Baptist Church.

TWO HUNDRED THERE TO ANSWER

The Event Included a Pleasant Social Feature -- Many Gratifying Reports -- Christain Endeavorers Arrange for an Endeavor Day Celebration -- Officers of Juvenile General Notes of Interest.

The members of the Jackson Street Baptist church gathered in the church lecture room last evening to the number of two hundred to answer the annual roll-call. Each one of the several church societies had their reports

In order to add pleasure to business, arrangements were made by the members of the Ladies' Aid society for the serving of light refreshments. The tables were arranged in parallel rows, across the heads of which was placed one long table. The members of the congregation sat at the tables arranged crosswise of the room and the pastor. Rev. James Hughes, and the members of the board of trustees and deacons sat at the single table.

The paster acted as chairman. The hymn, "Blessed be the Tie that Binds," was sung and Edward Howell, licentiate, offered the opening prayer. The roll-call was then made by Richard Nicholls, church clerk. Over two hundred responses were made. The progress and condition of the Sabbath school was given in a well-worded ad-John H. Lewis.

The Ladies' Aid society work was reported by the president, Mrs. Mary Pritchard. Miss Anna Jones told of the work of the Fidelian society and Mrs. George Hutchinson read an interesting report in regard to the Industrial school. Alfred Roberts, chalrman of the board of trustees, told of their activity and Edward Howell reported for fellow-members of the board of deacons. The infant department was commented upon by Superintendent Richard Nicholls and John S. Harris, president, spoke for the choir. Rev. James Hughes, of Jackson street, delivered an address. The reading of the financial report was a very material part of the evening's business and was read by the pastor. It showed a clear gain. The receipts during the past year were $3, 615.17. The expenditures, $3,525.09. The business then came to a close. A neat pamphlet, the handiwork of Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, showing the work done during the year, was distributed to each member.

A LITERARY SENSATION.

Another Fascinating Story by the Author of Quo Vadis.

"Love and a Mask" is the title of a newly discovered gem from the pen of the author of "Quo Vadis," which is undoubtedly the most popular book of the day. "Love and a Mask" has been translated exclusively for The Great Philadelphia "Sunday Press," and will be published in the issue of next Sun-day, January 30. It is a delightful tale of modern studio life in Warsaw, which reminds one of the happiest chapters of "Trilby." The translation preserves the author's style admirably, and no person who pretends to keep up with the literature of the day can afford
