal church of Great Bend, Fx. has accepted the appointment of Archdoncon D. Webster Coxe, of Alden, Pa., to the pastorship of St. David's Episcopal church of West Scranton. Figure, Mr. McHenry sent word to Chas. Frazer, secretary of St. David's ves-try board, to that effect Saturday and the accentance was read at both services of the church yesterday. The new paster, who succeeds Rev. M. H. Mill, resigned, will assume his duties here on January 1, 1898. His first service will be the colebration of Holy Communion on New Year's morning at hev. Mr. McHenry preached in St. David's church Surday, Oct. 31, and a call was sent to Archdencon Coxe Nov. 8 asking for his appointment to the open pastorate. The prospective paster came to this city again Tuesday, Nov. 39, and remained here until Dec. 2. being a guest of J. W. Pannell, of Jackson street. His purpose was to go over the pastorate and also to try to procure a residence for his family. He attended a meeting of the church vestry board Wednesday evening and it was then understood that he contemplated accepting the appointment. Rev. Mr. McHenry was ordained about four years ago in St. Luke's Episcopul church in this city and was soon afterwards appointed to his present pasterate. His congregation made a strong effort to keep him. He will not ing his family here until spring, not having procured a suitable residence.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM WILLIAMS The funeral services of the late William W. Williams, of 1813 Lafayette street, were held yesterday afternoon at the residence. There were many friends in attendance who desired to express their esteem for one whose friendship they had enjoyed during his The Hampton Mine Accidental fund, of which the deceased was a member, was represented. The floral tributes were very beautiful and profuse. A quartette sang the gelections and Rev. H. H. Harris, D. D., of Taylor, officinted. He preached the functal sermon in which he spoke of the many manly traits which had characbelized the deceased during life. At the cenclusion of the services, the re-mains were viewed, and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery where interment was made. A large funeral cortens accompanied the remains to the cometery. The pallbearers were: Wil-liam Davis, Richard Davis, Christman Griffiths and John Godfrey.

Grand Wid-Winter Show of Furs

For the first time during the present season, we bring Furs prominently to the front. As usual, we are thoroughly in earnest and have not only provided

A Large Display

But have added additional interest by offering THE BEST FUR VALUES that has or can be offered during the entire Winter. We speak advisedly in this matter, and our reasons for so doing will be early understood.

The Fur Season

With us is always a short one, and we have determined that in place of carrying over a few of this thing and the other, far on into the spring, as has been the case hitherto, and then slaughtering them, that the whole range will be OFFERED AT THE LOWEST PRICE NOW, and done with it.

See Our New Fur Collarettes

Plain, Comfortable shapes, very dressy creations, swell collarettes, with long tabs and tails, etc., etc. These come in anything from the common Coney seals to the finest Martins. Martins and Persian Lamb combined, etc., etc.

Fur Capes

In new shades, popular furs, perfect making and trimming, and values that have never even been approached.

Fur Trimmed Garments

Our line of these is complete in every detail. There never has been a season when they were more in demand, and as we have reached the period when cut prices are general, fur trimmed garments of all kinds can be bought for much less money now than carlier in the season.

REFORM COMMITTEE PLANS.

Saloons, Posters and Slot Machines to Be Given Attention.

committee of the recently organized Reform society met on Saturday and decided upon a general Han for the movement against evil in this city. It was announced after the meeting that the organization would not resort-at least not for the present-to stringent measures.

It is proposed to first move against indecent bill board pictures and Sunday saloons and nickle-in-the-slot machines and other devices of chance. Representatives of the society will request saloon and Lotel proprietors to sign an agreement to close their bars on Sunday. This is to be followed by arrests and convictions if such action is found necessary. The latter movement is not to be general, but it is thought that if one or two convictious are secured that Sunday closing will secome general.

It has not been known what the society's plans are in reference to posters and automatic gambling machines. The leaders in the movement claim that they are not cranks and that they will conduct their work along common sense lines using methods of persuasion rather then recourse to the law.

CHURCH FIGHTING A LICENSE.

Goes Into Court.

Judges Gunster and Edwards heard arguments Saturday morning on the motion to allow Edward F. Walsh to motion to allow Edward F. Walsh to transfer his wholesale liquor store from Bank bildg. 122 Wyoming avenue. Schlager building on the corner of Luckawanna and Washington avenues. Opposition was made to the transfer by Attorney W. J. Hand, representing the First Presbyterian church congregation, the grounds for opposing the transfer being that the rear of the Schlager building is only twenty feet from the church property.

W. F. Shean and George S. Horn, attorneys for Mr. Walsh, argued that the building has been leased for five years by Mr. Walsh and is now undergoing expensive alterations, and that the church is to be moved up town in the near future, a meeting to consider this project being scheduled for next Thursday night.

Mr. Hand admitted that such was the case, but claimed that it would be several years before the new church would be built, if it was to be built,
