LIVELY TIME IN THE THIRTEENTH

Fight for the Controlship Nomination is Bitterly Waged.

MANY SQUABBLES AND AN ARREST. Vote as Announced by Vigilance Committee Gives Mr. Jayne a Majority of Three, but Mr. Jacobs Alleges Irregularities and Claims He Was Nominated by One and Possibly Two Majorities—Four Ballots Thrown Out in the First District.

The fight in the Thirteenth ward for the Republican nomination for the office of school controller waged by B. T. Jayne on the one side and Charles S. Jacobs, the present incumbent, on the other, was the hottest primary that ever took place in the ward, and it is among the possibilities that the courts will yet be called upon to decree who won it.

The vote announced by the vigilance committee last night gives Jayne a majority of three, Jacobs, however, claims that there were irregularities in the count, and that when these are set straight he will have a majority of one.

The alleged irregularities occurred in the First district, and consisted in the vigilance committee refusing to record four "Jacobs" ballots, which had "Thompson" written on them, and in the names of the Second district vigilance committee and election officers printed on them.

The Jacobs men made a vigorous protest against the action, but the vigilance committee held that the ballots were invalid and could not be induced to count them. After a long wrangle, however, the disputed ballots were placed in the box with the others for preservation.

WILLIAM TRIPP ARRESTED. Another vote which the Jacobs men claim was irregular was one cast by William Tripp in the First district. It was claimed that Tripp lives in Clark's street, and he was challenged when he went into the booth. He swore that he was qualified and his ballot was received. Later he was arrested at the instance of A. B. Stevens, a Jacobs man, and held to bail in the sum of $200 by Alderman Bailey, a member at court the charge of making a false oath to an election board. Common Councilman T. B. Jackson, a Jayne man, became his bondsman. The vote by districts was as follows:

It was the largest Republican vote ever cast at a primary in the ward and in each district the vote was larger than that polled for the Republican candidate for sheriff and in all three districts the vote was within nineteen of the number cast for Pryor, Leach and O'Neil.

An interesting incident of the voting was the election of Henry Lutz as inspector in the First district. His term of office as Democratic judge of election expired last spring.

WHAT JAYNE MEN SAY. The Jayne men say that they do not believe that Mr. Jacobs will continue his fight after the vigilance committee frames its report and makes out the certificate of election tonight. If Mr. Jacobs declines to go behind the returns, they say, they are ready to meet him. One strong card, they state they will play, if it comes to a mass which will make it necessary to have the whole ward polled for the election, is that on the grounds that the board was not qualified. When the polls were opened Charles Diehl, one of the vigilance committee, was not on hand and C. H. Tector sat in for him and then, when Mr. Diehl came around half an hour later, Tector withdrew in his favor. The election officers chosen in the various districts were:

First district—Judge of election, Charles Notlander, inspector, Henry Lutz; register, E. J. Walter; judge of election, E. A. Holly, inspector, M. W. Finn, register, J. E. Clifford.

Second district—Judge of election, George H. Bailey, inspector, W. H. Trexant, register, O. S. Lutz.

DEMOCRATS GIVE UP ELECTION CONTESTS

The Petitions are Formally Withdrawn and the Cases Discontinued.

BY LEAVE OF JUDGE GUNSTER. Attorney F. J. Fitzsimmons and O'Brien and Kelly Go Before Court and Securing Permission Direct Clerk of Courts Thomas to Strike Off the Contests, Which Mr. Thomas Does—Copy of Order of Court. Hired Help is Paid Off.

Charles Schadt, George S. Horn and Matthew Norton yesterday discontinued the contests for the offices of sheriff, district attorney and prothonotary, respectively, and with leave of court, withdrew the petitions.

Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons and O'Brien & Kelly went before Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon and made formal request for permission to withdraw the petitions filed in all three cases. Type-written orders of discontinuance were presented in each case, and were signed by Judge Gunster, after which an order was issued to Clerk of Courts Thomas directing him to strike off the contests, which Mr. Thomas does—Copy of Order of Court. Hired Help is Paid Off.

In re continued election of C. E. Pryor to the office of sheriff of Lackawanna county, 21st day of December, 1897, counsel for petitioners is permitted to withdraw the petitions heretofore filed in above case, and are also allowed to discontinue the proceedings heretofore instituted in the same.

(Signed) F. J. Fitzsimmons, O'Brien & Kelly, To John H. Thomas, Clerk of the Courts.

The Horn withdrawal was signed by F. J. Fitzsimmons, T. F. Wells, W. A. Wilcox and O'Brien & Kelly. Norton's paper was signed by F. J. Fitzsimmons and O'Brien & Kelly.

