FARMER VEITH'S GRIEVANCES.

Caused the Arrest of Boys Who Despoiled His Field.

For some time Adam Veith, farmer, residing near Liberty Heights, has been annoyed by the depredations of some boys living in Bellevue and Patagonia. Yesterday a gang of youths went into a field where the corn had been cut, shucked and stacked. They proceeded to tear down and distribute to the four winds a great number of the stacks.

Later in the day William Francis and David J. Griffiths were arrested upon a charge of malicious mischief and trespass, the warrant being issued by Alderman Moses at the instance of Farmer Veith. David J. Griffiths pleaded guilty, turned informer against his companions and was allowed to go. Another warrant was then issued for the arrest of James Jenkins and William Evans. Thomas Jenkins and William Evans on a similar charge. They, with Francis, were fined $5 each and costs. This was paid by the parents in each instance.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.

The fair and festival which was conducted at the Plymouth Congregational church during the last two evenings, was brought to a close last evening after a grand success in all departments. The affair was in charge of the Ladies' Aid society of the church and their enterprise was well rewarded. Large numbers were served with supper and nearly everything displayed at the several booths were bought. A handsome sum was realized. The officers of the Aid are: President, Mrs. John H. Williams; vice president, Mrs. William James; secretary, Mrs. A. B. Eynon; treasurer, Mrs. D. R. Williams. The ladies who had charge of the several tables and booths are as follows: Fancy and doll booth, Mrs. John James; Mrs. Evan Davis; Miss Lizzie Davis; Mrs. William T. Davis and Mrs. D. R. Williams; nutron booth, Mrs. John T. Edwards; Mrs. Sol. Jones; Mrs. David Reese; table No. 1, Mrs. Loomis and Mrs. Richard Owens; table No. 2, Mrs. Joseph M. Williams; Watkins; Mrs. William Parsons; table No. 3, Mrs. Joseph Hughes and Mrs. Morgan Williams; table No. 4, Mrs. Samuel Powell and Mrs. James Leysen; Mrs. Thos. Allen; Mrs. William J. Morgan; Mrs. D. C. Hughes; Mrs. Weaver; Mrs. S. Evans and Mrs. Thomas James preside in the department where the good things are dispensed.

CAME TO AN AGREEMENT.

Several months ago Wasil Buchnok, of Twenty-second street, was arrested upon a warrant issued by Alderman Kelly at the instance of a neighbor, Frank Holiska. The charge was a serious one, that of having a greater regard for Mrs. Holiska than was lawful. The last grand jury ignored the case and placed the costs upon Holiska for non-appearance. Last evening, he had Buchnok arrested upon a similar charge, and he was given a hearing before Alderman Kelly. Attorney W. W. Bayler appeared for Holiska and they came to an agreement. The defendant paid the costs and gave an additional amount of money to cover the prosecutor's trouble for both suits. They still are neighbors.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Mrs. Julia Hains, of Wilkes-Barre, was brought before Alderman Jones yesterday morning on a charge of "detention" preferred by John Zintel, of Scranton street. Mrs. Hains' son, Charles Freeman, had boarded with Mr. Zintel for two months in 1896 for which she agreed to pay $16. She paid $8 and stopped. Mrs. Hains came here yesterday on business and Mr. Zintel made it his business. The defendant paid the $8 still due, the costs and departed, bemoaning the cold-heartedness of mankind in general.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. William Kime, of Robinson street, has returned from a visit with relatives at Dalton.

Mrs. George O. Hammit, of North Red-bone avenue, is visiting relatives at Honesdale.

James Jopling, of Inkerman, is the guest of West Scranton friends.

Mrs. T. H. Jones, of Jackson street, and fighting against Howell Thomas and John John, and "abetting a scamp" against Llewellyn Thomas.

Fathermen Jones, Peters and Sand made the arrests. The fight which was by "free and open" rules took place at a late hour Wednesday evening and was brought about by a dispute between Howell Thomas and John John. L. Thomas advised the fight, as charged, and the men repaired to a vacant space in front of Neville's stables on Price street. They took off their outer clothing, rolled up their shirt sleeves, and started. L. Thomas paid his fine that same evening. The other two, being drunk, were given a hearing yesterday morning and paid their fines.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The drug store of John J. Davies, on South Main avenue, near the corner of Jackson street, will be closed today from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m., owing to the funeral services of Mrs. Henry P. Eynon, to be held at the residence, 507 Eynon street, at 12 o'clock.

