

West Side and City Suburban

CHRISTMAS TIDE WEDDINGS.

Four Popular West Scranton Young People United in Marriage.

A quiet, though pretty, home wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Moore, of 129 North Main avenue, at which their only daughter, Miss Jessie May, was wedded to Edward J. Bodle, of Binghamton. The ceremony, which was performed at 4 o'clock in the parlor of the residence, was witnessed only by the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few invited friends. Rev. C. M. Gilpin, D. D., pastor of the Elm Park church, was the officiating clergyman. The parlor was prettily decorated with flowers and potted palms. The couple were unattended, and the bride was charmingly attired in a gown of brown-velvet, with maroon fur, veil, lace, and blue velvet trimmings. At 5 o'clock a delicate post-nuptial repast was served, at which Mrs. Moore was assisted by Mrs. Barton Hackett and the Misses May Belle Switzer and Martha Nicholson. Later Mr. and Mrs. Bodle departed via the 6 o'clock Express, Lackawanna and Western train for Owego, on a brief wedding tour. They will return to Binghamton to reside, and will be tendered a reception at his parents' residence Friday evening next. Mrs. Bodle is a life-long resident of West Scranton, and is gifted with many personal traits and an amiable bearing, which has endeared her to many. Mr. Bodle holds a lucrative position as traveling salesman for a Binghamton drug firm.

MATHIAS-WILLIAMS.

Miss Anna, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Williams, of 1927 W. Lackawanna avenue, was united in marriage at 9 o'clock last evening to Thomas J. Mathias, of Bellevue, at her home. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of invited friends.

In the parlor of the residence, which had been prettily decorated with evergreen, holly and flowers, stood the officiating clergyman, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, waiting to receive the bride party, who entered as the wedding march from Lohengrin was being played by Miss Marlon Hutchinson. While the words of the marriage ceremony of the Baptist church were being pronounced Miss Hutchinson softly played "O Promise Me," and at the conclusion played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The bride was attired in a becoming costume of cream Bengaline silk with satin ribbon and pearl trimmings, and was attended by Miss Tessie McDonough, as bridesmaid. The bridesmaid was gowned in a pretty costume of pale blue landsdowne with lace trimmings. Both ladies carried bouquets of white bridal roses. Richard James acted as best man.

Little four-year-old Charles Godshall, nephew of the bride, in full evening dress, acted as ring bearer and bore the ring upon a tiny silver plate. He entered the parlor first and was followed by the Misses Olive Bone and Avis Pritchard, who were flower-bearers and carried each a basket of carnations. The flower-girls wore pink and cream silk gowns respectively. They immediately preceded the bride couple.

The ceremony concluded and congratulations tendered, a bountiful wedding repast was served. Mrs. Williams, as hostess, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. John Morris, Mrs. Suttle, and the Misses Margaret Morgans, Alice and Mattie Thomas, Norma Nicholls and Margaret Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. Matthias, who are both well and favorably known West Scranton young people, will reside with the bride's parents.

The guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. Thomas De Gruchy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godshall, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beddoe, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howell, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard James, Mr. and Mrs. William Wagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wrigley, Mr. and Mrs. John Vipond, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Pass, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hopp, Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fry, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lance, Mrs. Kuester, Mrs. Elizabeth Suttle, Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. Mary Pritchard, Mrs. Mary Bowen, and the Misses Alice and Martha Thomas, Margaret Lohmeyer, Louise Morgans, Norma Nicholls, Ida Lewis, Nettie Lewis, Sarah Davis, Mary Bowen, Gwen Davis, Margaret Murphy, Mary Thomas, Margaret James, Besse Wagstaff, Cassie Harris, Gwen Davis, Jennie Harris, Marlon Hutchinson, George Sherman, Robert Roberts, Frank Nicholls, David Edwards, Henry and Reese Lewis, Robert Owens, Harry Davis, Daniel James, William Davis, Albert Davis, David Gibbs, Richard James, Elmer Davis, Roy Williams, Edward Watkins, Reese Griffiths, John Davis, Peter Marsh, Daniel Matthias, John M. Jones, D. D. and Henry Davis, George Beddoe and Harry Pass.

FUNERALS OF YESTERDAY.

David J. Williams and John Frank, Jr., Late of this Side Laid to Rest.

The funeral services of the late David J. Williams, of 528 North Hyde Park avenue, was held yesterday afternoon and attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. The remains were borne from the residence to the South Main avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, where the pastor, Rev. Hugh Davies, officiated and preached a funeral sermon. The remains reposed in a handsome black cloth casket almost concealed beneath the beautiful floral tributes, which were strewn upon and near it. Hyde Park Lodge, No. 206, Knights of Pythias, Electric City Commandery, No. 177, Knights of Malta, and the "Tripp" Shop, Assistant Grand, of all of which the deceased was a member, were largely represented. At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were A. T. Heckel, William Davis, John W. Edwards, Thomas H. H. Smith, Silas Kittle and William C. Williams.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

A Polisher, who gave his name as Weleschinski, and residence as Emmett street, was found lying on Hickory street early yesterday morning.

