SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1898

Social and PERSONAL

Last night's cotillion at the Country club was chaperoned by Mrs. F. J. Platt and Mrs. B. E. Watson. Mr. Lawrence Fuller led. Among those present were Miss Clark, of Orange; Miss Rogers, Boston: Miss Law, West Pittston; Miss Kemmerer, Mauch Chunk; Miss Barker, Chicago; Mr. Thayer, Buffalo: Mr. McLean, Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Miss Archbald, Miss Grace Wil-liams, Miss Boles, Miss Sprague, Miss liams, Miss Boles, Miss Sprague, Miss Jessup, Miss Augusta Archbald, Miss of Mrs. Sidney Williams, of Jefferson Anderson, Miss McLeod, Miss Winton, Miss Belin, Miss Dale, Messrs, J. M. Boles, L. B. Fuller, G. G. Brooks, Charles Post, F. C. Whitmore, A. Z. Huntington, Joseph Blair, A. G. Hunt, Theodore Fuller, Selden Kingsbury, Neale, J. H. Brooks, John Kemmerer, Frank Fuller, Thorne Merrill, Mrs, E. B. Jermyn will give a thimble tea Monday in honor of Mrs. Beck and Miss Clarke.

The House and Grounds committee will have a dinner tonight at the Country club.

The "Mistletoe Girls" will give a fair from 3 to 6 o'clock Saturday, Feb. 5, at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Boies in aid of the children's ward of the Hahnemann hospital. The admission to the greenhouses where many beautiful orchids are in bloom will be 5 cents. A handsome array of fancy articles will be on sale. The "Mistletoe Girls" issue a general invitation to their friends and the friends of the hospital to be present.

Mrs. T. H. Dale entertained a number of friends at "Zeeman Whist," Thursday afternoon, Among those present were Mrs. Lane, of Honesdale; Mrs. H. C. Sanderson, Mrs. H. C. Wallace, Mrs. S. C. Foulke, Mrs. B. H. Pratt, Mrs. C. L. Griffin, Mrs. Myron Kasson, Miss Dale, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Theo, G. Wolfe, Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. F. A. Allabach, Mrs. Bedford, Mrs. Helmer, Mrs. Charles Schlager, Mrs. J. F. Broadbent, Mrs. Penman. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Dale entertained a small number of guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Lane, of Honesdale; Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archbald, Hon. and Mrs. H. A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Kasson, Mrs. F. H. Jermyn, Mr. M. H. Dale, Miss Dale and others

Mrs. H. W. Kingsbury gave a delightful luncheon on Wednesday, when the table decorations were especially pretty. The guests were Mrs. E. N. Willard, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. A. M. Decker, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. H. M Boies, Mrs. W. T. Smith, Mrs. E. P. Kingsbury, Mrs. James Archbald, Mrs. Rogers Israel, Mrs. L. S. Oakford.

A subscription masquerade dance was given at the Country club house Monday evening. Many original and interesting costumes were worn. Among them were "Yellow Kids," o'dfashioned girls, babies, bowery girls, etc. The patronesses were Mrs. R. M. etc. The patronesses were Mrs. R. M. gramme: Scranton and Mrs. A. H. Storrs. At Hymu Tune–Alle ye Singers. 10 o'clock the dancers unmasked. Supper was served an hour later. Among those present were Mrs. Powell, the Misses Stanton, of Honesdale; Miss those present were Mrs. Powell, the Mussa and Majesty -Alle ye Singers, Misses Stanton, of Honesdale: Miss Clarke, of Orange; Miss Voorhes, of Auburn, N. Y.; Mr. Hager, of Orange.
Mrs. C. H. Welles, who was a patron Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mr

ing. Mrs. A. M. Reynolds, of Binghamton, is in the city, the guests of his sons. Stephen and John Addyman, of Green "Among the many educational institutions of Washington," writes the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record, Mr. Curtis, "is a normal ollege for the education of Sunday Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ives will spend the school teachers, which recently comwinter in California with Mrs. Bloom, Miss Jemima Ives and Mr. and Mrs. menced its ninth year with an enrollment of 10,186 students, who are dis-tributed in all parts of the United James Swan. Miss Reeves and Miss Audenried, cf.

States. In the same connection there is a school for the instruction of Bible avenue, have returned home. readers which has 1,491 pupils. Both of these institutions are under the care

MUSICAL NOTES.

