TO PREVENT WHEELS SLIDING. Chief Hickey Experiments with the Century's Wagon.

Chief P. J. Hickey, of the fire de partment, has devised a little scheme to prevent the sliding of hose wagons icy roads. Much trouble has been experienced of late from this cause. The chief took the Century's wagon to a blacksmith shop Thursday night and had a thin strip of iron fastened around the tire of each wheel.

In the test which followed the idea proved to be wholly successful. It is likely that every vehicle in the department will be similarly protected.
