PAVE ASSESSMENT IS NOW IN COURT. Mulberry Street Difficultly to Be Legally Solved. CASE STATED IS SUBMITTED. Property Holders on Blocks Which Have the Annoyance and Inconvenience of Street Car Tracks Believe the Traction Company's Contribution Should Not Be Used to Help in Paying for Paving on Blocks Which Have No Tracks.

PAVE ASSESSMENT IS NOW IN COURT. Whether or not the Mulberry street property holders who have car tracks in front of their places must share with their neighbors who have not this convenience, the bonus that comes from the car company having to pay for the paving between its tracks, is to be decided by means of a case stated.

PAVE ASSESSMENT IS NOW IN COURT. "First—The city of Scranton is a city of the third class and governed by that legislation applicable thereto since April 4, 1877.

PAVE ASSESSMENT IS NOW IN COURT. "Third—The preliminary and final assessment upon the abutting owners along the line of said paving work made by the City Engineer by a uniform assessment, upon the abutting front foot without any allowance for the part paved with brick by the street railway companies, or for the street intersections. A copy of said assessment is hereto attached.

PAVE ASSESSMENT IS NOW IN COURT. "Fifth—The defendant is an abutting owner on the line of said improvement, being the owner of a lot on the southeast corner of Mulberry street and Irving avenue, the portion abutting on Mulberry street having a frontage of 80 feet. In front of this lot the street railway company has a double track road, occupying between its outer rails a space of fourteen and one-fourth feet of the width of the center of the street along the entire frontage of defendant's lot; which space was paved with brick by said company at its own expense and with the approval of the city of Scranton, before the asphalt under this contract was laid.

THE PASSING OF THE INDIAN. Lecture of Dr. Dixon at the Penn Avenue Baptist Church. Probably the finest illustrated lecture ever given in Scranton was that of last evening at Penn Avenue Baptist church, delivered by the pastor, Rev. Joseph K. Dixon, D. D., on "The Passing of the Indian."

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. Fire Broke Out at Her Home Early Yesterday Morning. SHE WAS ILL AND CONFINED TO BED. While Being Carried from the Burning Building by a Neighbor Her Clothing Caught Fire and She Was Most Painfully Burned—Her Condition Is Dangerous—It Is Not Known How the Fire Started. Building Entirely Destroyed.

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. The burning of a house owned and occupied by the family of David J. Thomas in Feltz patch, borough of Taylor, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning, resulted in serious injuries to Mrs. Thomas.

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. The woman was confined to her bed with sickness and when the fire was at its height she was borne from an upstairs apartment to the open air by way of a flight of stairs already engulfed in flames.

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. Just how the fire started is not known. The family was awakened by the stifling smoke in the house and when Mr. Thomas reached the head of the stairs—the only avenue of escape—he found the flames creeping from the basement to the upper floor. The father quickly grabbed his children and rushed through the flames to the outside.

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. Mr. Thomas at this time was laying helpless on the bed in her room. She was reached by the watchman and other employees of the Holden breaker, situated a short distance away.

MRS. D. J. THOMAS BADLY BURNED. By the time the rescuers reached the bedroom the flames had reached the upstairs and the draperies were burning. Mrs. Thomas was carried out by Foreman W. B. Owen. Very effective work was done in preventing the spread of the flames. The damage is about $200.

ALDERMAN STORR'S JUSTICE. He Denies It On According to Common Sense Principles. That class of people, who, at the slightest justification, call a policeman a thief, are not only a nuisance to the community, but they are also a danger to the peace of the city.
