BOTH HELD CAUCUSES.

Republicans and Democrats of the Fourteenth Ward Select Candidates. P. F. McCann Renominated.

Roth Republicans and Democrats conducted primaries in the Fourteenth ward yesterday. The Republican caus. cus was held last night in Co-operative hall. It was called to order by J. L. Hoffman, C. C. Andrews was chosen permanent chairman and John J. Marsecretary. The tellers selected were Harry Godshall and Bert Williams. Peter Ross, of West Lackawanna avenue, was unanimously nominated for select council. Milton H. Reinhart, of Wright's court, and W. W. Ross, of Eighth street, were candididates for common council. The vote was: Reinhart, 154; Ross, 17. The district nominees selected were: First district, register of voters, Joseph D. Thomas; judge of election, Jerome Thomas; inspector of election, George Brown. Second district, register of voters, Gottlieb Mayer; judge of election, John J. Martin; inspector of election, C. M. Florey.

The Democrats used the regular polling booths in the two districts between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock and at 7 p. m. P. McCann, the present Demoselect councilman from the ward, was opposed for nomination by Mr. McCann was successful with 52 votes to spare. P. J. Nealis, the present incumbent in common council, did not seek another nomination and Charles E. Wenzel, of West were as follows: First district, regiselection, William Gurrell. Second district, register of voters, John R. Barrett; judge of election; Nicholas Burge; inspector of election, Arthur Martin.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

James Leyshon Now President of the Republican League. The business which was to come before the West Side Republican league at their regular meeting last evening brought out a good attendance, President W. A. Phillips was in the chair. After the consideration of routine business, officers for the ensuing term of six months were nominated and elected forthwith. Those chosen were: James Leyshon, president; Timothy Jones, first vice-president; W. L. Campion, second vice-president; John T. Jones, recording secretary; David R. Jones, financial secretary; William V. Griffiths, treasurer.

The retiring president, Mr. Phillips, has proved himself capable of the trust reposed in him since taking the presidency, one year ago. He was elected to succeed himself at the end of his tor, Rev. Rogers Israel, officiated, and first term and the league feels additionally proud of him, as the resolu-tions herewith printed will indicate. Upon Mr. Phillips first becoming president the club was facing a depleted treasury, but by hearty co-operation year the membership has grown, twenty treasurer's report also indicates a very omfortable treasury, with no outstanding debts.

The good work done by Mr. Phillips will be kept up, as the league wisely elected a good successor in the person of Mr. Leyshon. The league ought to continue to advance in membership power. The other officers are equally competent. The resolutions introduced and unanimously adopted are as follows:

Resolved. That we heartily endorse the action of the late city convention held in Music hall Tuesday, Jan. 11, 1898, and we hereby pledge the nominees of said convention our undivided support at the lection to be held Tuesday, Feb. 15. Resolved, That we appreciate the action of Sheriff Pryor in appointing our worthy ex-president, W. A. Phillips, to a position on his staff of county officials, and it is further

Resolved. That we tender our thanks to Hon. John R. Jones for his retaining of County Detective Thomas Leyshon in his present position.

TINGED WITH RELIGION.

The Pickwickians met last evening in regular bi-weekly session at the residence of Miss Belle M. Doud 1304 Washburn street, and had one of their usual deeply interesting meetings. New officers for the ensuing term were elected and assumed the duties of their respective offices immediately. The offi-cers are: C. H. Hall, president; John York, vice-president; Miss William Maguire, from Lafayette Chase, secretary, and Miss Bertha Crawford, assistant secretary.

The society had reached that point in their literary studies along the early history of this country where religious topics had begun to be widely dis-Luckawanna avenue, polled the full cussed and the subjects to be considparty vote. The district nominations ered proved especially interesting, owing to the recent lecture given by ter of voters, John Gilgalion; judge of Robert Ingersoll in this city. The first election, R. W. Luce, jr.: inspector of number was a paper, by Miss Grace Doud, upon "The Life and Religion of Thomas Paine." Miss Doud had given her paper particular care, as was indicated by the thoughts thrown out. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church, followed with a masterly treatment of the topic "De ism, its Influence on the Early Ameri-Government." Miss Anna Broadbent had prepared fifteen questions relative to the evening's subjects, and these were asked and answered. Miss Edna Kent drew an apt comparison in her paper on "Thomas Jefferson and Thomas Paine." The session was brought to an end by a general discussion by means of the question box. The next meeting will be held at Wil-

> FUNERAL OF MRS, BEAUMONT. The funeral of the late, Mrs. W. C. Beaumont took place yesterday morning from the residence at 125 South Seventh street. The remains were borne to St. Luke's Episcopai church, where the last sad rites of the church for the deceased were read. The rec preached a sermon to a large attendance of friends. The remains lay in a handsome casket, which was almost oncealed beneath a profusion of exquisite floral tributes. At the conclusion of the services, the remains were taken to Paterson, N. MINOR NEWS NOTES.

A Ladies' Tourist club was recently formed from among the members of the St. Patrick's Ladies' society of the Irish Catholic Benevolent union. Quite a number have been enrolled, and the following officers chosen: Miss B. Gallagher, president; Miss Mary McNulty, secretary: Miss Margaret Kellett, treasurer.

The fact that the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mathias, of West Lackawanna avenue, at their reception on Thursday evening presented the genial host and hostess with a beautiful tea and dinner set was inadvertently left out in yesterday's report of the reception. The ladies of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Irish Catholic Benevolent union tendered their friends a delightful social at St. David's hall last evening. After the guests had assembled, dancing was commenced, Michael Hennigan acting as master of ceremonies and Miss Maine Shearins being planist. This part of the evening's pleasure was heartily enjoyed, and at the intermission a short impromptu literary programme was carried out, which included recitations, vocal and instrumental selections.

The members of the Welsh Philosophical society are requested to be present at the regular meeting this evening, as business of great importnce is to be considered. Heartsease.

Henry Miller, his spiendid company and Heartsease" received a flattering recop-ion at the Lyceum last night. The deserved repute the play has attained here through its presentation in Scranton iast month and its metropolitan successes, as well as the favor Mr. Miller is earning in the eyes of well versed theatergoers, drew a crowded house. All seats were occu-pled. It would be difficult to conceive any greater finish and mastery than Mr. Miller displayed last night as Eric Tem-

A gratifying fact, but one frequently absent in even the best of company's was the commendable work of each one of the supporting cast. Fifteen name and characters were contained on the programme and it is safe to say they were individually and collectively, more de-serving of praise than any combination ppearing here this season. This contrib-ited in no stran degree to the smoothness of the performance and Mr. Miller's .eception, which was so hearty that he was several times obliged to acknowledge the prolonged applause which followed the droppings of the curtain. Thomas Hall as Lord Neville, Arthur Elliott as Sir Geoffrey Pomfret, Miss Margaret Date es Hon. Miss Neville, Frank Beamish as Major Twombley, Miss Josephine Lovett as Alice Temple, Prince Lloyd as Captain Jack O'Hara, Leslie Allen as Peter Padbury, and Miss Maud Hosford as Lady Neville, merited unusual praise for their good acting. The costumes, scen-ery and settings of the four acts were very complete and true to the time and ocale of the play, 1795 in London. The Frank Beamish mentioned in the cast is near relative of the Scranton family of
