NEW CHURCH PROPOSED.

Plans Accepted for a New Edifice for St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Congregation.

The members of the congregation of Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church, corner of Washburn and Fourteenth streets, met in annual session at the church last evening. There was a good attendance. The paster, Rev. L. Ramer, Ph.D., presided. Devotional exercises preceded the busi-

The pastor presented his report for the church work, which proved very interesting. The report was a general summary of the last six months, and dealt with the intention of creeting a new edifice, church progress, the Sunday school and other church societies. and his pastoral work among his com-

In touching upon the proposed erection of a new edifice he submitted a report from the building committee and the completed plans and specifications. Since the first step towards this end, which was taken Oct. 27, 1897, great and satisfactory progress has been made. Everything is now ready for the calling of bids, Considerable discussion ensued in reference to the plans, but one and all agreed that nothing better, along the desired lines, could be acquired. The efficient committee, who, in conjunction with the pastor, brought about this result, are D. W. Moser, William Grass, A. L. Meyers, Charles Schuster and Magnus Nelson. Davy & Brother are the architects of the new edifice.

Great progress has been displayed in church efforts. The membership has been increased.

There was $430 added to the treasury during the last six months. The expenditures were $427. In addition $390 has been raised towards the building fund. The Sunday school has a membership of 160 with an average attendance of 120. The other church organization are all in first rate condition. D. W. Moser made the treasurer's re-

Officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: Vice president and treasurer, D. W. Moser; deacons for three years, Axel Kullbery and A. L. Meyers: trustee, Henry Kreinberg: auditing committee, William George Smith, Chester Canimer, Axel Kullberg; treasurer of the building fund. William Grass; financial secretary, Eli W. Houser; recording secretary, R. B. Moser; ushers, Axel Kullberg and Alfred Anderson.

FRANKLIN COMPANY BALL.

There is little in a fireman's career. as a general rule, which could be classed as pleasure, but once in awhile events occur which are enjoyable. Such an affair will be held at Mears' hall this evening, when the fire laddles of Franklin Engine company, No. 1, will observe the forty-second annual meet by a grand ball. The hall will be artistically decorated. Bauer's orchestra will furnish the music for both promenade and dance, and other features of no less interest will be provided. The admission is to be $1 for lady and gentleman, and no objectionable person will be allowed to enter. It is no all for pleasure that these arrange ments have been made, for the funds obtained are placed in the company's treasury, to be used for the benefit of the company's members.

TO RECEIVE PROF. PROTHEROE. Steps have been taken by the members of the Congregation of the South Main Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church towards a proper reception to be tendered Professor Daniel Protheroe, of Milwaukee, Wis., who will visit the scenes of his early musical career here early in next May. The professor will pass through here on his way to his old home in Ystradsynlas, South Wales, to spend the summer. It will be well remembered by the host of Professor Protheroe's friend's that while living here he was chorister at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, and was connected with the musical society of Elm Park thurch and several minor singing societies. He probably obtained greater note by his successful conduction of the famous Cymrodorions Choral so-

Since going to Milwaukee, he has been conspicious in the most exclusive musical circles of that city. He has charge of the choir, a noted one, of the Baptist church, of which the late Rev. Frederick Evans, was once a pastor. He is also instructor of music for a large singing society, and leader of the I yric Glee club, the members of which are all noted. Mrs. Protheroe. formerly Miss Hannah Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Job Harris, of Evnor street, will accompany him. The reception here will be in the form of a Globe Warehouse