Mr. A. J. Harber, the well known bass soloist, has accepted the position as basso in the First Presbyterian church, his services to begin on Sunday next. Mr. Harber is well known in musical circles in Scranton and vicinity, having been soloist for the Dunmore Presbyterian church for the past year.

may be easily undertaken by busy A pleasing event of the week was a people. The two features made most A preasing event of the week was a concert given at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association on Tues-day evening under direction of George Carr, the celebrated banjoist. The pro-gramme was rendered as follows: Fiano Duet., Mrs. Carr and Miss Decker Viens etc. Whether the theory of the theory prominent are a definite amount of general information concerning the Bible and Biblical history and practical exercises on the regular weekly Sunday school lesson, which are designed

Violin Solo, Fantasie "Martha", Leonard Mr. Vanderveken. Zither Club, "Am Schoen Blauen See," WaltzMr. Haberstroh, Leader Vocal DuetMisses Rose Carr's Banjo Club, Overture...Armstrong

Violin Solu-folin Solo (a) BalladF. Vanderveken (b) Chaneon Polonoies.....Wieniauski Mr. Vanderveken.
Five Minutes Intermission.

Zither Club, "March," Guesse Von Beyreuth Banjo Solo-

(a) Gallop, FallstaffJennings (b) March, BurdetteRoberts Mr. Carr.

Violin

iolin Solo-(a) Last Sleep of a Saint,...Massenet The many ladies of the Second Presbyterian church, under the able man-agement of Mrs. C. W. Kirkpatrick, gave a turkey supper last night, when an elaborate menu was served. Mrs. E. N. Willard was in charge of the Carr's Banjo Club, Quickstep, "Dandy Fifth. tables. Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Price The programme was well rendered and indicated the ability of Professor and Mrs. Carr as teachers. and Mrs. Coursen were on the reception committee. Among those on the supper committee were: Mrs. J. Alex-The partronage of the old folks' concert on Monday evening promises to be what the association deserves and the talent ander, Mrs. F. H. Conneil, Mrs. Snover, Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Bryden, Mrs. merits. The programme contains the names of old favorites and new singers. Shopland, Mrs. Holgate, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Partridge, Mrs. Osthaus, Mrs. with some of the old songs and also new features. Variety is given by the altera-tion of solos, duetts and quartettes with Sharp, Mrs. Tewksbury, Mrs. Balley, Mrs. Hann, Mrs. Runyon, Mrs. Blanchthe choroses and the addition of violin ard, Mrs. Hollister, Mrs. Gearhart, the choreces and the addition of violin solos by Miss Julia Allen. The selections by the Schubert guartette, with Mr. Watkins, will be nauch enjoyed; Mrs. O'Brien and Miss Timberman will of course please all with their ducts, and Mrs. Sharps, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Mar-vine, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. Mercereau, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. William Matthews, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Gracourse please all with their duets, and the song of Miss Freeman, who is not heard here as often as her many friends would like, will be appreciated. Mr. Beynon, Mr. Morgan, Mrs. Brundage and Mrs. Brewster add their excellent voices with others. All will be prepared for any supprised provides the free our court ham, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs. Stelle, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Bone, Mrs. Haslam, Mrs. Blackall, Mrs. Bloomer, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Stratton. Mrs. Beard, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Deck-surprises, especially from our genial friend of the board of trade. The young men acting as ushers will add attractiveer, Mrs. Wilcox. ness to the scene by their costumes. Pro-Rev. George R. Hair, who was well known in this section and particularly in this city and Kingston, died at his home in West Mankato, Minnesota, Worldlie Piece-Ye Merne, Yclept, Schubert Quartette "Russa" and "Majesty"-Alle ye Singers, last Sunday morning. He was a widely known minister and at one time presiding elder of the Wyoming conference. He lived for some time in Kingston and filled a charge in that town.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

Day, tomorrow evening, At 6.30 o'clock a special service and exercises will be conducted by the society in the church. "Something Worth Seeing" is the subject of Rev. J. P. Monat's address to men, at the men's service in the Young Men's Christian association, 222 Weening a r.30 o'clock. Band of Hope, choir and cantata rehearsal at 7.30 o'clock Tues-day evening. Prayer meeting Weones-day evening at 7.30 o'clock. Washburn Street Presbyterian Church-Rev. John P. Monat', John P. Monat, Services at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Bible school at 12 m. The Christian Endeavor societies will omit their usual afterneon services Wyoming avenue, Sunday, at 545 p. m. Vocal and orchestral music, directed by Mr. J. M. Chance, will contribute to Mr. J. M. Chance, will contribute to the attractiveness and helpfulness of this service. We extend a cordial invitation to men in the city to be presnt. especially to strangers, Rooms open at 2.59 p. m.