He had a fractured skull and internal injuries, and was taken to the hospital. The police are making a search for the assailant. It is reported that the Polisher was found by a young man who roused him. He said he had been beaten by some one and taken to the hospital. His wounds came from the blows of a club or stone. Then again he said he was mixed up in a free-for-all fight, and came out victorious.

Members of Washington Camp, No. 43, Patriotic Order Sons of America Drum corps, will conduct a social at Music hall New Year's afternoon and evening.

George Hahn, of Neptune court, has returned from a trip to New York city. Mrs. Brooks of Crown avenue, sustained a severe gash on the head by falling downstairs at her home on Crown avenue several days ago.

James Murray, of Prospect avenue, was injured Tuesday by falling from a trolley at the South Mill. The same day his Phaedrus Murray was injured while blasting coal in an old drift on this side.

The remains of Mrs. W. H. Evans were laid to rest in Forest Hill cemetery yesterday. Services were held at the family residence and St. Luke's church. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall-bearers were Charles Times, M. T. Lavelle, Edwin Jones, Fred Jones, William Lash, John Shorter. The flower bearers were P. McDonald, P. Cusick, Job Evans and John Cannon. The family of the deceased wishes to thank all kind friends who have sympathized with them in their bereavement.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Patrick Burns, of Oxford, N. Y., and Miss Margaret Foy, of the West Side, were joined in wedlock at St. Patrick's church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Father Dunn. The groom was attended by his friend, John Farley, and the bride by Miss Annie Lidener. After the ceremony the young couple enjoyed a drive, and later the young couple took the 5:35 train for Oxford, where, after a short visit, they will make their home in this city, where Mr. Burns is a trusted employe of the Scranton Railway company.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

Though but a few months old and beginning with a membership of ninety-five, Washington Commandery, No. 232, Knights of Malta, has proved itself a lusty organization, and last evening a class of fifty-five new members was admitted by Grand Knight Charles H. Pearce, of Philadelphia, at the session in Red Men's hall. The ceremony requires the better part of a night, and the commandery got down to business early in the evening. At midnight a full in proceedings ensued that all might participate of a lunch provided by Caterer Samuel Davis, of Davis' lunch cafe.

CHRISTMAS JOY CANTATA.

The cantata entitled "Christmas Joy" will be rendered by the Band of Hope young people of the Tabernacle Congregational church at 7 o'clock Friday evening. The cantata was written by our townswoman, Miss Susan E. Dickinson, and the music is by Charles H. Chandler. Considerable preparation has been made for the affair under the direction of Hugh Williams, who is president of the church. The cantata will be rendered at the church, at the home of Mrs. D. C. Phillips, of South Hyde Park avenue.

WILL CLOSE WITH EXERCISES.

The pupils of the intermediate A, B, C rooms at public school No. 14, will conduct their exercises in observance of Christmas-tide this afternoon at the school. The pupils of their three rooms have prepared, and an excellent programme has been prepared and will be rendered under the supervision of the teachers. The exercises will consist of singing by the school; recitations by different pupils and solos. The finale will be the recitation in unison of Longfellow's poem, "The Diving Bell."

OBITUARY.

Thomas James, aged about 85 years, died suddenly at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. William Gleason, 17 Morris court, yesterday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock. Heart trouble is supposed to be the cause of his death, superinduced by his advanced age. He came here from Wales in the early '60's and has resided here since. He is survived by one son, William James, and one daughter, Mrs. William Gleason, with whom he has resided since the death of his wife several years ago. He was well known hereabouts, but has led a retired life for many years. The funeral announcement will be made later.

The death of Mrs. Patrick McNulty occurred yesterday afternoon at the family residence on York avenue, Avoca, after several days' illness. Deceased was about 50 years of age and possessed the most exalted ideas of generosity and unusual endowment of affection and kindness. A few weeks ago she contracted a heavy cold which developed into pleurisy, but nothing serious was anticipated until yesterday afternoon. A husband, four sons and one daughter survive her. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kime, 12 Robinson street, died yesterday at the parental home. The funeral will be private, and a Christmas Eve service will be held at the family residence. Interment will be made at the Forest Hill cemetery.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Thomas, of 148 South Garfield avenue, died yesterday at the parental home. The funeral will be held privately this morning from the residence, and interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.
