CARBONDALE.

[The Carbondale correspondence of The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. R. Mann, Salem avenue and Church street, to whom news items, when addressed, should be made to W. T. Roberts, news agent.]

BIG BUSINESS CHANGE.

The Carbondale Lumber Co. sells to A. E. Tiffany and Dissolves. A very important transfer of real estate and business interests was made in this city yesterday.

Mr. Tiffany has since coming to this city through his steaming qualities, good workmanship and business ability built up a flourishing trade now branching out in all directions.

He today bought the plant, stock and business of the Carbondale Lumber company which for several years has been most successfully situated near the Union depot.

Mr. Tiffany has done an excellent business at his Mayfield plant but as he resided in this city he found his work to be too far removed from his residence.

The Carbondale Lumber company will dissolve. It was composed of Fethick Bros. and Buell. John Fethick has already occupied a position as traveling salesman for a western firm of wholesale lumber dealers.

THE NORLE GAME.

Last evening's Leader imparted the appended bit of political information: "J. B. Gilhool will not go into the race again for select councilman from the Second ward."

The "stereo-editorial" of yesterday's Leader imparted misinformation to the effect that the New York Life and other large insurance companies had advanced the rate, J. B. Shannon, district agent, of this city says:

The "stereo-editorial" of yesterday's Leader imparted misinformation to the effect that the New York Life insurance company had advanced their rates. If it were so I would have been notified.

MISLEADING "STEREO EDITORIAL."

The "stereo-editorial" of yesterday's Leader imparted misinformation to the effect that the New York Life insurance company had advanced their rates. If it were so I would have been notified.

AN OUTBURST.

A frozen water pipe burst and flooded the front part of Malloff & Purdy's store yesterday. Little damage was done—Local paper.

LOCALS.

D. K. Lee, of Belmont street, has received the sixty-eighth page New Era edition of the San Francisco Call, from his son, Harry, who is now residing in that place.

Four Directors—Mon, Daley and Gil-martin and Chief of Police McAndrew took John Lynett to Danville yesterday. The unfortunate man has been a victim of epilepsy for years, and Monday he became a raving maniac.

Messrs. J. J. and J. F. Kennedy have decided to erect three double houses and a single house on a vacant plot of ground on River street, between Sixth and Seventh avenue. The work, which will be done by the former, will be begun at once and the houses will be ready for occupancy next spring.

The improvement will make a decided change for the better in the appearance of that section of the street. A gay throng enjoyed the ice skating at Alumni park yesterday afternoon and evening.

A chip of the old block, merry Katie Rooney, and a splendid company will present their latest and greatest success, "A Girl from Ireland," with pretty girls, new specialties, and special scenery. The diagram for both performances will open at Reynolds' drug

If you cannot get beef, mutton will answer. You may choose between milk, water, coffee or tea. But there is no second choice for Scott's Emulsion. It is Scott's Emulsion or nothing. When you need the best cod-liver oil, the best hypophosphites, and the best glycerine, all combined in the best possible manner, you have only one choice. It brings prompt results in all cases of wasting, or loss in weight.

rectors to be elected. The term of Thomas Price, school director from the First ward, expires and he may try to succeed himself. In the Second ward T. F. O'Horo will leave the board and his place will be bitterly contested.

Through the generosity of Wonnacott Brothers, of the Pioneer Laundry, each employe received a silver and pearl paper cutter as a Christmas present. This is one of the many acts of kindness bestowed upon them by their generous employers.

A number of persons of this city contemplate attending the social at Royal New Year's eve. Walton Lee is spending a week with his grand-nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Churchill, of Lenoxville.

Mrs. Patrick McGowan, of Brooklyn street, has returned from Honduras. Miss Isabelle Maxwell, of Park street, is visiting in Scranton. Kelly Purdy is in New York on business.

Rev. Bishop Prendergast, of Philadelphia, and his brother, Rev. P. J. Prendergast, of the church of the Epiphany, New York, were in this city yesterday as the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Ellen Mott.

Miss Marie Gilligan is visiting in New York. Miss Anna Loftus, of Pike street, is visiting in Brooklyn. Mrs. M. E. Malann is now rapidly recovering from the accident she suffered a week ago.

Children Make Walking Dangerous. Important Meeting of Knights of Pythias—Personal News. Children make pedestrianism dangerous on our hill streets, occupying the sidewalks and obliging ladies to get in the gutter or stand in danger of being knocked down.

This evening the members of the Taylor lodge, No. 462, Knights of Pythias, will hold an important business meeting. It being the last meeting of the year, a grand time is expected. Every member is urged to be present.

John E. Davis, of the First ward, announces himself as a candidate for councilman. Joseph Davis is a candidate for reelection on the school board. Mr. Davis has made a good record and the people of the Second ward would do well to bring him in.

Miss Marie Reinhardt and Messrs. John and George Reinhardt are spending the holidays in New York with their sister, Mrs. Fieldman.

1790, which look as if no living horse could carry one, to say nothing of four. The calks on these shoes are immense, being at least an inch long across the front, and the back calks being cubes of the same dimensions with a cross calk. The nail in one of the nail holes is fully as large. In comparison, with a great square head. Close to this lies the Janity, thin, almost solid plate which the Arabian horse wears on its slender foot. The shoe, without nails, but with rings hung to small rings, which are a part of the shoe, in the lower ends of the shoe, and with a hinged ring which clamps upward, and is bound to the foot of a horse by a band brought through the rings, like a collar, in the way of fit. As soon as the shoe which is made for snow climbing has great calks the size of railroad spikes.

INDIGNATION. Derringer Dan had declined all invitations to join his associates in the usual evening pastimes. It was a bitter cold, and he had a good reason for declining. Presently he shut the book with a slam, and reading into the fire, exclaimed: "That book must have had news in it," remarked Bruno Bob. "You seem excited."
