CARBONDALE.

The Carbondale correspondence of The [The Carbondale correspondence of The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. R. Munn, Salem avenue and Church street, to whom news items may be addressed. All complaints as to ir-regular delivery, etc., should be made to W. T. Roberts, news agent.]

CORPORATIONS ELECT OFFICERS.

The annual election of the directors of the First National bank occurred yesterday resulting as follows: J. E. Watt, Edward Clarkson, James Stott, Charles Hagan, E. W. Mills, C. W. Wisner and J. B. Van Bergen. Official announcement is made of the resignation of James Stott who has acted as cashier of the bank since 1866.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Miners' and Mechanics' Savings bank was held in the bank parlors yesterday afternoon and resulted in the re-election of the same board of directors, Messrs, A. Pascoe, E. E. Hendrick, D. Scurry, John Jermyn, R. P. Patterson, S. A. McMullen, W. W. Lathrope, C. E. Spencer and W. W. The directors re-elected their old officers: A. Pascoe, president; E. E. Hendrick, vice president, and C. E. tainment. Spencer, cashier.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carbondale Traction company was held at the office in May-field Monday evening. The old board of directors, Messrs, R. M. Janney and This will be Mr. Linderman's first W. F. North, of Philadelphia; E. E. Hendrick, D. W. Humphrey, J. W. Aitken and R. A. Jadwin, of Carbondale, and Edwin Corey, of Uniondale. were elected. The directors immediately organized by again selecting E. E. Hendrick for president and R. A. Jadwin for secretary and treasurer.

A "STEREOGRAPH" CHANGE.

Since the Herald entered the morning field, the Leader has been enabled to procure the best afternoon "stereo-graph" news service obtainable in this section and it has lost no time in availing itself of the privilege. Formerly it had to put up with a clumsy and incomplete service from Philadelphia but Quaker City plates have been thrust aside much to the delight of readers of the afternoon paper and it is safe to predict the Leader will not be caught napping again. Some years ago the Leader employed cheap "stereograph" news of the National Press association, which made a specialty of Harrisburg happenings. Before this concern failed the Herald started up and scooped the New York service. After the failure the Leader was forced to Philadelphia,

The diagram for the legitimate Irish comedian, William Barry, who will pre-sent his greatest success, "The Rising Generation," for the last time in this city, has opened. Mr. Barry is a Carbondale favorite and is always welcomed by a full house. Next Thursday evening will be no exception.

Professor J. Franklin Crowell has heard the Mozart Symphony club which will play and sing here on Jan. 29, under the auspices of the Cycle club and he says language is inadequate to express its worth.

Gospel meetings are being held each evening this week at the Methodist chapel on Belmont street. Miss Jennie Jenkins pleasantly en tertained her Sunday school class at her home on Park street, last evening. The night school recently opened in the Belmont building is becoming crowded and to make it more convenient for those from the lower end of the city the school board is seriously considering the advantage of moving it to the Central building.

MANY WITNESSES.

Testify to the Virtues of Dr. Hartman's Catarrh Specific, Pe-ru-na.

A medicine may be advertised for years, but if there are no witnesses to its curative power, it cannot stand. The reason why so much Pe-ru-na is sold is because it cures. The people who are cured request their cure to be made public for the benefit of others.

Two such cases are as follows: Miss Frances Fugel, Marcus and Anderson avenues, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I am glad to say that I am sured of that terrible disease, catarrh. I certainly do recommend Pe-ru-na most highly and wish that all afflicted with catrrhal troubles could hear of your great remedy. I cannot be too grateful to you." Mr. R. C. Pafford, Camden, Tenn., also writes: "My son was taken with cents. Names of contestants must
