

CHRISTMAS THINGS for Boys.

We know the little fellows will not be disappointed—we see it in the parents' faces—but, go slow—not too many toys—a little fun is good, but a sprinkling of the substantial to strengthen it, makes it better. Many the boy would prefer a reefer to a sled, or a suit to a pair of skates, and the money that buys one will, perhaps, buy the other.

It is better to say "what does he need?" than "what would he like?"—better for the boy at least.

This is only a list—a reminder of what is good to give him:

- Boys' Reefers, 3 to 10 years, $1.65 to $6.50.
- Boys' Vestee Suits, 3 to 8 years, $1.98 to $6.00.
- Boys' Sailor Suits, 3 to 10 years, $2.50 to $7.00.
- Boys' Reefer Suits, 3 to 10 years, $1.98 to $8.00.
- Double-Breasted Suits, 9 to 16 years, $1.98 to $9.00

- Boys' Leggins,
- Boys' Caps,
- Boys' Gloves,
- Boys' Mitts,
- Boys' Blouses,
- Boys' Ties,
- Boys' Waists,
- Boys' Collars.

In fact, everything you can mention that boys wear—is here, for the asking.

Coming.
Coming.

Christmas only a week away and coming down the home stretch at a spanking pace.

The very day will be on us before we know it—shall it find us unprepared?

The best buying time is to buy early in the day and early in the week.

We will take care of what you buy.

And deliver it when you say so.

If anything goes wrong please report it to us at once.

We will right it promptly.

The name over the door is only for direction.

This Store
Is Magnetized.

The goods are the magnets that draw you closer and the prices hold you fast.

The windows—South and East—are the loadstone ends of the magnet; now overloaded with attractiveness.

Let us warn you in time—don't come too close—the temptation is great and the chances are you will have your money fairly drawn from your pockets.

But we know you won't heed—we know you will come all the quicker because we say, beware!

Open every night till Xmas—for your accommodation—the ones whose duties keep them busy day times can be assured of perfect service until our door closes.
