

APPOINTMENT OF HENRY K. BOYER

Will Be Superintendent of Philadelphia Mint.

SUCCESSOR TO HERMAN KRETZ

Lock-Out in a Window Glass Factory—An Opinion from the Circuit Court—Terrible Death of Mrs. Gray—Other News About the State.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—The announcement came from Washington this afternoon that President McKinley had selected to the senate the name of Henry K. Boyer, of Pennsylvania, to be superintendent of the United States mint, in this city, succeeding Herman Kretz, resigned.

GLASS LOCKOUT.

Pittsburg, Jan. 7.—Instead of a general resumption of work at the window glass factories of the country, it is now known that there may be a general lock-out on account of the difficulty at the Phillips Glass company's factory on the south side.

President Burns is elaborate and says he will obey the instructions of the board and insist upon the reinstatement of Gatherer Ahlman, if it results in wiping the Window Glass Workers' association off the face of the earth.

CAR TRUST WINS.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—In the United States circuit court of appeals today, an opinion was handed down by Judge Anderson, in favor of the Central Car Trust company, which was successful in the suit of Thomas C. Platt against the Reading Railroad company and others.

POISON IN THEIR BREAKFAST.

Bradford, Pa., Jan. 7.—C. P. Montgomery and three members of his family were mysteriously poisoned yesterday, and that their lives were saved is due to the providential escape of the only other member of the family, a son, aged 10, who summoned a physician.

RACE WITH DEATH IN A SLEIGH.

Woman Shot by Her Son Taken Twenty-six Miles to Hospital. Ashland, Pa., Jan. 7.—While Mrs. Eric Solberg and her 8-year-old son were alone yesterday at their home, at Marengo Falls, the latter picked up a shotgun and aimed it at his mother.

IRON PRICES ADVANCED.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 7.—A new price agreement has been entered into by six Pennsylvania manufacturers of structural and bridge steel, known as beams, and the price was advanced from $11 to $11.75 per hundred pounds.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Margaretta Gray, of Wyoming, met a horrible death this morning. She was descending the cellar steps of her home, carrying a lighted lamp when she slipped and fell.

long ulster was pulled open, showing that he wore only a pair of trousers and slippers beneath. He managed to escape, though an angry crowd chased him.

The description of the would-be kisser tallies exactly with that of the man who molested several young women in the same locality a couple of weeks ago, kissing one of them fairly on the cheek.

Asked by a friend why she did not apply for a similar position in Manayunk, she said she preferred to begin her proposed new vocation where she would not come in contact with so many acquaintances.

At last accounts the plucky woman had failed to secure an interview with Manager Douglass, and friends are trying to dissuade her from her purpose.

The roads all through the country are so infested with tramps that farmers are following the example of the trolley employes and arming themselves with revolvers when obliged to be out after dark.

His father went down over the declivity with the horse and sleigh, but saved himself by clinging to a tree that he struck in his descent.

When physicians of the highest standing so unhesitatingly endorse a modern discovery which will certainly cure the most terrible of diseases, does it not stand to reason that those of us who realize that we are slowly drifting into a state of decline; that our kidneys, liver or urinary organs are not what they should be, should avail ourselves of the benefits of so great a scientific discovery, which are placed so easily within our reach?

A general Democratic caucus will be held in Herbert's hall on Monday evening. The funeral of John Mitchell will take place tomorrow morning with a requiem mass at St. Mary's church.

Mr. T. P. Grail is spending a few days with friends in Williamsport. Mr. William Murray has accepted a position in the Dunmore shops.
