HORSES FOR COLUMBIA COMPANY.

Received Yesterday and Will Begin Thirty Days Trial.

The Columbia Theatrical company received a new team of horses from Chief F. J. Hickey yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The team, whose weight aggregates 3,130 pounds, will be on trial for thirty days. The horses are almost evenly matched in weight, size and color, which is from grey. Permanent Man Meyers gave them their first trial about 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and Chief Hickey, Mr. Cobb and several members of the company witnessed the operation. The horses behaved well, did not seem to chafe in the harness, and pulled the apparatus like veterans. Tom and Harry, as they will be called, are already snags in the graces of the Columbia "boys" who have seen them. Of course, they will have to be formally accepted by the authorities after a fair and satisfactory trial. A week or two ought to give a fair test of their capabilities. Then will come the long, tedious training for quick and efficient service, which Permanent Man Meyers has had the experience with his former team and no doubt will quickly round them into form.

The company for a few days will necessarily be out of service as a consequence of the trial. The other team, Kittle and Fannie, are now placed at the service of the Crystal Engine company, of the central city, where they will prove as capable as they were with the Columbias. The company regretted letting them go, but as Permanent Man Meyers remarked to Chief Hickey: "They are too light for our heavy apparatus and our ability to respond quickly will, of course, be hampered by this fact, and the horses themselves would suffer by the heavy work. So what's the use of spilling a good team just to keep them." So the change was made.

IVORITE OFFICERS.

The Robert Morris Lodge, True Levites, met in regular session last evening at Ivorite hall. The ordinary routine business of the lodge was transacted and in addition the election of officers for the coming six months occurred. The election resulted in the choice of the following: President, John D. Hughes; vice president, David J. Davis; secretary, David J. Davis; financial secretary, C. A. Williams; auditor, E. E. Robinson; treasurer, John J. Davis; outside guard, Stephen T. Dyer; outside guard, John Fowler; ex-officio, D. P. Phillips; trustee for one year, D. P. Williams. Roger Evans was selected as the representative to the grand lodge. An auditing committee composed of L. A. Howell, James C. Powell and Attorney W. K. Lewis, was chosen. The newly elected officers will be duly installed in their respective offices Thursday, Jan. 6.

HOSPITAL DIRECTORS MEET.

The board of directors of the West Side hospital met in regular session last evening at the hospital and transacted considerable routine business. President John R. Parr was presiding officer, and there was a full attendance of directors. It was agreed that New Year's day should be designated as the regular donation day for the hospital, commencing with the coming first of January. The general public who desire to donate anything from a "widow's mite" to a large sum or even anything in the line of provisions can do so and rest assured that all will be very acceptable.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Guy R. Relf is quite seriously ill at his home, corner Chestnut and Lafayette streets. Miss Ida Harris, of Archbald street, formerly with Clarke Brothers, in the millinery department, has secured a similar position with Jonas Long's Sons. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Pedrick, of 429 North Main avenue, is ill with membranous croup. Mrs. Patrick Wright, of Luzerne street, is seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia at her home. Miss Anna Davis, formerly employed at Hanley's dining rooms, has taken charge of Jonas Long's Sons' cafe. Miss Emma Gammon, of Atlantic City, has returned, after visiting West Scranton friends. Charles Seely, of Ninth street, is home from a trip to New York city. Miss Bessie Winans, of Jackson street, is quite ill at her home. Mrs. L. E. Ogden, of South Main avenue, has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Daniel Prothrope returns today to Milwaukee, Wis., after visiting her mother, Mrs. Job Harris, of Eyon street, who has been seriously ill for some time. Howell Harris, mining engineer for the Central Coal company, has moved his family into his new home on Division street. Mrs. Eliza Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, is here on account of the death of her father, David Evans, of 118 Hamilton street. T. J. Simons and family, of Carbonade, are here on account of the death of Richard Reese, of Lafayette street, a brother of Mrs. Simons.

NOTICE.

Tim Jones, tax collector for the Fifth ward, will be in his office, over 108 South Main avenue, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays between the hours of 2 and 8 p. m. to receive taxes.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

A full-sized audience heard the able lecture given by Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., of Kingston, at the First Welsh Congregational church. Dr. Edwards spoke upon "The Eloquence of Obedience" and talked in the Welsh and English languages. His remarks were decidedly original and interesting. Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church, acted as chairman of the evening. Druggist David M. Jones, of South Main avenue, desires to acquire his friend's of his intention of becoming a candidate for school controller in the Fifteenth ward. Mr. Jones has resided in the ward for the past seven years and has conducted his pharmacy business at the corner of Hamilton street and South Main avenue during that time. He enjoys a large circle of friends.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Elmer Stone was married to Miss Jennie M. Oakley, of Green Grove, Pa., Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's father by the Rev. F. P. Doty, of the West Side. Mr. and Mrs. Stone left immediately for New York and other points and upon their return will make this place their home. A large audience was present at the entertainment given last evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. The programme comprised excellent vocal and instrumental music, and several of the best artists in the line contributed in making the concert one of the best that has been rendered in this place for some time.

