softening of the brain. Death occurred at the Hillside Home, where the deceased had occupied a private ward since Jan. 4 last.' He had been ill for nearly a year and last May it was decided to take him to the Baths in Germany. He and his wife made the trip and remained away for five months. He regained his bodily health but the diseased brain was too badly affected. They returned home in October and he grew stendily worse in spite of every effort, and only as an extreme measure was removed from his home to the Hillside Home, where he gradually sank until death released him. He was a strong, healthy man and it was hoped that his constitution would pull him through. The decensed was bern in Schleswig. Holstein, Germany, in 1856. > OBITUARY. The sudden death of Griffith W. Will tams, a well known contractor and build-er of Plymouth, occurred last night rt 10.40 at his home on Center avenue. After eating his supper he was down tow's for a few minutes returning at 9 o'clock. At 10.15 he retired and a few minutes later his wife hearing a strange noise in his room went there and found him unonscieus. His cousin, William R. Willams, a near neighbor, was called in and he immediately sent for Dr. Williams. Nothing, however, could be done for his relief and at 10.55 he died. The deceased recovered recently from a severe illness and death was due to heart disease. Ho is survived by a wife and the following children: Sarah Williams, Ellen Will-fams and Arthur Williams, also the following step-children: Lizzie Jones, Thomas Jones and John Jones and one married daughter living in Pittston. The deceased was 57 years old and a well known business man. The funeral will be held Friday at 2 o'clock. Services at the Welsh Presbyterian church. Rev. R. E. Williams officiating. Interment in Shawnee cemetery.
