There is on exhibition in the store window of W. J. Reif a large oil painting of Jiving Cliff, the work of Rev. Mr. Leise, of the German Lutheran

Miss Curtis, who is doing evangelisthe work in Honesdale and vicinity,gave a very earnest talk on foreign mission work in the Presbyterian chapel on Sunday evening.

The total expenditures of the Honesdale and Texas township poor district for the year 1897 was $4,507.89. This amount includes $1,719.02 paid for those sent to hospital and insane departments, also $$4.75 for physicians and $14.49 for tobacco,

The Republican county committee have elected J. B. Keene, chairman; N. Dunmore, have returned home after total sales were 400,200 shares. E. Bigelow, secretary, and W. L. Ferguson, treasurer.

The auditors of Wayne county have found a shortage of about five thousand dollars in the account of County Treasurer Boyd. His bondsmen have re-moved him and placed Mr. C. F. Rockwell, of Honesdale, as deputy for the remaining year of Mr. Boyd's term.

The subject of Rev. W. H. Swift's discourse on Sunday evening was the St. Mary's church. Interment "Manuscripts of the Bible," and it was made in St. Mary's cemetery, received by a large and attentive audi-

He was a tramp, as he wandered down Front street. He saw some skates hanging in front of a business place. He reached out and took a pair, threw them over his shoulder, then walked boldly into the store and asked the proprietor of he sold skate straps, He was informed that they did not. He then walked out of the store, with the skates still on his shoulder. The proprietor had his suspicion aroused, and a little later investigated and found that his skates had disappeared with the tramp. Nothing remained for the proprietor but to kick himself.

Much excitement was caused by a runaway horse from up the Dyberry that came dashing down Front street, dragging a cuter behind it. In front of Mr. Mayo's harness store it took to the sidewalk, tearing a post from the store porch. It continued its mad
