THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Interesting Event Celebrated by Rev.

and Mrs. Luther W. Peck. honor of the fifty years of a happy wedded life, Rev. and Mrs. Luther W. Peck, of 302 Chestnut street, quietly observed the golden anniversary of their wedding yesterday afternoon. The residence was prettily decorated with evergreen and choice cut flowers. Though it was a quiet, family affair only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends being invited, a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. Pleasant conversation of a reminiscent nature helped to spend the passing hours and at an early hour a dainty repast was served to the guests. Mrs. Peck was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Helen and Sadle M. Peck.

host and hostess were united at Dormansville, N. Y., and are now in their 72 and 69 years respectively. Dr. Peck had entered the Methodist ministry shortly before this eventful time, and up to within eight years ago was very active in the work, and upheld the record made by other members of his family. The Pecks for many generations have been represented in the ministry. No individual divine in the Wyoming conference commands greater respect or love by his fellows than Dr. Peck. Though bowed with the weight of years and long service, he still attends divine worship Sabbath morning, if the weather permits, at the Shapson Methodist church. At times he assists in the serand sometimes addresses the Sabbath school

VALUABLE DOG SHOT.

"Rover," the large Newfoundland dog, owned by Merchant D. D. Evans, of South Main avenue, is no more. Patroiman Thomas Evans gave him his quietus yesterday by shooting him. Mr. Evans, though loathe to part with the animal, which was a fine one, gave his consent. The dog has always been a favorite with the children residing in the vicinity, and was a valued watch dog. Lately, however, he seems to have developed a tendency to resent the liberdes taken with him by the children, and has snapped at them, and, in sev eral instances, inflicted small wounds Nonday evening, while Thomas, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Evans, of Hampton street, together with ther youngsters, were playing near him. Rover seized the lad and bit him quite severely below the calf of the left It was then decided to prevent further danger and trouble by killing

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

A gang of Traction company men were employed yesterday in doing some repair work along South Main avenue, between Jackson and Washburn streets. Alterations and repairs were made ipon the large pipe organ at St. David's Episcopal church Monday, Great credit is due the enterprise and industry of the committee, comprising Daniel Elsinger, David Holmes, T. Owen Charles, Thomas Jones and Lewis Watkins, who undertook and carried to a successful completion this delicate task. It was decidedly venturesome on their part, owing to the difficulties and dangers of making mistakes in replacing the many small parts. The committee saved $60, which it would have cost to have had an expert's assistance,

Some People too Modest to Confide in their Physician—A Women Cured of a Serious Disease by a Certain Method, the Only Drawback of which was, it "Made Her Too Fat."

From the Evening News, Detroit, Mich.

The doctor came in haste and found his patient again in great agony from a splitting headache. It was his fifth call on the same patient, and each time to treat the same trouble. With a suspicion that his diagnosis was incorrect and that he was treating a symptom and not the disease, he said to her: "Madam, it is useless for me to visit you agait. You are keeping from me facts and symptoms which it is necessary I should know. The patient finally acknowledge that, through a false modesty, she had not told him all. Then she told how she had suffered from female weakness but had kept it from him—too modest to speak. The old doctor was disgusted at such prudishness, but when he knew the facts, cured her easily and quickly.

The following case differs from the above only in the fact that the patient is not afraid to speak, and to "call a spade a spade."

"Words fail to describe the suffering I endured before I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Both Are in Training for Their Contest on Feb. 2. Tommy Ryan is training at Coney Island for his 20-round bout with Jimmy Judge at Music Hall, this city, Feb. 2. Since the recent meeting between them Ryan has felt very sore over the decisions which awarded the fight to Judge. The majority of those who witnessed the contest were of the opinion that the best man won but there are many who believe Ryan underestimated the Scrantonian's cleverness on the last occasion and that Ryan will be prepared to do better battle when they next meet.

Ryan is having the advantage of training with Kid McPartland and other men nearly as good. He has the benefit also of one experience with Judge and when he comes to Scranton on Feb. 2 it will not be with the belief that he is to meet a novice, While Ryan is going through a pre-having the same experience. The latter has been training for the last three weeks here and in Nanticoke with Dobbs and Judge will give boxing exhibitions at Wilkes-Barre tonight and tomorrow and Friday nights, meeting all comers at their weight. Judge will