James Neary, John Nolan and Thomas Gordon leave today for New York city, where they will take in the bicycle race.

The Father Whitty society held a very interesting meeting at their rooms last evening. The hours were pleasantly whirled away by the presence of three speakers from nearby societies. Following the speech-making an entertainment was conducted, in which several of the members participated. A smoker added the social season. William Jermyn, of Wayne avenue, is recovering from his indisposition.

Miss Lizzie Davis, a prominent young lady in this place, tendered her many friends a reception at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Davis, on Brick avenue. There were present about forty couples, who were agreeably entertained by the hostess. Miss Davis was assisted in receiving the guests by Miss Mary Morgan and Miss Hattie Owens. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, dancing and musical selections. Refreshments were served at a late hour, after which the guests departed for their respective homes.

The meeting at the First Welsh Baptist church this evening will be in the hands of the young people. The Olympian society will be present and take the leading part in the programme. In addition to the devotional and song services, several young people from Olympian and Providence will give receltations and solos. One special feature of the meeting will be a question box.

The questions will be asked by one society and answered by the president of the other. All the questions will relate to the work of the societies.

FUNERAL OF JAMES T. WHALE.

Solemn High Mass of Requiem Celebrated in St. Paul's Church.

The funeral of the late James T. Whale took place yesterday morning from the home of his mother, on Monsey avenue, and was attended by a large concourse of friends and the members of St. Paul's Father Mathew society of which he was a member. At St. Paul's Catholic church a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. L. Dunn. The deacon was Rev. P. J. McManus, pastor of St. Paul's church, and Rev. J. A. O'Reilly was sub-deacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. M. B. Donlan and Rev. James Fagin, of Great Bend.

The sermon was preached by Rev. P. J. McManus, who took his text from Isaiah 55:8-9, "My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways, my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are exalted above the earth, so are my ways exalted above your ways, and my thoughts above your thoughts." From this text Father McManus spoke many words of consolation to the sorrowing relatives of the deceased, who had been gathered to his father's grave in life. Only religion, the speaker said, can bring hope and consolation in such an hour of sorrow and trial.

The choir of St. Paul's church sang during the mass and was assisted by Miss Sarah Dougherty, of Dunmore, who rendered several solos. After the services in the church the remains were taken to Mt. Carmel cemetery, Dunmore, where interment was made.

LECTURE ROOM WAS CROWDED.

Successful Entertainment Under the Direction of Miss Dorsey.

The lecture room of Elm Park church was crowded last evening at the entertainment for the benefit of the "What-So-Ever" ten of the King's Daughters. The affair was given under the management of Miss Dorsey, the teacher of deportment and elocution. There were several performers who gave opportunity for pretty recitations. The participants were chiefly pupils of Miss Dorsey.

Miss Cornelia Moredock recited effectively a selection from Kate Douglas Wigener's "Carol for Christmas Party." The Misses Olive Jadin and Bettrice McCorn gave pleasing recitations. Miss Evangeline Dorsey recited with much intelligence a dramatic selection entitled "Mona's Waters." Miss Susie Gross recited in her usual pleasing manner "Kentucky Bells." Miss Jessie Stearns interpreted realistically "The Birds Over My Doorway." Marie Hess next gave a pretty recitation. Miss Grace Shinn, Evangeline Dorsey and Jessie Stearns played piano accompaniment. By request the entertainment will be repeated.

TOWN TOPICS AT ACADEMY.

Pleased the Audience That Saw It Last Night.

"Town Topics," which began a three days' engagement at the Academy of Music last night, does not boast of much of a plot but it's entertaining, and after all, that's the main consideration in a farce comedy. A fairly sized audience saw and enjoyed it last night.

In the company are John W. World, William S. Keller, William H. Mack, Miss Paul Henri and several other clever performers who keep the fun going merrily from beginning to end. Besides the evening performances today and tomorrow there will be matinees each day.
