VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

Dr. Daniel G. Beckwith Received His Summons While Attending One of His Patients Saturday Night.

Dr. Daniel G. Beckwith died suddenly Saturday night. He was making his evening calls on his patients and had reached the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pry, of Landis street, whose little daughter was ill of diphtheretic eroup. He had removed his coat and sat down at the little one's bedside. He first felt her pulse and was bending over her to take the respirations, when suddenly he slid from his chair, a slight gasp and he was still forever.

The little one was startled and the parents badly frightened. They tried to arouse the doctor but their efforts were yain. Mr. Pry went for Dr. F. C. Hall, who was a close and intimate friend of the deceased. He responded hurriedly, but as the others feared, he said that his friend and almost brother was past all mortal aid. Coroner Longstreet was notified, and he granted permission for the removal of the

The remains were taken to Funeral Director Price's establishment and chairman and D. C. O'Hara acted as awaited the coroner's investigation. Dr. Longstreet viewed the remains early yesterday morning and considered an inquest entirely unnecessary. Apoplexy was pronounced the cause of Early last evening, the remains, having been prepared for burial, were removed to the residence of Druggist Clarence R. Shryer, 401 North Main avenue, with whom the deceased had resided since coming to this city to practice his chosen profession. Short services, and of a private nature, will te held there this morning and later the remains will be taken to the home of the deceased's brother, Dr. J. F. Beckwith, at Plymouth. They will be shipped via the 1.50 o'clock Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train, Bloomsburg division. Interment will made at Plymouth Tuesday after-

The deceased was 25 years of age having been born at Rock Hill, North Carolina. He was unmarried, and is survived by his mother, one sister and four brothers. The sister is Mrs. L. P. Council, the brothers, Wesley, John, and William, all of Rock Hill, N. C. and Dr. J. F. Beckwith, of Plymouth, Pa. The mother is in her seventy-second year and in poor health. It is feared that when she is notified of her favorite son's death that she will be prostrated with fatal results. Dr. Beckwith hardly knew what sickness was. A typical southerner, he rejoiced in his six feet one inch of stature and a robust constitution. It is barely two weeks since he returned from spending the holidays at his mother's home. He came to West Scranton in the spring of 1893 to make arrangements to assist the late Dr. J. M. Williams with his practice. He returned home to complete arrangements, and in July of that year, while he was away, Dr. Williams died. In the following August he came on and took up the practice of the deceased Doctor Williams. Since coming here he has made many friends.

of humanity who viewed the remains at the Shryer residence last evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock, Beckwith was a member of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, Knights of Malta. Red Men and of the Scranton Street Baptist church, whose pastor, Rev. S. F. Mathews, will officiate at today's service. He was a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Baltimore, Md., and the University of North Carolina. A token of the respect and esteem with which he was regarded in the profession was evidenced by the meeting of the West Scranton physicians last evening, Dr. J. J. Carroll acted as chairman, and it was agreed to attend the services in a body. Drs. L. A. Lindabury, B. G. Beddoe and G. B. Beach were selected as a committee to get a suitable floral tribute. Drs. J. J. Carroll and F. C. Hall will act as

FOURTH WARD PRIMARIES.

The Democrats of the Fourth ward met in St. Leo's rooms, North Main avenue, Saturday evening, and nominated candidates for select and common council, and selected nominees for the several district offices. It was a quiet session. T. J. Gilroy was made secretary. Little discussion ensued until the nominations for register of voters of the Third district was called for. This was the only instance in which two candidates were out for the place. Charles Heldron was, however, chosen over John Cawley. Douglass Ward, of North Sumner avenue, was made the nomince for judge of election in the First district, but he expresses his positive intention of not running. The candidates for the respective offices are as follows: Select council John Renchler; common council, Cornelius Grimes.

BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Michael Stechuck, who resides on Twenty-second street, and is employed as a laborer in the Archbald mines, claims he is the victim of a daring robbery. He had laid away a sum of money amounting to a few cents ove $100 during two years, and intended to bring his sweetheart here from the other side to be married to him. carry out his intention he went to Mr. Kiezel's steamship ticket agency, on Lackawanna avenue, Wednesday af ternoon, but discovered that he was still a dollar short of the necessary amount. He returned home to come again another day. But it will be a long while now. He says he stopped into a hotel on Luzerne street to a drink, and in paying for it, had to take out his roll of bills. Shortly after he left the place he was rudely

VICTIM OF "CYCLONE KATE." "Cyclone Kate" Boylan, of Taylor, is once more an inmate of the county jail for a term of thirty days for contempt and in default of $500 bail on a charge of larceny. John Cook was the prose cutor in the larceny case and had a warrant issued from Alderman Kelly's office for her apprehension Saturday evening. He claimed he met the wo man on Lackawanna avenue early in the evening and felt sorry for her apparent want. She asked for 25 cents and he gave it to her, while they walked along. They went out Seventh street, to Scranton street, and here he bid her good-bye. A few minutes later he discovered the loss of a roll of bills amounting to $17, and he accused his recent comrade. Constable Clark found Mrs. Boylan in a place on Scrantor street, and she was given a hearing before Alderman Kelly, whom she treated with contempt, hence her double trouble. Sixteen dollars were found on her person.