Table Linens

Choice table linens, napkins, towels, etc., in the quantities. Never yet failed to gladden the heart of the thrifty housewife. Many novelties, especially imported for the holiday trade, makes our stock wonderfully interesting.

Winter Furs

There's an ideal present, it comfort in the thought, uppermost in your mind. Beautiful, elegant, and warm sets for the children, etc., etc. All the popular skins at prices to suit any purse. Some at $1.50. Some at $5.00. Many in between.

Handkerchiefs

Drummers tell us that Scranton is one of the greatest handkerchief centers in the country. Probably that is one reason why we have the greatest stock. Real lace handkerchiefs, hemstitch handkerchiefs, print border handkerchiefs, etc. Price 1c. to $1.00.

Bric-a-Brac

A short way for summing up our great miscellaneous novelty and odds and ends stock especially bought for the holiday trade. Not a piece here that you saw last year. It's all new, and the new values are better than ever.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Two policemen and the patrol wagon were summoned Wednesday evening to the home of Mrs. Lutz on O'Connor court, where Richard M. Anderson, of South Washington avenue, had been raising a disturbance and trying to get possession of his little boy. McAndrew eluded the police by jumping over a rear fence and disappearing in the darkness. He and his wife had lived happily together except, as she claims, when he was drunk. He had been on a spree for nearly a month and recently she left home with the boy and has since lived with Mrs. Lutz.

Sewing Machines

The Globe Sewing Machine is as good as the best and highest priced on the market. The Cabinet work is of the highest grade. Not a piece here that you saw last year. It's all new, and the new values are better than ever.

DUNMORE.

The Sans Souci Dramatic club will hold an entertainment in Manley's hall this evening. The 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy is ill at their home on Chestnut street.

SHAMUS O'BRIEN WELL SUNG.

Headed by a Small Audience in the Lyceum Theatre.

It is a regrettable fact that the audience that heard "Shamus O'Brien" sung at the Lyceum last night was small. It is a three-act opera, and the Duff company, which presented it to a Scranton audience for the first time, is one of the best light opera organizations that has been heard in Scranton for some time.

OBITUARY.

Morgan Jenkins, of 146 South Hyde Park avenue, died at his residence Wednesday afternoon after an illness which began from blood poisoning. This was his first and only illness and he had reached the ripe age of 60 years. His father died when 96 and his mother lived to a good age. It being a long-lived family from which he came. He was born in Perry Field, South Wales, in 1837, and came to this country in 1853, locating in Danville with his own family. In 1892 he removed to Briar Creek and in March of this year he came to West Scranton.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

Uncle Tom's Cabin. The Allentown Morning Call has this to say of the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company which will appear in the Lyceum Saturday afternoon and evening. "Although 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' has been presented in this city an innumerable number of times, it is a large audience present last night at the Academy to witness the production of the play by the Saiter & Martin company. The part of Uncle Tom was played by a large and honest looking man brought to the eyes of many of the audience. The roles of Topsy and Foe were well taken by Stella Thompson and Baby Bonnet. The specialties were superb. The performance was one of the best of any kind presented in the Academy this year."

SHAMUS O'BRIEN WELL SUNG.

Headed by a Small Audience in the Lyceum Theatre.

It is a regrettable fact that the audience that heard "Shamus O'Brien" sung at the Lyceum last night was small. It is a three-act opera, and the Duff company, which presented it to a Scranton audience for the first time, is one of the best light opera organizations that has been heard in Scranton for some time.

The Director of the opera was written by George H. Jessup, who has depicted many phases of Irish life for the stage. The music was composed by C. Villiers Stanford. Much of it is characteristically Irish, and yet it is not reminiscent. Mr. Stanford believes in originality more than in flinching from the operas that have preceded "Shamus O'Brien."

Arthur Cunningham, who was imported to sing the title role, scored a decided success. Physically he is an ideal Shamus O'Brien, and his voice is as winning as his personality. A winning Payne Clark, the possessor of another fine voice, sang the role of Mike Naphy, a dependable informer, without whom no stage production, the scene of which is laid in the Green Isle, would be quite complete.

Miss Marion Mery, Miss Bessie Belmont and C. M. Holly received warm tributes of appreciation from the audience for their singing. The chorus was large and composed mainly of fresh, well-trained voices. Its singing was one of the very pleasant features of the opera.

While the first act of the opera was being sung the electric lights in the house went out, and for twenty minutes the theater was shrouded in gloom.

LEHIGH VALLEY RETRENCHING.

Five Clerks Employed at Coxton Are Suspended Indefinitely.

The anticipated retrenchment of the Lehigh Valley company has reached this vicinity. Yesterday five clerks employed as number takers in the Coxton yards were suspended and it is said that there will be changes in other departments on or before Jan. 1.
