SEVERAL PRESENTATIONS.

Were Features of a Social Session of

Div. No. 1, A. O. H. The members of Division No. Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erm, met in regular session last evening in Co-operative hall, North Main nyenue, and had a most enjoyable time. The routine business of the order was quickly disposed of and the officers for the ensuing term were installed into their respective offices. Ex-State Delerate C. T. Boland acted as installing officer. The president, vice-president, recirding and financial secretary and treasurer have served continuously since June 6, 1895,

At the conclusion of the installation, the members and visiting members of the order were served light refreshments by Caterer William Fitzsimmons, of Jackson street. Cigars were then passed and the social part of the ses-

President M. H. Healey acted as chairman. Hon. J. P. Quinnan, county delegate, was taken utterly by surprise by the presentation to him of a cautiful gold-headed cane. The presentation was made by C. T. Boland in a happy manner, and the recipient expressed his appreciation for the unextected token of the esteem with which he is held. Following closely upon the above, the tried and true recording secre ary, Augustus McDade, was made the recipient of a handsome goldmounted fountain pen. Ex-County Delegate James McAndrew made the presentation on behalf of the members and Mr. McDade responded. The remainder of the evening was spent in the enjoyment of remarks, songs and recitations. Remarks were made by John H. Devine, C. T. Boland, James McAndrew and the chairman were more of a special nature, dwelling upthe Board of Erin and the Board of America. Solos were given by Michael Thomas Ford and James Bolton, Michael and R. J. Madden sang a duet, and William Gilroy and A. Duffy declaimed.

The officers installed are: M. H. vice-president: Augustus McDade, recording secretary; T. P. Regan, financial secretary; P. J. Lynn, treasurer; M. S. Lavelle, sentinel; P. M. Rohan, Thomas J. Tierney, Miles Joyce, M. J. Norton, P. J. Hoban, directors.

DANGEROUS POOL OF WATER.

It Has Formed in the Rear of South Main Avenue.

A large pool of water lies in the rear of Nos. 714 and 716 South Main avenue, which, if allowed to stand until summer, will be a menace to the health of all the residents in its immediate vicinity. This will affect some three hundred persons. The pool has formed in a depression in the tract of land rein width, and over three feet deep in 250 feet are beginning to protest against the existing circumstances. A few months ago Thomas D. Davies, John T. Williams and Thomas Lewis took some steps to mitigate the evil by grading and filling the court which runs in the rear of their properties facing Eynon street. The water by recent rains, melting of snow and natural drainage has, however, overflowed the alley level and many of the houses have flooded cellars and other minor difficulties to contend with. One remedy has been suggested, but as always is the case one or two figur-ing on a false economy basis refuse to share the reasonable expense of carrying the suggestion out. Mr. Lewis proposed to lay a small drain from the pool through to Eynon street. Mr. Williams has given his consent to allow the drain to be carried across his prem ises, thus giving a good grade and considerably lessening the cost of pipe. The expense to be borne by the several property owners who will be directly benefited by the work. A few refuse to act and the neighborhood is being scoured for ashes, dirt, etc., to bank off the water, which increases every day in volume.

WILL OBSERVE ENDEAVOR DAY The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held their regular residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Battenberg, 628 North Main avenue. Retiring President W. T. Burrall was J. R. Kime; door committee, George chairman. In connection with the routine business, it was agreed to observe Christian Endeavor day, which falls on Sunday, Jan. 39, with appropriate exercises. A committee composed of many, and of a general nature, but W. T. Burall, J. A. Patten, D. A. Stone, the remarks of Hon. J. P. Quinnan, Rev. J. P. Monatt and the Misses Ada Saxe, Grace Peck, Florence Y. Irving and M. Louisa Williams has the matter in hand. The most interesting reon the approaching consolidation of port made was in reference to the recent and successful organization of an Intermediate Christian Endeavor among Donnegan, J. J. O'Grady, E. J. Walsh. the younger members of the Sunday school. The new society has a membership of 35 and the following officers were chosen: Miss Kate Chase, president: Miss Bessie Fraunfelter, vice-president; Rhoda Elias, secretary, Healey, president; M. F. Sheridan, and Miss Jennie Jenkins, treasurer The following officers were then elected for the senior society for the next six months; J. H. Battenberg, president; Miss Lucy Reitenauer, vice-president; Miss Martha Phillips, recording secretary; Miss Florence Y. Irving, corresponding secretary; Charles Battenberg, financial secretary; Miss Jessie Long, treasurer; Prof. D. A. Stone, chorister. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner and the enjoyment of light refreshments served by Mrs. J. H. Battenberg.
