AN IMPOSSIBLE SITUATION.

New York Commercial-Advertiser.

The hopeful feature of the Cuban situation is the obvious sincerity of General Blanco's purpose to do all in his power to pacify the island and satisfy public opinion in the United States. There is good evidence of this in his stout maintenance of the right of autonomous Cuba to make its own tariff and its refusal to accept of the government's modification of Weyler's cruel scheme of concentration. In the release of the Competitor prisoners, and in the general mildness of his administration. This taken together with the peaceful and reasonable disposition of the president, is ground to believe that the nations will not be plunged into a most painful and difficult to both Sagasta and Blanco have given the president grounds for a firm policy in restraint of congressional ardor for demonstration of humane sympathy and national self-assertion.

All that personal good sense and moderation can do to bring about an accommodation between Spain and Cuba will be done. But the daily march of events makes it only more clear that Spain, Cuba and the United States, Sagasta, Blanco and McKinley, are engaged in a struggle of economic and social forces which cannot be resisted or impeded, and which make for separation between Spain and Cuba. The plan for autonomy, if accepted and declared, and it must be assumed that it is the most liberal the Madrid government can grant without exciting a revolution in Cuba, is a plan that is in reality a control of the provincial parliament through the power of appointment to the upper house, and it remains a preferential tariff of 25 per cent in favor of Spain. Moreover, it does not touch the question of what is called the Cuban debt, now not less than $200,000,000.

This has been accepted by the leaders of the insurrectionary party of loyal autonomists, but it has been rejected by the insurgents, with promise of the death of a spy or traitor to any Spaniard who shall propose or carry out the plan. It is clear that this plan could not bring peace and prosperity to Cuba. It does nothing to abate the social and economic pressure for separation. It leaves Cuban industry and trade impoverished by tribute to Spanish manufacturers and commerce and by the extravagance and corruption of the Spanish administration, and crushed under the weight of Spanish debt. This means ruin and bankruptcy for Cuban planters and traders, and starvation and despair for the Cuban people. Were every political motive to separation removed, the Spanish connection could not endure on this basis.

Susquehanna, Dec. 7.—A few days ago a lad was leading a cow along the road near Ararat when he reached the depot he tied the animal to the coupling pin of a freight car, which was standing on a switch, and went inside of the station to get warm. Unfortunately for the cow, an engine backed up on the switch, and the engineer, not seeing the cow, coupled on to the car and started towards Carbondale. The bovine was not noted as a sprinter, but she was forced down the grade at a 2 1/2 gait. A farmer, who saw the predicament, managed to signal Engineer Ammerman to stop, otherwise there must have been a spurt of speed on the part of the cow unheard of before by any cow, or a broken neck, for the boy had secured tied her with a stout rope. As it is she is alive and well, and holds the record of Ararat for that sort of race. The Delaware and Hudson may eventually adopt this method of getting live stock over the road "with neatness and dispatch."

It is now stated that the fabled fox did not care for the grapes because he was afraid that they might get into his vermiform appendix.

It is remarked that when a woman stops crying about a man she has stopped caring for him.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Dec. 7.—Today's stock market displayed noteworthy strength throughout the day and the demand for stocks was broader and more widely distributed throughout the list than has been the case in a long time. There was hostility on the opening, probably induced by the lower prices from London and some of the stocks which developed most aggressive strength later showed small losses at the opening. The early afternoon was in fact most notable in the specialties. The largest gains in the first hour were in the specialties. Southern preferred was the first of the railroad stocks to attract marked attention and the price was advanced a point. New Central was also showing a tendency to recover from its recent weakness, though its tone was feverish. This and the irregularity of Sugar checked the activity of the market at various times and there were several periods of dullness on slight reaction during the day. It was not till the afternoon that the strength of the market became aggressive and general. The market was helped by the dividend declarations announced today and those in prospect. The action of the market reflected very distinctly the large and aggressive operations of manipulative combinations and there was very little outside interest manifested in the stock division of the market. Total sales were 10,000 shares.

Farmer Hopkins' Evidence.

HE TELLS ABOUT THE SUFFERING OF HIS DAUGHTER.

A Victim of Nervous Prostration and Neuralgia, Saved After Her Physician Abandoned Hope.

From the Republican, Columbus, Ind.

While in the neighborhood of Hughes, Indiana, recently, a reporter was told that Miss Clara Hopkins, daughter of Mr. Dennis Hopkins, a prominent farmer of Bartholomew County, had been the subject of a remarkable transformation. The reporter decided to investigate and learn the particulars. He was driven to Mr. Hopkins' splendid country home, where he had an interesting conversation with that gentleman regarding the illness of his only daughter.

"You have been correctly informed," said Mr. Hopkins, "for Clara has indeed had a severe case. She tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and they did her more good than all other medicines together that she ever took. A few