The Lutheran Pastoral association, of the city met on Monday at the home of Rev. Randolph, pastor of St. Peter's church. Rev. Ramer, of St. Mark's church, read an introductory paper church, read an introductory paper on the study of Catechetics. This was the first of a series of papers on this important subject. Rev. Ettwein and Rev Fischer, of Pittston, were present in addition to the city pastors. Miss Randolph entertained the clergy at dinner.

The Volunteers of America will have services in their armory, at 513 Lacka-wanna avenue, Sunday, at 3,45 and 8 m., conducted by Captain Hoppest. The regular Sunday afternoon devoional meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be held at their rooms at 3.45. Miss 2. C. Krigbaum will lead the devotional meeting. The musical programme will be in charge of Miss Eva Wheeler, presiding at the piano, assisted by Miss Picheli, soloist, 'The meetings are growing more and more in interest. making the hour one of deep Spiritual enjoyment. All women are welcome, from the study of sociology and relig-Elm Park church-Prayer and prais ervice at 9.39; preaching at 10.39 a. m. ad 7.39 p. m. by Rev. Dr. John Bradlous experience. There are twelve textbooks specially prepared and apshaw, of Pittston, Pa. Sunday school at 2 and Epworth league at 6.20 p. m. Simpson Methodist Episcopal Churchproved by a committee representing even denominations, which renders them unobjectionable to all branches Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor-Morning prayer meeting at 9.30. Preaching service at 10.39. Sunday school at 12. Junior league ? the evangelical church. The Rev. J. E. Gilbert, D. D., secretary of the at 3. Epworth league at 6. Preaching service at 7. The pastor will preach morning and evening. The services will at 2. Society of Religious Education, is the dean of the school, and inquiries can be evangelistic in line with the revival servives which have been held during the past week. Services each evening of the week excepting Saturday. A cordial welcome to all, Providence Methodist Episcopal church

Tomorrow's Services. Methodist.

-Rev. William Edgar, pastor, Services in usual order, Rev. A. J. Van Clett, secretary of Preachers' Aid society, and former pastor of this church, will preach at 10.30 a. m. In the evening the pastor will preach. Sunday school at 2 p. m.; Epworth league at 6.15 p. m. Seats free.

All are welcome, Court Street Methodist Episcopai Church-Rev, George T. Price, pastor, Preaching at 19.39 a. m. and 7.39 p. m. Morning subject, "The Gospel the Chart of Liberty," Evening subject, "Of What God's Image in Man Consist," Epworth Hampton Street Math Consist. Epworth eague prayer meeting at 6.30 p. m. Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal hurch—F. P. Doty, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The revival services will be continued at the Sunday evening service for everal evenings during the week. Howard Place African Methodist Epis copal Church-Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., pastor. 10.50 a. m., subject, "The Temple of the Holy Ghest;" 12.10 Sunday school; 7.40 p. m., subject, "Handwriting," Re-vial services after sermon. All are in-vited to attend any of these services. Mathematic Education Church Church Methodist Episcopal church, Clark's summit--Rev. Frank W. Young, pastor Sunday school, 10 a. m.; class meeting, 12 m.; Epworth league, 6.6 p. m., led oy William Atherton. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Morping subject, "A New Heart Given:" evening subject, "Insceure Footing.

Baptist.

g World."

Penn Avenue Baptist Church-Dr. Dixon will preach Sunday morning 19.39, "A Sleeping Church Aroused by a Wak-evening church service. This service will be an exceedingly interesting one, as each of the three societies will be present in distinct bodies and as such participate in the service. An address will be given by Mr. A. V. Bower. Remarks will be made by the presidents of the three so-cleties. The pastor of the church will be present temorrow and have charge of the installation and consecration services. The quartetle choir The pastor will preach in the morning

Green Ridge Presbyterian Church-Morning service at 10.30, evening service at 7.30. Sermons by Rev. Isaac J. Lans-ing. In the evening will be preached the concluding sermon of the series to young men and the theme will be "Counsels as to Church Life." Bible school at 12 o'clock. Meeting of the Endeavor society at 6.30. This will be a service special to the seventcenth anniversary of the En-deavor movement, and a special invitadeavor movement, and a special invita-tion is given the public to be present. Providence Presbyterian Church-Fastor, Rev. Geo, E. Guiid. Morning theme, "He Tarried with the Disciples." Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Junior Endeavor at 5 o'clock. Senior Endeavor at 6.5 o'clock. Evening preaching service at 7.30 o'clock. Rev. John Klusac's service with sermon at 9.39 a. m. in Sunday school room.

