WEDDING IN TURKEY.

An American Marriage Ceremony, as

It Appears to the Turkish Reporter. Below is given an account of the marriage of an American couple which occurred recently at Aaleth, Mount Lebanon, Syria, viewed from the standpoint of the Turkish reporter, who seems to have been favorably impressed with the American wedding eremony. The bride, Miss Ethel Hyde Jersup, is the daughter of the wellknown missionary, Rev. Dr. H. H. Jesrup, of Beirut, and is niece of Judge Jessup and C. A. Jessup, of this city, The following is a translation of the account of the wedding, which appeared in a Turkish newspaper, and vas printed in the Montrose Republi- M. J. McAndrew, miner, Archbald, can of Saturday. The fascination which the Turkish reporter has thrown about his story indicates that the genius that immortalized the "Arabian Nights" has not been entirely extinguished in the Arab story teller of today:

Alleih, September 24, 1857.

My Lord the Editor: It was my good fortune two days since to attend the marriage ceremony in the house of his excellency. Her, Dr. Henry Jessup, the American, in the village of Anleih. It was conducted with great brilliancy, beauty and perfect order combining all the features of deliber, and reality. the features of delight and politicess. For perfect quiet and peace prevailed during the entire ceremons, a fact which I regarded as the charest indication of the high degree of civilization, dignity and perfection which the American peace. ple have attained in all their undertak-

The two brides (bride and groom) were 19r, Frank Moote, one of the teachers of the American college, and Miss Ethel, the American college, and Miss Ethel, the daughter of his excellency, the fiev, desup mentioned above. At a o'clock on Thursday afternoon the invited guests began to assemble in companies in different part of Beirut and Lebanen in the apacious rides of the domicile of the bride's family. And as soon as a lady citered the house there advanced to meet the rone of the voining men apacing of the properties. Believing the first properties of the force of the voining men apacing of the properties. her one of the young men appointed over the office of reception, who led her to a reat under one of the arboreal canopies se at under one of the arboreal canopies of living green or under one of the awaings spread out in the pleasure gardens which encompass this beautiful house.
Now, when the company of invited guests was complete, consisting of gentlemen and ladies, as well of children, who were like living flowers transfigured among the gardens, behold there came suddenly the sounds of delictors green its. the sounds of delicious music like the warbling of bulbuls (nightingaies), rising at first with gentle cadence from the recorrect of the shady paths overspread with carpets, then swelling more and more distinctly by degrees, until there appeared, like the rising of the sun, from among the winding paths, six virgins cial in white raiment and bearing branches of the tole. gins clad in white raiment and hearing branches of the tube rose crowned with their white fragrant blossoms, the very symbols of purity. Nice continued singing the song of welcome to the bridegroom until they reached the area in which was erected a bower of greens and roses and wild Jessamine, under whose done hims the marriage bell, constructed of freen leaves and white flowers. Their followed them a company of ladies and gentlemen in pairs, sorrounding the bridestroom, who was led by the brother of the bride. Next followed the marks of homor hearing bounders of flowers before the bride, who walked with slow fore the bride, who walked with slow step, leaning upon the arm of her noble father. She was arrayed in a robe of bright and pure white satin and on her bead was a crown of orange blosso, and on her countenance were portrayed Cornelius Hasham, manufacturer, Scranthe lineaments of gentleness, dignity and modesty, veiled with a displaneous (or delicate) veil of purest tulle.

And when they reached the green how-er, the bride took her position by the sile of her bridegroom, each one taking the hand of the other.

Then the Rev. Dr. Samuel Jessup beclear, distinct voice. Then the father of the bride united with him in the ceremony in a manner profoundly impressive.

And what added solemnity and dignity to this marriage service was the fact that all present were standing listering 276 barrels; runs, 20,376 barrels.

intently and with perfect ellence to this delightful service of prayers, assembled as it were in a temple illuminated with the golden rays of the sun from the depths of the blue dome of neaven.

After the benedletion upon the two brides all the assembled company came forward to congratulate them upon their spicious marriage, while they receive ill with smiles, affability and courtesy.

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Scre-Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure.

" For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Someone sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this med- M.E. KEELEY, Mgr. Telephone 3954 icine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." MRS. ANNA E. EAKEN, Whittlesey, Ohio.

WILL PAY $100 FOR ANY CASE Of Weakness in Men They Trent and Fail to Cure.

An Omaha Company places for the first time before the public a MAGI-CAL TREATMENT for the cure of Lost Vitality, Nervous and Sexual Weakness, and Restoration of Life Force in old and young men. No worn-out French remedy; contains no Phosphorous or other harmful drugs. It is a WONDERFUL TREATMENT. Magical in its effects-postive in its cure. All readers, who are suffering from a weakness that blights their life, causing that mental and physical suffering peculiar to Lost Manhood, should write to the STATE MEDICAL COMPANY, Suite 717, Range Luilding, Omaha, Neb., and they will send you absolutely FREE, a valuable paper on these diseases, and postive proofs of their truly MAGICAL TREATMENT. Thousands of men, who have lost all hope of a cure are being restored by them to a perfect condition.

This MAGICAL TREATMENT may be taken at home under their direc-tions, or they will pay railroad fare and hotel bills to all who prefer to go there for treatment, if they fall to cure. They are perfectly reliable; have no Free Prescriptions. Free Cure. Free Sample, or C. O. D. fake. They have $250,000 capital, and guarantee to cure every case they treat or refund very dollar; or their charges may be deposited in a bank to be paid to them when a cure is effected. Write them
