The Daughters of St. George will meet in regular session tomorrow evening.

J. S. Campbell has announced himself as candidate for assessor in the Third ward, and Frank E. Hallock in the Second ward on the Republican ticket. Messrs, Ward and Hallock are at present occupying these offices, having been appointed by court when the wards were divided.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Boylan, of this town, to Dominick Holleran, of Pittston, is announced.

Messre, James A. Collins and Thos A. Hoolihan, of Wilkes-Barre, were visitors at the Burns' residence on Sunday.

Misses Julia Mendelsohn and Henrietta Blaum, of Wilkes-Barre, were guests of Miss Lizzie Whalen on Sunday.

Dr. Robert Lumsden, practicing physician in a Keeley cure hospital at Rockaway, N. J., and Mr. Everett of Minooka, were guests of Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, on Sat-ness portion, snow is allowed to remain until it melts away, making it very dangerous for pedestrians.

MRS. NACK SENTENCED. Will Spend Fitteen Years in the Peni-tentinry. New York, Jan. 10,-Mrs. Augusta Nack, ointly charged with Martin Thorn, the murderer of Guldensuppe, a bath rubber, at Woodside, L. L. in June of last year, was today sentenced to fifteen years in the state prison at Auburn. The good time allowance attainable would reduce the term to ten years and five months. Thorn was sentenced to be electrocuted during the week beginning today, but the appeal taken by his attorney acted as a stay. Mrs. Nack received her sentence calmly. She will be taken to Adburn as soon as the necessary forms of procedure can be gone through with. In sentencing her, the court sought to impress upon her that although she was impress upon her that attached she was equally guilty with Thorn, she had made a wise move when she decided to become a witness for the state. Judge Garret-son sail the court was bound to recognize the assistance Mrs. Nack rendered in tes-

As Mrs. Nack was being led from the court room she wept coplously, but when she reached her room she became more composed. Mrs. Nack spoke in bitter terms of Mr. Miles, pastor of the Ravens-wood Presebutian church characterits. wood Presbyterian church, characteriz-ing him as a "deceitful liar." She said that Mr. Miles pretended to be her friend while she was in jail, and that all he came there for was to get information which he sold to New York newspapers. which he sold to New York howspapers. She said that on one occasion he came to her and offered her $220 which he said he had received from the newspapers for giving them the story of her life. She said she told him she did not want this money, but he insited upon her taking it. He also asked her to give $50 of the money to his wife. Mrs. Nack said she refused to do this. She then said Mr. Miles told her he would give the $50 to his wife, say-ing it came from Mrs. Nack. Mrs. Nack said that Mr. Miles gave $10 of the money

It in the bank to her credit. At Sing Sing this afternoon Warden Sage had a brief conversation with Mar-ton Thorn.

The warden said: "Thorn, Mrs. Nack has been sentenced to fifteen years' im-prisonment. I suppose you will be intersted to know that."

Thorn looked up indifferently: "The newspapers said she would get off that

"What do you think about it?" asked New York, Jan. 10 .- There was a halt the warden. "Oh, I don't know," replied Thorn. "I lon't care much about it one way or the other.

Thern then spoke to the warden about the execution of Hadley A. Sutherland, the negro, today, and said: "This ought to have been my day. You know I was sentenced to die today." To this the warden replied: "But you know you have a stay, which means that you have a chance yet. "Well, I would rather have gone off to-day than have any further delay." Thorn intimated that he did not expect new trial or a commutation of the leath sentence When Warden Sage again referred to the sentence of Mrs. Nack, Thorn showed plainly he did not care to express any opinion as to whether he was displease!

or satisfied that Mrs. Nack should receive such a comparatively light tence for her part in the murder of Guldensuppe.