Lutheran.

Evangelical Lutheran-Fourth Sunday after Epiphany, Gospel, Matt. vill, 23-37; Epistle, Rom. xii, 8-10; pulpit colors, white. Holy Trinity, Adams avenue and Mulberry street-Rev. C. G. Spicker, pastor, Services 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school 12. Luther league 6.30 p. m. school 12. Luther league 6.0 p. m. St. Mark's Lutheran Church-Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., pastor, Services 10.30 a. m., and 7 p. m. Luther league 8 p. m. Sunday school 12 roon. Morning subject, "Jesus with His Disciples on Life's Voy-age. Evening subject, "The Convoca-tion of the Nations Before God." Zizelman, nastor. Services 10.30 a. m. Zizelmann, nastor. Services 10.30 a. m. Sunday school 2 p. m. St. Peter's Lutheran Church-Rev. J.

St. Peter's Lutheran Church-Rev. J. W. Randolph, pastor, Services 19.30 a, m. and 7.39 p. m. Supday school 1.39 p. m. Christ Lutheran Church-Rev. H. Lisso pastor. Services 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school 2 p. m. St. Paul's Lutheran Church-Rev. W. C.

L. Lauer, pastor. Services 10.35 a, m. and 7 p. m. Sunday school 2.39 p. m. Graco Evangelical Lutheran church.

corner Madison avenue and Mulberry street-Rev. Foster U. Gift, pastor, Services' at 10.30 s. m. and at 7.30 p. m. Morning theme, "Paul's Definition of Life;" evening theme. "The Soul's Refuge."

Universalist.

ombined People's party, Democratic All Souls' Universalist Church-Rev. F W. Whippen, pastor. Morning sermon to and Citizens' Reform party. He was the young people, who are especially agala nominated by acclamation by the urged to be present. Evening subject. "Heaven." Democrats to succeed himself as mayor elected by a rousing majority last month.

Lynn

ing his opinions. He has never hesi-tated to declare his convictions in pub-and tobacco shops, boot black and other establishments advertising that they are not closed Sunday or any other people can testify. It is said there were almost no arrests this week by the police but it doesn't alter the fact that few officers stationed around in the city. Whether or not the weary individuals who are so ill starred as to be run in at night are released from the police station in the morning with the understanding that they are to forage on the community for their meals, it is certain that a squad of them will be seen to scatter and appear at residen-

It isn't a pleasant task to turn a hungry man from one's door unfed. The average woman may have excellent ideas on the subject and may thoroughly disapprove of feeding a tramp but she is rather prone to see to it that he gets a warm breakfast, However the unprecedented visitation of these nuisances lately has been the ause of hardening her heart. The boldness of their demands, their impudence and evident thievish tendencies have alarmed her and she is now ready to unite with the cook in refusing their requests for it is seldom indeed that the tramp with coldness and aversion and with an ill concealed desire to greet him with a thwack of the broom-

. . .

One of the features in the landscape burg is an immense placard the size of a door, announcing "Look out. Cross Dog." It isn't at all likely that there s any dog on the premises but that sign bears a very ominous look and doubtless has frowned away many a tramp. The scheme is recommended to Scrantonians. A big placard set in the desolation of winter about their among their favorite greens that hide verandas might be effective. The only other bug-a-boo likely to appeal the name of Mrs. Duggan, Utter that to your unwelcome visitor and he will

. . .

One housewife who could never here tofore listen unmoved to the tale of wee from the tramp has grown so indifferent lately, because of its frequent repetition, that she allows short audience. The other morning she chased off with contumely and reproaches a man with a smudgy face who insisted, on speaking with her at the door. After a time her husband telephoned to inquire what she meant by driving away the plumber that he had sent to repair the hot water boiler, whose contents was flooding the kitchen. After the manner of plumbers, he had appeared without any visible evidences of his alling besides the aforesaid smudge expecting to make another little trin back to the shop for tools, and she was o determined that he must be a tramp that she had listened to no explanations. The plumber, much mystified.

had gone down and complained bitter-

. . .

