JUDGE AND RYAN MATCHED

Their Boxing Ability to Be Definitely Settled on Feb. 2.

The match between Tommy Ryan, of Philadelphia, and Jimmy Judge, of this city, was closed in New York city yesterday. They will box twenty rounds for a decision at 143 pounds in the city Feb. 2 under the auspices of the American Sporting club. Pat Murphy, of this city, was agreed upon to referee the contest.

A side bet was made, and it is understood the agreement was for the winner to take all of the boxers' share of the proceeds, although these particulars could not be learned here last night.

Judge is now training in Nanticoke and Bobby Dobbs. The pair are both profiting by this arrangement, as Dobbs is matched to meet Jack Fox next week Thursday before the Palace Sporting club, of Trenton. This club was recently incorporated with $20,000 capital under the laws of New Jersey.

The promoter is Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn, who is the promoter of the coming Ryan-Judge affair and manager of this city's American club.

On Saturday night in Nanticoke Dobbs will attempt to best Paddy Sheehan in four rounds or forfeit $100. If Dobbs does the trick he takes the proceeds.

Those who witnessed the Ryan-Judge affair last month will remember the fierce 6-round preliminary between Jack Livingston and John O'Brien, and which was won by the former. Livingston is matched to go eight rounds against John Dunleavy, of the West Side, on the night of the coming affair.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

The Nancy Hanks.

"The Nancy Hanks," in which Frank Trenchell, Jr., and Marie J. Jones are starring, was seen at the Lyceum last night. It will never bring fame to either of them, though it may bring dollars—you know you never get that way, the public will take to "The Nancy Hanks" was written by Mr. Trenchell and is labelled a comedy, but it isn't anything of the kind. Liberal stretch of the imagination might entitle it to be called a farce.

Miss Jansen, with proper surroundings, can be entertaining, but evidently she is not now happily cast. Harry Herostoff, who impersonates a French woman, did the bulk of the entertaining.

The Rising Generation Tonight.

General Billy Butler and his highly popular drama "The Rising Generation" will be the attraction for the evening at the Lyceum tonight. It is needless to say the house will be crowded and every one who attends will go away happily.

A Boy Wanted.

"A Boy Wanted," Charles E. Blaney's latest play, is said to contain quite a number of novel ideas in the way of mechanical effects. One of the best is the big dragon, or sea serpent, 25 feet long. It is worked in such a manner that it emerges from the ocean and upon raising the footlight, is transformed into ten beautiful young ladies in rich Japanese costumes. "Boy Wanted" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music the last three days of this week.

Henry Miller Friday Night.

Henry Miller, whose best work has been in romantic roles and whose performance in "The Heartsease" in the way of the poetic and picturesque order, as well as in other plays that called for chivalric action and sentiment is to appear at the Lyceum on Friday night of this season next Friday night in a new romantic drama of the past century entitled "Heartsease." Seldom was a star received with such tremendous applause or so many curtain calls as Mr. Miller has won in "Heartsease." Every night he had to come before the curtain at the end of the evening at least a dozen times and at only a few performances was he permitted to return to his dressing room without making a speech. This is the first time in his career that a character that fits exactly into the best lines of Mr. Miller's acting. It possesses the poetic quality in a most refined degree and the play is a masterpiece in the way of a point of view. In "Heartsease" there is besides the star a company of unusual strength and interest, among the members of which are: Leslie Elliot, Leslie Allen, Prince Lloyd, Thomas A. Hall, Henry Moten, Frank Beamish, James A. Leary, R. Lacey, E. J. Mettler, Miss Margaret, Miss Lillian, Miss Josephine Levet, Miss Laura Clement.

Bon Ton Burlesques.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week will be made merry at Music hall by the appearance of a very unique and novel extravaganza company known as "The Bon Ton Burlesques," an aggregation of unusual merit and talent. "The company is the most complete, the prettiest and putting young girls with forms of excellence. The comedy portion is clever, up to the times, with originality stamped on every move, while the two bright burlesques "Bachelors' Matrimonial Bureau" and "Vassar Girls in Camp" give ample scope for them to display their versatility.

TO MOTHERS OF LARGE FAMILIES.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Free.

In this workaday world few women are so placed that physical exertion is not constantly demanded of them in their daily life.

Mrs. Pinkham makes a special appeal to mothers of large families whose work is never done, and many of whom suffer and suffer for lack of intelligent aid.

To women, young or old, rich or poor, Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., extends her invitation of free advice. Oh, woman do not let your lives be sacrificed when a word from Mrs. Pinkham, at the first approach of weakness, may fill your future years with healthy joy.

Mrs. A. C. BUNLAK, 1123 North Albany avenue, near Humboldt Park, Chicago, Ill., says: "I am fifty-one years old and have had twelve children, and my youngest is eight years old. I have been suffering for some time with a terrible weakness; that bearing-down feeling was dreadful, and I could not walk any distance. I began the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash and they have cured me. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

COUNTY H N OFFSET.

For That Reason John Traganitz's Bill Was Not Paid.

John Traganitz, of the Flats, brought a novel suit against the "county of Lackawanna" yesterday before Alderman W. S. Millar. He wants to recover $42.75 due him, he says, for services as a special officer, and as a servant of the commonwealth in divers court cases.

At the hearing of the case before Alderman Millar yesterday Attorney C. H. Soper represented Traganitz and Attorney Charles P. O'Malley the county. Traganitz's bill, it appears, is not questioned by the county commissioners, but the records show that he is in debt to the county in a sum exceeding $200.

This indebtedness the county commissioners advanced as an offset to Traganitz's claim. Alderman Millar reserved his decision.

WERE IT NOT AN ANNUAL CUSTOM

Of ours to make a Special January Sale of Blankets every year, we certainly would not have done so now. The reason is plain. With the exception of the lower priced cotton grades, we have not a single pair of Blankets in stock that it would not pay us better to carry over till next season than sell now, because we'll have to pay more for them by a good big percentage than we are now asking. That's a Plain Business Proposition, over which there is no room for argument, and it will be to the interest of our friends to govern themselves accordingly.

JUST ONE WORD MORE—Hitherto it has been a rule with us to continue the special prices on Blankets all through the month of January. This year the Sale Lasts for 10 Days Only, and in any event is limited to the quantities named, whether they hold out or not.
