OMINOUS LULL IN BREWERY WAR

Combine Executed a Telling Flank Movement on the Enemy.

FIELD MARSHAL HAS LEFT BARTEL

It is Far From a Certainty, However, that the Aggressive Gentleman from Syracuse Will Be Discouraged by This Little Surprise Party--Syndicate Men Are Worried White Bartel is Stopping to Think--Developments Are Anxiously Awaited.

Whether or not Hermann Bartel, the millionaire Syracuse maltster, will millstone his opposition to the brewery combine is the one question that is keeping the members of the syndicate from enjoying a care-free merry Christmas.

To those who are watching the fight from the house tops, the present lull in the battle's din is a course of much conjecture. Three weeks ago the syndicate's assailant declared that he was ready for actual hostilities; that the only thing of importance remaining to be done before erecting the big rival brewery plant was to decide as to which of three possible sites was the most desirable. The next move heard of is a trip to Syracuse by Bartel's local representative, Edward Rutledge, with a bunch of building contracts for his chief's signature.

After that no one knows, or at least no one is ready to talk just where the war is at. It looks out now, however, that Bartel was flanked, Frank Becker, formerly of the Lackawanna brewery and the best brewery manager in the business, was to have been Mr. Bartel's Scranton manager and partner in a small way. With Becker as field marshal, Bartel was ready to risk his money in the apparently daring venture. Without him, he would, well, stop to think.

Mr. Bartel has stopped and is thinking. He is without the much-prized Becker, whose back he has a big fat job with the syndicate. That is the present status of the fight. Were it any ordinary man the combine would consider itself safe from further attack. But Bartel is no ordinary man, and this is what keeps the combine people on the anxious seat. That they fear Bartel is virtually confessed by their action in winning at a great outlay the Syracuse man's first lieutenant.

FULLER-GRIFFITHS NUPTIALS

Ceremony Was Performed By Rev. J. L. Race at Bride's Home.

Miss Mary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, of 2103 Stone avenue, was wedded to Arthur E. Fuller, of North Main avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the bride's home. It was a pretty, though quiet, home wedding and was witnessed by only the immediate families of the contracting parties. Rev. J. L. Race, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist church, officiated, and the bride's home was decorated in the most tastefully decorated parlors of the residence.

The bride, attired in a neat fitting traveling suit of green cloth, was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret, as bridesmaid, who wore a pretty gown. Both ladies carried carnations. Richard Brown acted as best man. The wedding march by Mendelssohn and Lohengrin were played by the bride's sister, Miss Genevieve Griffiths. At the conclusion of the ceremony, and after congratulations had been tendered, the guests sat down to a beautiful post-nuptial repast.

Mrs. Griffiths was assisted by Mrs. F. J. Brown and Mrs. William Warner. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller left via the 7:30 Delaware and Hudson train for Albany, N. Y., on a brief wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at 318 North Main avenue.

ENGINE AND OMNIBUS

Collision Without Fatal Results on the Lehigh Near Pittston.

There was another smash-up last evening near Pittston on the Lehigh Valley crossing, where Senator Slocum, once postmaster of this city, met his death a year ago. This time an omnibus was struck by a freight engine, but without any fatality. The crossing is on the West Pittston branch, near the Forest Castle brewery.

In the bus were four passengers and the driver, Clem Harrison, one of the passengers, was seriously cut and bruised, but the others, among whom was Andrew Clarey, were uninjured. The team escaped without a scratch, but the bus was wrecked.

Two years ago Dr. Barrett, of Pittston, while driving over the crossing, was quite badly hurt and his suit against the Lehigh Valley company is now pending.

DRUNK ON THE TRACKS

Perilous Sleeping Place of Two Tramps Now at Police Station.

Two tramps, helplessly intoxicated, were found lying in the snow on the railroad track near the Mt. Pleasant breaker yesterday afternoon by workmen. The bodies were carried to the side of the track and the police were notified.