Books have been written about

Magazine articles, with ex-matter was thus adjusted.

no gambling dens openly running on vagaries and habits. Great men have outang, 7 years old, $1,59.

to the imagination of a tramp quickly disappear.

fronting a country house near Harris-kitchen divinity does not regard ces nearly every morning.

Evangelical.

United Evangelical Church-Capous Trated Evangelical Church-Capouse avenue, Rev. C. D. Moore, paster, Sab-bath school, 3.45 a. m. Preaching, 10.45 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Bible reading and class meeting, 3 p. m. Reystone league Christian Endeavor, 6.30 p. m. Junior Christian Endeavor Monday evening at 7 O'clock Destinal sources will be como'clock. Revival services will be con-tinued during the week. You are cor-dially invited to attend and enjoy these services.

Miscellancous. Grace Reformed Episcopal Church-

Wyoming avenue, below Mulberry street, Prayer and praise service, 3.30 n. m.; di-vine worship, 10.39 n. m. and 7.30 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at both services. Sabonth school at ½ m.; Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, 6.30 p. m. Paine's celery compound. South tree at all services. Strangers al-ways welcome. Thursday evening at 7.5 Dying

Woman's

The tramp question is agitating the mind of the average housewife these days. She is cautious about opening the front door and warns the cook not to allow any one to step inside the kitchen without a certificate of character in the shape of parcels from the grocery, meat market or laundry. She regards all persons with suspicion who pass in at the side gate and has taken ner beneath a nicely folded cheesecloth duster, while another useful article of the same species reposed on that the pantry window has not only been unfastened, but wide open for some time and she realizes that any enterprising tramp could get into the cellar without difficulty and from there not a little satisfaction in the thought window. Then she goes down town to meeting to consider the possibility of ridding herself of one superfluous

Of course Dr. Crafts is away off in his estimate. This isn't a naughty city, tramps.

door.

be-

art book, and forgets to latch the hall by to the head of the house, and the

There are no saloons open on Sunday, pensive illustrations, have told of their

Views

the stick.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1898.

THE MAYOR OF LYNN.

Paine's Celery Compound Never Fails to Invigorate Him When Worn Out.

Wells & Richardson Co., Burlington,

Gentlemen:-A previous experience Two years ago he was elected by the with Paine's celery compound, as a restorer of exhausted energy, induced me recently to take it again, the many duties of the mayor's office having taxed my slight physical resources of the busy modern city, and was again greatly. I made no mistake. In one elected by a rousing majority last week. I found my appetite improved, the feeling of weariness disappearing, Mayor Ramsdell's present high position is the legitimate reward of his > say a word for a friend. Truly yours. WALTER L. RAMSDELL.

Nov. 5, 1897.

lic, nor has he been slow to espouse the cause of the shoemakers and other wage earners. In 1894 he was candi-In every city, in business houses, banks, newspaper offices-wherever the friction of worry is wearing out the date of the People's party for Congress. A hard worker, a conscientious official. Mayor Kamsdell has more than once nerves and reducing the nutrition of the body, Paine's celery compound is proving its inestimable value. It inbeen pushed to the limit of his strength. At such times of extreme nervous tension and every ork, he has saved himvariably insures sound sleep, and thus self from breaking down by taking gives the overstrung nerves their natural rest: it corrects a constipated habit Mayor Ramsdell's honest opinion of that so commonly goes with sedentary this great remedy cannot be mistaken occupation, and frees the blood of poisby any one who reads his letter that onous humors, that at some time or ther develop into grav dist plan which would benefit them and at the same time relieve the country of their presence. Good women have reof having to account to unreasonable husbands for the sudden loss of new piles have been prepared for them and with reference to the tramp, I don't recollect ever having heard or read an explanation as to why there are no old tramps. They are all young, generally under thirty; seldom more than forty.