FUNERALS HELD YESTERDAY. The funeral of the late Robert Tayor was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 223 South Seventh street, The ramains were borne to St. Luke's Episcopal church where the rector, Rev. Rogers Israel, conducted the services and preached the sermon The remains laid in a beautiful casket, almost concealed beneath a profusion of floral tributes. There was many friends in attendance, and lodge No. 1, Sons of St. George, of which the deceased was member, was largely represented. At the conclusion of the services, the remains were viewed and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pallpearers were selected from the lodge. Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Mrs. Michael Grant was borne to St Patrick's church where services were held. Many friends of the deceased were in attendance and the floral emblems were very beautiful. Rev. D. A. Dunn officiated. At the onclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery, where interment was made. A large funeral cortege accompanied the remains to the cemetery The pallbearers were: Thomas Norton, Michael Gerrity, John Joyce, Richard Mc-Hale, John Burns and James Gallagh

TWAIN OF ACCIDENTS.

Yesterday afternon, while returning rom a funeral, Mrs. Miles Philbin, of 2 Hale street, met with an accident which resulted in a dislocation of her left arm, which is very painful. The accident happened while she and her son were driving along South Main avenue, towards home. Just as they approached Eynon street, a passing car frightened the horse. The animal backed up and overturned the carriage, throwing the occupants out. The boy was uninjured and pluckily held onto his horse. Mrs. Philbin, not so fortu-We Don't Keep 'Em Long Enough nate, struck her arm against a projection and dislocated it at the elbow. She was taken home and Dr. J. J. Roberts attended her.

Several property holders from the Park Place section were up with their oppositions against the pave, but their objections were immediately ruled out of order. Joseph Church, the sage of Bull's Head, by his remarks brought out the wrath of Select Councilman Wade Finn, and he remained silent during the remainder of the meeting. Councilman Finn was called upon for remarks and responded with an outline of the city engineer's estimates and a discussion of the materials. On motion of C. H. von Storch the property holders present were requested to register their names and the frontage of their properties, together with their preference for brick or asphalt. After the balloting was concluded the names were counted and found to number 53. A brick pave was reported to be favorable to the major-

CHURCH CONSECRATED.

The Emanuel German-Polish Luther an church of this end was consecrated yesterday afternoon with auspicious services. Preliminary services before entering the church were conducted in the open air and were begun with a German hymn, "Thut mir auf dis Schone Pforte." The subject of the cugh, Henry Lavelle, James and Pat- Liturgical service, "Our Help is in the Name of the Lord," was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. Kowala. The response was "Who Made Heaven and Earth?" Prayer was offered by the paster and was followed by the reading of the 21th Psalm,

Then came the delivering of the key from the contractor who erected the church, into the custody of the pastor of the congresation. The doors were immediately unlocked and those on the outside were admitted. The church was not large enough to accommodate the throng. Services in the interior were opened by a prayer at the altar by Rev. Mr. Kowala. A hymn was der for register of voters, then sung by the congregation and was followed by the lesson found in Kings, viii:1-13, 22-30. The consecratory prayer was said by the pastor, which was followed by the Apostles' creed. An anthem was then sung by a choir from St. Mark's church on the West Side, which rendered invaluable aid in the dedication services.

A sermon in the German language was then preached by Rev. L. Lindenstruth, of Mauch Chunk, Pa., president of the conference. A hymn preceded the discourse by Rev. C. F. Spieker, of Philadelphia. His remarks were followed by five-minute addresses by Revs. Ramer, Ling, Schiedy, Spieker and Rev. G. E. Guild, of the Providence Prosbyterian, and Rev. R. S. Jones, of the Welsh Congregational the singing of a hymn and benediction. The church is situated on Reese street. Mrs. Laura T. At the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's supper and baptism were celebrated, preceded by the reception of new members. Seventeen persons were received into the church fellowship, five adults were baptized and two children.

The pastor, Rev. George E. Guild. made a brief sacramental address, preceding the distribution of the elements of the Lord's table. He emphasized the duty of affectionate loyalty to Christ by the lives which the founder of the missionary church, Count Tinsendorff, wrote under a crude picture he saw o the wall of his room at the humble inn, where he was stopping while on his journey as a missionary. "This have done for thee. What wilt thou do for me?" The service last evening was an hour of gospel hymns and secred music. Such gospel hymns as "I Have a Song I Love to Sing," "Keep Thy Faith Steady," "Behold a Stranger at the Door," "While the Years are Rolling On," were sung with much feeling and reverent enthusiasm by the congregation, led by the choir, assisted by Pro-fessor Wackenshow, violinist.
