NON-SUIT IN THE DESPEAUX CASE

A Suit Against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for Atleged Discrimination, Which Occurred in 1881-1882, Is Ruled Out by Judge

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.-A number of the members of the Democratic city committee today declared their opposition to any aillance of the Democrats with either faction of the Republicans in the receiver of taxes campaign. They also called upon Magistrate Donnelly, the Democratic candidate, to de-clare his purpose "in view of the persistent efforts to induce him to with-draw" and enter into a deal to further the election of Harvey K. Newitt, the anti-Martin candidate, as against William J. Roney, Secretary Martin's brother-in-law, who was nominated at convention which the Newltt men

DESPEAUX CASE.

The case of Charles H. Despeaux the Pennsylvania Railroad ompany for affeged discrimination in freight rates today ended by Judge

Daltier ordering a non-suit.

The (ria) has been in progress in the United States Circuit court since Jan. II, and a number of prominent men-have given testimony. The alleged discrimination occurred in 1881, 1882 and 1882. The defense called no witnesses, and counsel neked for a non-sult on the ground that the statute of limi-tation intervened and that the plaintime bad failed to prove that specific relates had been given by the com-

In ordering the non-suit, Judge Dallas raid he had reached the conclusion that the plaintiffs had failed to adduce evidence sufficient to warrant a verdict in their favor.

WEDDING AT HAWLEY.

Marriage of Emma Spall and Charles Wathter Solemnized. Special to the Scranton Tribune

Hawley, Jan. 21 -- Wednesday evening at 3.45 o'clock a very pretty wedding was selemnized at the St. Philomenia's church by the Rev. J. H. Judge, The contracting parties were Miss Emma Spall and Charles Wathley, of this place. The bride was attired in an elaborate white silk gown, with vell en train, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Helen Adams, who was bridesmaid, were a dress sim-Har to that of the bride, and carried a bouquet of blok carnations. Eugene Spall was best man. The wedding much was played by Miss Anna

The wedding party were then conveyed to their home, which is already furnished, and after receiving the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends, a bountiful repast was partaken of. The guests were then driven to the Standard hall, where dancing was engaged in until early the fol-lowing morning. There were one hunared and twenty invited guests. The bride received many beautiful and cost-
