

West Side and City Suburban

HAZLETT-KAUFMAN. Popular West Side Girl, Miss Ida Eleanor Hazlett, Wedded to Mr. Kaufman, of New York.

Miss Ida Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hazlett, was married last evening to Charles L. Kaufman, of New York city, at the residence of the former's parents, 124 South Hyde Park avenue.

The nuptial in which the ceremony was performed was artistically decorated with palms, smilax and evergreen. At 8:45 o'clock, the march from the former's home to the residence of the groom, the bride and groom, unattended, entered the parlor and were united by Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church.

The bride was attired in a traveling dress of brown broadcloth with black silk trimmings with a touch of chiffon and carried white carnations.

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Snover, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Loring, Mr. and Mrs. G. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hazlett, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Snow, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whyte, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Vost, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Morgan, Mrs. Jennie E. Snow, and the Misses Elsie Keller, Anna B. Williams, Mabel Yost, Florence Irving, Helen Morgan, Ingalls, and Jessie Ingalls, Lena Laycock, Margaret Harris, Lily Ayres and Anna Joseph, and Alt. P. Clark and Arthur Heyle. Out of town guests: Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkes-Barre, Mrs. J. H. Evans, of Helvidere, N. J.

DUNN-KEEGAN. Miss Margaret Dunn, of Fifth street, and James Keegan, of Fourth street, were married at Holy Cross church Wednesday afternoon in the presence of numerous friends.

FIFTEENTH WARD CAUCUS. E. E. Evans Nominated For School Controller-Legal Point Involved. The Republicans of the Fifteenth ward caucused for the nomination of ward officers yesterday afternoon. Despite rumors, there was only one candidate for school controller, E. E. Evans, of Evans & Powell, shoe dealers of 20th Main avenue. There was a little tilt for register of voters in the First district and a question of law in the vote for judge of election in the Second district.

Ex-Alderman T. T. Morgan was the candidate for judge of election in the Second district and received 41 votes out of 52 cast for the others on the ticket. The one vote was cast for Michael Stump. According to law school officers, tax-collectors and notaries are not eligible to the office of judge of election, hence the meaning of Stump's one vote, as Mr. Morgan is a tax collector. A similar incident occurred two years ago in the First district of the same ward when Thomas D. Davis, regularly elected by ballot, was declared out by Judge Archbold on a petition presented in court.

THE EVENING'S AFFAIRS. Cantata Rehearsals and Watch Night Services in Several Places. The young people of the Jackson Street Baptist church will hold a concert and social in the auditorium this evening to watch the old year out and the new come in. The affair will follow the annual election of Sabbath school officers. It is an invitation social and only the young people of the church and social in the auditorium this evening to watch the old year out and the new come in.

PRESENTED WITH A BIBLE. The members of the Holy Cross church, West Market street, held a happy social on Thursday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Evans. The presentation was made by Miss Harriet Morris in behalf of the class. The members of the class are Misses Given A. Davis, Harriet Brown, Margaret Morgan, Elizabeth Brown, Jessie Brown, Given Davis and Mary Morgan.

PERSONAL MENTION. Misses Esther B. Powell and Annie M. Richards of Plymouth, have returned home after visiting Miss Cassie Harris, of Acker street.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. The members of the Anthracite Glece club are requested to meet promptly at 8:30 o'clock at the hall, North Main avenue, this evening.