MR. SCHLAGER'S RESIDENCE

Valuable Hill Property Has Been Sold to P. J. Casey.

Charles Schlager has sold his handsome residence at the corner of Clay avenue and Mulberry street, to P. J. Casey, of Casey Brothers, wholesale liquor merchants. The price paid was $31,000.

Mr. Schlager will occupy a house owned by H. W. Kingsbury on Quincey avenue. Before long Mr. Schlager and his family will go to Europe where the children will remain several years for the purpose of study.

PROVIDENCE BLOOD IS THIN

Less Than $15 at "Squirrel" Finnerly's Boxing Carnival.

The much-heralded carnival of fistie sport at Company H armory last night went wrong because there wasn't enough money in the house to pay expenses.

"Squirrel" Finnerly, who arranged the affair and who was to do a twenty-round go with Jack Duggan, of Olyphant, as a wind-up of the evening, took the stage at 10 o'clock and announced that the thing was called off. Those seated in the house, he said, and that wouldn't pay the rent, let alone the expenses of the performers. Duggan wouldn't go on because there was nothing in it, but he himself was there to fight, and if the "guy he was to go on with" was ready he would give the gents their money's worth.

Kid Ray, a young colored Carbon-dalian, climbed on the stage and said he would go ten rounds with the "Squirrel" for what money had been taken in at the door. The "Squirrel" wouldn't agree to this, because he expected to make a big match with the Carbon-dalian kid.

There was a whole lot of talk and suggestions for the state, and finally Bartley Mangan, of Bellevue, was induced to go on with Finnerly for five rounds. The "Squirrel" gave such a good exhibition of lively work that the crowd forgave him and chipped in a nickel apiece to help him pay expenses.

A 15-round bout has been announced for decision in the armory on Monday night, Jan. 3, between Bill Poole, late of Arkansas, and now of this city, and Joe Lyon of Philadelphia. They meet at 12 o'clock. There will be preliminaries between Andy Phelan and Frank Lewis, Jack Barrett and Billy Jordan, Kid Ray, of Carbon-dale, and Billy Davis, of Brooklyn, and Jack Tigan and the latter an exhibition bout. Bobby Dolus will referee.

Bobby Dolus has been engaged to appear at Monday night's boxing show in Golden's hall, Bellevue, and stop two local men, each in four rounds.

WANTED TO SEE THE SIGHTS

"Artie," there's my dad--Leg it, Hoik, leg it." But before the two 15-year-old boys could budge the heavy hand of Arthur Holden's father was laid upon both. "No, you don't leg it either," said the father; "you come back home with me. Artie, and you, too, Hoik, your mother's worrying herself to sickness. Sterling Simrell, Thomas Conlin, M. J. Ruane, W. C. Eldridge, Henry Hen, Adam Reinhauser, William Fickus, Eugene L. Moyer, Harry B. Reed, John W. Lisk, N. A. Altman, H. W. Meyers, J. M. George, L. S. Tilman, Thomas D. Campbell.

The permanent men occupied seats about Chief Hickey at the head of the table. The petition had scarcely been read when Common Councilman Lorenze Zedler, chairman of the fire committee of that branch, arose and announced a measure giving $60 per month to permanent men who have served more than one year, and been reported favorably at the meeting a few hours before.

The permanent men present may be pardoned for making a loud demonstration of happiness. After his speeches were made by the councilmen, Chief of Police Robbing, Building Inspector Nelson, Dr. Satterly, Assistant City Solicitor M. J. Walsh, Mr. Beamish, Permanent Man Tice and Chief of Police Robbing. He thought the permanent men should be paid the same salary as the city patrolmen.

After the speech making the congregation adjourned for more substantial things in the rear room. The badge presented to Chief Hickey is very handsome. The pendant is circular, formed by a length of hose with two nozzles crossed at the top. In the center is a tiny group of fireman's accoutrements--helmet, trumpet and mace, and on the top is a spread eagle with a diamond in the center. The inscription is "P. J. Hickey from the Permanent Men." The pin cost $25.

AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS

Controller Fred L. Wormser Will Resign from the School Board.

At the next meeting of the school board, Controller Fred L. Wormser, of the Eighth ward, will tender his resignation to take effect on that date. Mr. Wormser's reason for resigning is that he intends to move to his new home on Linden street in the Seventeenth ward, on Jan. 15, 1898.

Mr. Wormser's term does not expire until the spring of 1899. If he should serve it out he would have a record of eighteen consecutive years' services on the school board. His successor will be in all likelihood be C. C. Ferber, of the firm of Clumms, Ferber & O'Malley. It is an unwritten law that a resigning controller may appoint a

SCRANTON ATHLETIC CLUB

Nominations Made Last Night for Next Month's Annual Election.

The Scranton Athletic club, which has the distinction of being the only chartered athletic organization in this part of the state, held its annual meeting last night, when officers, to be elected next month for 1898, were nominated.

The nominees are: President, Emil Bonn; vice president, Charles Kellerman; treasurer, Robert Robinson; recording secretary, George Wirth; financial secretary, Peter Neuls; captain, Chris Rose; librarian, Fred Neuls; trustees, Henry Meyers and William Walters. For the first time in the club's history, the nominations are equivalent to an election, but one candidate being named for each office.

A peculiarity of the club's membership is that every officer of the county is a member, the judges excepted. It has one hundred and eighty members.

JERSEY CITY OUT OF IT

President Freedman of the New York's Will Not Consent.

If Scranton's base ball franchise does leave here it won't go to Jersey City. Under the terms of the national agreement no club, expecting the protection of that agreement can be stationed in a city within five miles of a city having a national agreement club, without the consent of the latter club. President Andrew Freedman, of the New York club, emphatically refuses to acquiesce in placing an Eastern league club in Jersey City, and that settles the question.

The fact that he has refused $3,000 for his consent shows that it is not likely that he will change his mind. Without Jersey City, Newark is not desirable and it is safe to argue that Scranton and Wilkes-Barre will be welcome to stay in the Eastern, if they want to stay.

PRESENTATION TO CHIEF P. J. HICKEY

Testimonial From the Permanent Men of Fire Department.

IT'S A VERY HANDSOME BADGE

Presentation Speech Was Made By Clerk Tanner--Petition Presented to Councilmen by the Permanent Men Asking for an Increase in Wages--Councilmen Zedler Told Them a Measure With That Object in View Had Been Reported Favorably.

The permanent men employed by the city in the fire department gave a little surprise party to Chief P. J. Hickey in Durr's hall last night. Incidentally the affair resolved itself into a general jollification.

The meeting began at 9:30 o'clock and Councilman Zedler, Burns, Schroeder, Gorion, Gilroy, Flanagan, Durr and Fellows were present. William Tanner, secretary to Chief Hickey, announced the intention of the permanent men to give a surprise party to the chief and the Big Fellow himself was escorted into the room amid loud clapping of hands. In a few complimentary words by Secretary Tanner a gold fireman's badge was presented.

Previous to this Mayor Ballou's secretary, R. J. Campbell, had been made chairman. Chief Hickey was now called upon for remarks. He made a very happy speech concluding with a referendum to a petition which the permanent men had prepared asking for more pay. Chief Hickey read the petition. It was:

To the Honorable Select and Common Councilmen:

Gentlemen: We, the undersigned permanent men of the fire department do hereby petition your honorable body for an increase of wages and will ever pray, (Signed) Isaac S. Tice, John H. Kimo, John Lowry, V. D. Hickey, James Jenkins, Sterling Simrell, Thomas Conlin, M. J. Ruane, W. C. Eldridge, Henry Hen, Adam Reinhauser, William Fickus, Eugene L. Moyer, Harry B. Reed, John W. Lisk, N. A. Altman, H. W. Meyers, J. M. George, L. S. Tilman, Thomas D. Campbell.
