FACTORYVILLE.

Floyd Wrigley, or Lake Carey, has been spending a few days in town.

Don't forget the "Wax social" tomorrow evening at the home of H. L. Harding. A good time is guaranteed so bring your "kultting work," and spend the evening.

in looking over an old relie in the shape of a "scrap book" the other day, we noticed a marriage ecremony that was solomnized by a county squire that many miles from here) away long back in the reties. It graphically itistrates the style of tleing the knot back in those days, compared with the present day. Thinking it good enough for our readers to digest we give it in the following: "A newly elected jus-tice of the sence who had been used to drawing deeds and wiles, and little else, was called upon as his first official act to marry a couple who came into his office very hurriedly and told him their purpose. He lost no time in removing bis hat and remarked, 'Hats' off in the presence of the court," All being encovered he said: "Hold up yer right hands: you, John --- do sol-emnly swear that to the best of your knowledge and belief you take this yer woman ter home and ter hold yourself, yer heirs, exckyerrers, administraters and assigns, for your an' their use an' behoof forever?" "I do," answered the groom, "Ysu, Marth's — take this yer man for yer busband, ter have an' ter held forever, an' you do further awar that you are lawfully in fee simple, are free from all incumbrance, an' bey good right to sell, bargain and convey to the said grantee ver self, yer heirs, administrators and assigns?" "I do," said the bride cuther "I do," said the bride rather doubtfully. "Well, John, that'll be about a dollar 'a' fifty cents." "Are we married?" asked the bride. "Yes, when the fee comes in." After some tumbling it was produced and handed to the court, who pocketed it and contimued: "Know all men by these presence, that I, being in good health and of sound and disposin mind, in corsideration of a dollar 'n' fifty cents to e in hand paid the receip is hereby acknowledged, do 'n' by these presence have declared you man and wife during good behavior and till otherwise ordered by the coner " This brings to our mind a circumstance that happened during the life of the late Rev. D. T. Ross. A couple came to his residence one night very anxious to have the nuntial knot fastened for life, but the groom said that he did not have any money to recompense the minister, but he had a good crop of colons, and that he would be willing to give two bushels of onions to have the job done, and the elder made the contract accordingly, and performed the marriage ceremony that ade the couple man and wife. But the "onlons" never came. The groom was so much infatuated with his new wife, that he entirely forgot to deliver the 'two bushels of onlens' terday for Montgomery, Pa., where they will spend the holidays. The West Abington "Patriotic club" raised the stars and stripes last Saturday on each of the two public schools n that township with appropriate and patriotic services. Professor Gay and family are spendig the holidays at Clark's Summit. Miss Emerson Sweet is confined to her room by illness.

I. O. O. F. NOTES. Pawlona Rebekah lodge, No. 58, In-dependent Order of Odd Fellows, will install officers this evening. Tunkhannock lodge is arranging for an Odd Fellows' day in Wyoming coun ty in the near future. The Grand lodge officers will hold a special session, of the grand lodge there this winter and Tunkhannock lodge proposes to take advantage of the session, and invite all Odd Fellows in Wyoming county to visit them. The three degree teams of the county will compete in conferring each one of the three degrees, which will be followed by a banquet. The opera house will be obtained for the cension and perhaps a parade will be perticipated in during the day, in which the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre "Cantons" of Patriarch Militants will

The Rebekah lodge of this place contemplates a visit to their sister lodge in Scranton in the near future.

Preparations are already being made to celebrate the forty-second anniversary of Red Jacket lodge on Feb. , 1898. Factoryville encampment expects to nitiate several new members the coming month, and give a social and supper in the near future.

There is now bright prospects of hav ing a Canton of Patriarchs Milliant to cated here in a short time.

HONESDALE.

Miss Harriel Stanton, who has been spending several weeks with friends in New Jersey, returned to her home m Saturday,

W. C. Lott, late superintendent of the Honesdale electric light plant, left yesterday for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he has accepted a foremanship with the Electric Manufacturing company works. Mr. Russell Van Kuren is home from

New York to spend Christmas with his parents.

The cold wave reached here on Saturday and the street-corner loungers were not found in their accustomed place Sunday evening.

Our public schools will close at noor on Friday for a vacation of one week.

The Sunday school Christmas exercises of the Baptist school will take place Thursday evening of this week. Miss Margaret Keeler sang a beauti ful solo at the Sunday morning service in the Presbyterian church.

The Christmas exercises of both Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools will be held on Tuesday eve ning, Dec. 28.

The new Presbyterian parsonage is nearing completion. Carpenters are finishing the interior wood work. outside work is all done, except paint-

The old tenement house of Mrs. Ball at the corner of Park and East streets is being remodeled. A part is being torn down. The remaining part of the building will be moved back from the street, and a new rear addition will be added.

Miss Marcia Allen presides as or ganist in the Presbyterian church dur ing the illness of Miss Emma Ward. Two Otter skins, six feet in length may be seen at the New York Cloth ing store. The animals were caugh in the Middle Valley stream, near Hoadley's, this county,

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Dec. 20.—After a few spar-modic efforts to continue the rise of Saturday, today's stock market feil back into a decline and failed to recuperate. The augressive strength of some of the specialities at the opening served to suson the market for a time and to give an arpearates of strength, but real-ting sales in the general list went hand in hand with the manipulation for a rise in the specialties, and even the stocks which had shown wide gains lost practically all after the large operators had taken their profits in the general list. The total soles were $23,400 shares. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN, AL-
