TWO INSTALLATIONS.

Conducted by Royal Arcanum and Knights of Golden Engle.

Each year as the evening of installation of officers comes round, the members of Lackawanna Council, No. 1133. Royal Arcanum, arranged to hold a social session, which heretofore has been a most enjoyable event in the council's history and the one carried out last evening at Ivorite hall proved less enjoyable. District Deputy Grand Regent George T. Bugden, assisted by Deputy Grand Guide Dr. W. A. Paine, conducted the installation. The officers installed were: Regent, W. J. Neave; vice-regent, C. R. Acker; rator, C. E. Olver, esq.; past regent, and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where they were laid C. E. Laning; secretary, A. E. Vorhis; collector, G. F. Eynon; treasurer, V. H. Lauer; chaptain, R. F. Fox; guide, C. La Bar; warden, R. Eldred; sentry, D. O. Thomas.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies the council went into social session. Light refreshments were served, cigars passed, and an excellent programme was carried out. Short addresses were made by many of the members. The addresses were interspersed by selections from a musicbox, furnished by C. R. Acker, As is the usual custom, a handsome token was presented to the retiring regent, C. E. Laning. Attorney C. E. Olver, in an appropriate speech, made the presentation of a ring, in behalf of the council's members. The ring is a broad gold band, on the face of which is a raised crown. Each spike of the crown contains a jewel, the rim is enameled in blue and the center in purple. On the blue enamel are the letters V. M. meaning Virtue, Mercy and Charity. The white of the diamond, the plete their share and will undoubtedly blue and purple represents each of these letters. G. F. Eynon is now in last evening. his ninth term and V. H. Lauer in his sixth term as collector and treasurer respectively.

Officers for the ensuing term were installed last evening by Hyde Park Castle, No. 246, Knights if the Golden Eagle. The ceremonies were held at St. David's hall and were followed by John, of North Everett avenue. an entertainment and social. The installation was in charge of a degree team under Sir Herald George Okell. The following are the installed officers: Howell D. Phillips, noble chief; John Ridgeway, vice-noble chief; James Reeder, past noble chief: William Morgan, high priest; William Reese, venerable hermit; Dawson Wetherhog, keeper of exchequer; David Widdick, ensign; John O. Evans, worthy chamberlin: William Ridgeway, outside guard; Morgan W. Davis, inside guard; Jonah George, sir herald; John O. Evans and John T. Morgan, trustees. William Reese acted as chairman, Miss Pitts acted as accompanist and later played the music for the dances. The hall was nicely decorated with the national colors. Several selections were given by the noted Anthracite Glee club. Prof. James Evans, of Olyphant, sang a tenor solo. Stephens and Cole gave a musical duet and William Morgan in his inimitable way sang several comic songs. The literary part of the evening's pleasure was completed by an address by Sir Herald George Okell, which was heartily applauded. FUNERAL OF MRS. J. L. LOWRY. The funeral services of the late Mrs.
