THE METHODIST BISHOPS. Eighteen Men Who Have Spirtual Rule Over Many Millions.

om the Church Economic The Methodist Church is one of the most highly organized, or rather is the most highly organized, of all the Protestant demoninations. But without going into minute detail we may say briefly that the board of bishops is the highest order in the Methodist system. It consists of twenty-one persons who are elected by the general conference to fill the vacancles by death or deposition -a bishop cannot resign. It is within the power of the general conference to enlarge this number if, in its opinion, the needs of the church require. The new bishop is ordained with elaborate ceremonies, and, Methodists claim, with true apostolic succession through the

Of these twenty-one men, eighteen have supreme and wellnigh arbitrary jurisdiction over world-wide Methodism, and two of these are practically retired, thus reducing the active force to stateen. How this supervision shapes itself into routine may be indicate to show the extent and character this authority. There are in the Meth odist church 124 conferences, 103 of which are in this country, while 21 ar distributed through India, China, Sout America, Mexico and Europe. conferences may be called the gran They ar divisions of Methodism. always subdivided into two more districts, and represent from from 50 to 300 or more "charges" or churches. Each of these confer ences holds an annual session, at which a bishop must preside. He has associated with him in authority on such occasion what is known as the conference. The presiding elder, it should be said, is the chief executive of each district conference, and is himself a person of great authority. At each conference the bishop, in consultation with his cabinet, decides upon, appoints and announces the pastorate for the coming year, and from this de cision there is no appeal. A Methodis minister must either take his assign ment or disobey orders and practically quit the ministry. Only very few exceptional reasons justify such disobed ience in the eyes of his fellow-min-isters and the public opinion of the

Thus, theoretically at least, thes twenty-one bishops have in their arbitrary power the location and work o the 30,000 ministers of the Methodis church-a power which cannot find a parallel outside of the Roman Catholichurch, if indeed it be equaled there, It will be observed that the Metho dist bishops are not confined to a dio cese. The bishop, however, has an episcopal residence, though he may no much at home. The residences are fixed by the general conference, an the choice is then made by the bishor. themselves in the order of their senior ity. Thus it happens that a bishop of ten officially resides at a great distance from the scene of the work with which is most prominently identified. Bishop Vincent's home, for example, is at Kansas City, though he is commonly associated with Chautauqua inter-

In addition to these varied and important tasks within the bounds of our country, two or more of the twentyone bishops are chosen to visit the foreign conferences. These men should be carefully distinguished from what are known as missionary bishops, the only Methodist bishop corresponding to the Anglican bishop—that is, with a well-defined and permanent diocese, and who therefore corresponds pretty closely to a presiding elder, though he has presiding elders under him. These visiting bishops travel throughout the world and are effective everywhere, and are effective everywhere.

It will be seen from this cursory sketch that the group of Methodist bishops are vested with more power than any body of ecclesiastics in the Protestant church. As Bishop Fallows of the Reformed Episcopal church once remarked: "A Methodist bishop has more power in his little finger than I have in my whole body." It only remains to be said that this group of men exercise their enormous powers with rare wisdom, moderation and fidelity.

It will be seen from this cursory to costers. 6c.; spring chickens, 7½a8c.; turkeys, 9a10c.; ducks, 9a10c. rare wisdom, moderation and fidelity.

Water as Preactous as Brandy.

A. B. Ellis, of Portland, Ore., while on a visit to Ascension Island, met an ald friend, who shock hands, reached down a coat from a peg and put it on, saying: "Excuse my not putting on a shirt, will

"Of course, of course," replied Mr. Ellis "Take off more of your clothes if you'll feel more comfortable."

"N-no; it's not that, but the fact is I haven't a shirt clean enough to put on." Mr. Ellis, says the Portland Oregonian. could not murmur his surprise at this strange circumstance and endeavored to look sympathetic. The friend continued: "I dare say you think it odd that I don't have them washed?"

Mr. Ellis, hardly knowing what to say, inquired: "Why don't you?"

The friend unfolded a horrible tale to the effect that the water supply of the island consisted principally of what was distilled by a condenser, a small quantity being obtained from Dampier's drips and Brandeth wells; that water was al-ways so scarce that it was served out like a ration of rum, only more sparingly the allowance in prosperous times being two gallons a day per man. When clothes were sent to the wash he water for washing them had to be sent with them. But the condenser, at tha', time, had been out of order for some nine or ten days and everybody on the Island had been put on short allow-ance, so that they had not enough for drinking, much less for washing either themselves or their clothes.

Wall Street Review.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Jan. 22.—Trading in stocks today was of small proportions even for a Saturday's brief session. The market generally left off with a steady tone at slight recessions in values. No outside interest was apparent and room traders transacted most of the business. Commission houses had but few orders either way. Consolidated Gas and Metropolitan Street Railway and a few other special issues monopolized the traders' attention. Sugar declined fractionally; Manhattan was moderately firm, Consolidated Gas rose 44. Metropolitan Street Railway 24, and Third Avenue advanced 24 on influences that had been operating

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed - A Wonderful Work.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer with variçose veins on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful rilla, has done for me." Mrs. A. E.

RIDPATH CONSENTS

January 13th we should have been compelled to announce the closing of the Wanamaker History Club, as the club limit had been reached.

Such a course would have keenly disappointed thousands who had neglected to join the club.

The case was laid before Dr. Ridpath, and he generously consented to our having another edition, but only one-half as many

With this absolute limit reached, there is NO TIME TO LOSE if you would secure this greatest of histories of the

Perhaps its greatest value is as a reference work-for as such it has been acknowledged the "best in any language-of any time." By reference work we mean its use as an encyclopedia of information about every country past and present—every race and tribe of ethnic importance that has ever trod this earth from the beginning—in short, every important event, as well as the makers of events.

Application for membership should be made at the office of this newspaper, where a complete set of the books may be examined.

and it'll be long past bedtime before you lay it down—and that's only treating it on the one side—as a work of absorbing interest—as fascinating as a romance! Its unique system of indexing—a marvel of interest in itself—enables one to turn quickly to any subject—or class of subjects—country or class of countries—events or series of events—nation or branch of races—of all times.
