

THINK THEY HAVE EDWARD B. WALTON

Pottsville Police Capture an Insane Wanderer.

SUPPOSED TO BE THE MISSING CLERK

The Prisoner Has a Month's Growth of Beard on His Face and Answers the Description of Walton, Who Disappeared November 29.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 11.—Chief of Police Davies, of this city, today communicated with Chief of Police Linden, of Philadelphia, in reference to a man picked up by the Pottsville police and now confined in the insane department of Schuylkill county almshouse, who is supposed to be Edward B. Walton, a clerk in the main office of the Pennsylvania railroad, who disappeared on the night of Nov. 29 last. The man was found wandering around the city in an aimless sort of manner, and was undoubtedly demented. He conversed in a rambling manner and gave his name both as Walton, of Philadelphia, and Albert Leek. At various times he said he lived in New York. Word was received from Philadelphia later in the day that a relative of Walton's is on his way here to pass upon the identity of the confined man. The latter had a month's growth of beard on his face, and is five feet, six inches in height. His hair, eyes and the dimple in his chin are said to correspond with the description of Walton as sent out by the Philadelphia police at the time of his disappearance. A passenger on a Philadelphia and Reading train, which arrived here today, and who says he knows Walton, asserts that the confined man is not Walton.

A POPULAR MAN. Walton was the chief clerk to Vice President Pugh, of the Pennsylvania company, and was one of the most popular men in the office. He lived at Bain with his wife and one child. The last seen of him after he left the office on the night he disappeared was when he left the Philadelphia Bourse, after dining with several friends. This was about 10 o'clock a.m., and from that time all trace of him was lost until the police of this city picked up the man who so closely answers his description. The only inaccuracy in the description of the missing man and the man now held here is in the matter of height. Walton is said to be five feet, eight inches in height. At the time of Walton's disappearance he had about $250 in his pocket, and this led to the suspicion that he might have been the victim of foul play. Chief Davies expressed relief at Walton's arrival tonight, and in the meantime is endeavoring to get from the confined man a more lucid explanation as to his identity.

THREE DESPERATE BROTHERS.

One of Them Confesses That the Trio Held Up Mrs. Madeira.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 11.—The police today arrested three brothers, Joseph, Lewis and George Bright, for the hold-up last evening, at the home of Mrs. William Madeira, who conducts a small cigar store, at Seventh and Dick streets. The robbers wore masks, and having seized Mrs. Madeira and bound her to a chair, they appropriated a quantity of cigars and tobacco and escaped.

The Bright brothers live in Zeigler's court. When taken before Chief of Police Albrecht today they stoutly denied all knowledge of the burglary. But eventually Lewis Bright broke down and confessed. He said he held Mrs. Madeira while Joe tied her to the chair, George, he said, became frightened and fled before the robbery was perpetrated. The masks had been purchased several days before. After the robbery they were destroyed.

The brothers were committed to answer for assault and battery and felonious entry, and subsequently Harry Struheim, the man who was arrested, charged with complicity in the affair.

HYPNOTIST A THIEF.

Shoplifter's Fair Accomplish Gave Her Baby to Strangers.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 11.—A young man giving his name as Frank Willard Kirby, and a young woman named Sallie Muldrew, whose parents live near Wheeling, W. Va., are occupying cells in the Berks county prison awaiting trial on the charge of shoplifting. They were caught in the act of stealing rings from a tray in Schlechter's jewelry store. Ever since their arrest, Chief of Police Albrecht has been searching for evidence of other crimes. His investigations resulted in tracing to them robberies committed in Philadelphia, Allentown, Lancaster and Harrisburg, Pa., and Newark, N. J., and other cities.

Their plan of operations was to visit the principal jewelry stores, and while the attention of the salesmen was diverted slip a number of rings into their pockets. These rings were subsequently pawned and the tickets destroyed. When arrested the girl confessed, and while admitting that "Childrens" was not her husband, declared that she would answer for her. Tonight, however, the chief confronted her with a new and sensational charge and she has again confessed.

The latest accusation is that while she and Childrens were living in Newark, N. J., where he gave hypnotic exhibitions, she became the mother of a daughter. This child was named Adeline Patti Willard, and the names of the parents given as Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willard. When the child was two months old, she took it to New York and placed it in the hands of a street woman she asked to hold the babe. They complied, and she disappeared. The child is now at Randall's Island. Miss Muldrew, in her confession to Chief Albrecht, said she got rid of the child at the instance of Childrens, who was not its father.

FAITH CURISTS INDICTED.

Father of Dead Child and Christian Science Healer Prosecuted.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—In its final presentation yesterday, the Camden grand jury handed up indictments against Frank Kirby and William F. Randall, growing out of the death, from diphtheria, of Kirby's little girl. No physician had been called to attend the child, as Kirby is a Christian Scientist, who believes only in the efficacy of prayer and faith to restore the sick to health. Randall is the leader of the faith in this city, and he had been called to work with the little sufferer.

The grand jury also found several indictments against the proprietors of gambling resorts, the investigation of which has occupied several weeks. Among those indicted, it is said, are "Bud" Williams, Poot and Tate, who were running a resort on Federal street, which is now closed.

WANTED TO WHIP SEVEN MEN.

Encounter with Two Landed Bosses in the Penitentiary.

Doylstown, Pa., Jan. 11.—William Bonsall was sentenced today to two years and three months in the Eastern Penitentiary for an assault that was the outcome of his estimate of his pugilistic qualities. Bonsall claimed to have been a prize-fighter, several weeks ago, and said "Kid" McCoy was the only man who had ever hit him. He came to Doylstown three weeks ago, and, after fortifying himself with liberal potations at a drinking bar, offered to whip any seven men who cared to stand up before him. Bonsall wound up by resisting Detective W. H. Smith, whose eye he cut open, and assaulting Jailer Michener. It was for this offense that he was sent to the penitentiary.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 11.—The coroner's jury investigating the cause of death of the three men who were killed by an explosion of gas in the Avondale mine at Plymouth returned a verdict that the accident was due to the carelessness of David T. MAKE NO MISTAKE.

There is No Reason Why You Should If You Follow the Advice Given Below.

"Indigestion is the curse of this country," says a New York medical journal in a recent editorial. "Both men and women suffer from this distressing complaint and it causes a tremendous amount of misery. This is all very true but there is no reason why any man or woman should suffer from indigestion when there is a ready means of preventing it. Thousands of people have had this cure and some of them have given the public the benefit of their experience. Mrs. E. Tarlton, 35 Park avenue, Cincinnati, says: 'I had dyspepsia for fifteen years and was entirely cured by taking Duffy's pure malt whiskey. I had tried almost everything and know that this whiskey cures where all others fail.' W. P. Anderson, 617 W. Indiana street, Chicago, says: 'I used Duffy's pure malt whiskey for indigestion and dyspepsia. My stomach is now in better condition than it has been for years past.' These are only two cases selected from thousands of others but they are sufficient to prove that dyspepsia and indigestion can be always avoided by the regular use of Duffy's pure malt; it will not only keep the digestive organs in perfect condition, but give tone and energy to every part of the body. Make sure that you get no inferior imitation."

For long periods he cannot utter a word. Last night Breiner suddenly burst into a fit of laughter, and for three hours laughed incessantly, although those about him could detect nothing unusual or funny to warrant such a demonstration. His physician says his ailment is due to a clot of blood pressing on the spinal cord.