The attorneys, clerks and stenographers engaged in tabulating the returns for the contestants and preparing the preliminary work of the contests were paid off during the day.

A HOLLY WEDDING. Brilliant Event at the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church Last Night.

A holly wedding is an appropriate and terse description of the beautiful ceremony which last evening united in the holy bonds of wedlock Arthur Dunn, of Marion street, and Miss Augusta Pratt Fordham, daughter of Thomas Bragg and Mrs. J. L. Fordham, of 1534 Capouse avenue.

It was a ceremony as pretty and picturesque as its novel characteristic was opportune. A congregation that filled the Green Ridge Presbyterian church and one that was representative of the city's most prominent families witnessed the nuptials. The officiating clergyman was Rev. John Dunn, of the Second Presbyterian church, a brother of the groom.

Harry Miner, of Norfolk, Va., was best man, and Miss Sarah Fordham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The ushers were Lucius Kennedy, Scranton; Nicholas Stahl, Princeton; Louis Robertson, Dunmore; Walter Fordham, brother of the bride; Charles Evans, of Towanda; and Alan Chapman, of Washington, D. C. The bridesmaids were Miss Anna Wells, Scranton; Miss Brisbane, of Boston; Miss Frances Pratt, Scranton; Miss Florence Williams, Baltimore; Miss Marion Crane, Canton; Miss Margaret Wood, Havanna, N. Y., and Miss Fordham, sister of the bride.

The processions and grouping at the church were very pretty sights. Holly was the decoration of the church. The white-gowned maids each carried a sprig of holly and the ushers wore a sprig of it for a boutonniere. Three of the maids wore sashes of red and white and the remaining three wore green and white, colors typical of the all-prevailing favor.

The bride did not enter into the novel departure. Her gown of cream-white was a beautiful creation in silk and mousseline de soie. She wore a tulle veil, caught up with diamonds, and also wore diamonds at the throat. Her bouquet was of white roses. The maid of honor's costume was distinguished from those of the bridesmaids by its being figured silk, while the bridesmaids were plain white, with the green and white or red and white relief before referred to.

Holly also formed the main feature of the decorations of the bride's home, where a brilliant reception was held, following the ceremony. The newly-married couple left at midnight for a southern trip.

The groom is a prominent young member of the Lackawanna bar. His bride is a charming young lady and a leader in Green Ridge society. The marriage unites two of the most prominent families of the North End.

THE DOOR BOY WILL GO. Indiana Firm Has an Automatic Device to Take His Place.

An automatic door opener will soon be introduced into the Oxford mines, West Scranton, operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. If the experiment proves a success it is probable that the entire mines where ever a door is placed along haulage routes will be filled with this appliance and the door boy, or "nipper" must go.

A similar appliance has been in operation for sometime on a tall rope plunger in the Taylor mines at Taylor, operated by the same company, and has given complete satisfaction. This plunger is used on a place where mules are not used, and the one to be introduced at the Oxford, will be placed on the roads traveled by mules.

The appliance would have already been in use but for the failure of all the parts to arrive. A firm in Indiana are the manufacturers and their representative is now in Wilkes-Barre, with a view of equipping other collieries throughout with his firm's automatic door-opening device.

FAIR OF HOLY CROSS CONGREGATION. Doors Will Be Thrown Open to the Public on Christmas Day.

On Christmas Day the fair of the congregation of the church of the Holy Cross will open in the hall at Broadway and Fifth avenue. There will be four booths in charge of Mrs. John Quinn, Mrs. W. A. Grady, Mrs. John O'Hara, Mrs. Thomas DeLacy, Mrs. J. J. O'Malley, Miss Mary Doyle, Mrs. J. J. Higgins, Miss B. Walsh.

A contest in connection with the fair is now under way between Rev. J. J. O'Toole, of Providence, and Rev. John Loughran, of Bellevue. The contest has a special interest for the reason that each of these gentlemen and their friends are working for the interest of their own congregations. The money received by Rev. Father O'Toole will go for the benefit of Holy Rosary church fund, while Rev. Father Loughran and his friends are working in the interest of the new church of the Holy Cross.

PETER WILLIAMSON OFFICERS. Installed Last Night and Afterwards Banqueted.

In the absence of District Deputy Thomas F. Wells, Major T. P. Penman, past master, installed the newly-elected officers of Peter Williamson lodge, No. 323, P. and A. M., at Masonic hall last night.

The officers are E. H. Lynde, worshipful master; Frank Moyer, senior warden; Ernest L. Payne, junior warden; C. L. Van Buehrik, secretary; Thomas E. Lyndon, treasurer.

A banquet followed the installation ceremonies.