No one ever sees an old-man tramp decrepit hand-organ and a tin cup. If the tramp could make up as an old man it would be a great card, particularly if he could have long silvered locks, look benign and possess a little cough. Everybody would take him in the Litchen and coddle him. He would get milk toast and coffee, with lots of cream. He would be sympathized over and sent on with a reinforcement of warm flannels and a bottle of patent

They are all disgustingly young and healthy with red noses. What becomes of them when old? Do they marry rich single women who have been interested in their sad fate, and then reform, settle down and live dull and respectable lives? Do they get into the old men's ward of the poor-houses and thus lose themselves to the world, or are they cut off in their prime before ago comes on, by means of making a slight miscalculation as to which track the next train will take; or do they all lie down-poor wretches-to sleep in the bitter winter chill by the cheerful grate fire set in the side of a sullen mountain of culm, and in the still watches, wrapped in an invisible winding sheet of sulphur, waken never again

Ah, well, keen your hall doors carefully becked these days is the advice of

SAUCY BESS.

PRICES OF WILD ANIMALS.

The annual confidential distartion of prices from the greatest andmal mart, Hamburg, gives the following, not: Female Indian elephant, six test high, trained to do tricks, $1,000; female ele-bers, the fast de bedras high on tricks.

trained to do tricks, $1,000; female ele-phant, five feet aix incluse binh, no tricks, $1,300; young, frish imported male ele-phants, four to five feet high, from Bur-mah, $1,000; females, $1,100; zobrus, 5 years old, per pair, $2,000 and both broke to drive in single or double harness; eight months' old zobra, male, $550, and tends, three months' old Zobra Nukin female, three months' old, 32.50; Nubi in wild ass, 6 years old, 5200; wild nones from the Russian steppes, per pair, 5900; double humped camels, per pair, 3500; llamas 4 years old, per pair, 3550; axis deer from India, per pair, 5200; Sika deer from Japan, per pair, 8150; waterbuck autolopes, 2 years old (country not given), per pair, $750; Bengal figers, male 6 years old, female 1 years old, per pair, $1,79; Bengal tigers, female, 3 years old, each $759; Nubian flore, 6 years old, per pair.

81.500; Nubian Rous, 22; years old, per-pair, $1.000, and 1% years old, acch 3225; numas, 3 years old, per golr, $300; Indua leopards, male, $175 cach; striped hypens, each $75; Russian wolves, each, $100; came olds; bears, not note, $100; and areas olds; bears, not note; $100; and areas olds; bears, not note; $100; and areas olds; bears, not note; $100; and areas olds; bears, note; and areas of a striper of the striper of t young polar bears, ber natr. $159; polar bears, 18 months old, $659, and fully grown, $1,090 per pair; young Russian sears, $150; African and Indian porcu-pair; male ourang pines, each, $i0; male kangaros beaver rats, $30 per pair; male

The annual confidential quotation of to cold or hunger, or futures or past?

But there aren't any old tramos.

cough medicine.

unless an umbrella mender the "soldier of 1812" with overcoats and mackintoshes.

Wood

that day, no clothing, junk stores, clgar grown gray in trying to think out a day, but there are tramps, as the Hill formed them with the ultimate result residence districts could make arrests still remain undiminished in the back in the day time with advantage to the |yard, but in all this literature and labor

Mayor Ramsdell is again mayor and my nerves becoming steadier. Paine's celery compound has thus been a friend in time of need, and I like to ability and his fearlessness in defend-

Monday, is expected home today. She Child of Mortality-Ye Menne and Women was chaperone of Miss Welles, Miss Belin and Miss Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hallstead have Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hallstead have issued invitations for a reception and dance to be given at the Bicycle club house on Thursday evening. David's Lamentation-All ye Companie.

Colonel and Mrs. H. M. Boies will return home this evening from New York, after attending the banquet of the National Manufacturers' association at the Waldorf-Astoria, on Thursday evening.

Miss Marguerite Barker pleasantly entertained a few of her little friends at a thimble tea Friday afternoon. Those present were Misses Mary Hallstead, Mildred Marple, Florence Smith, Margaret Connell, Margaret Mattes. Elizabeth Jermyn, Elizabeth Storrs, Marion Taylor and Mary McClave.

H. P. Simpson has charge of the boxes and loges for the Home of the Friendless concert on Feb. 10. A num ber of them have already been disposed of.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Pratt entertained a party of friends last evening.

Mrs. N. Y. Leet entertained at cards Thursday afternoon. A large number of ladies were present.

Movements of People.

Mrs. G. du B. Dimmick is in Honesdale Miss Phelps has returned from a visit in Morristown.

Miss Barker, of Chicago, is the guest of Miss Anderson. Mr. Thayer, of Buffalo, is the guest of Mr. Herry Belln, jr. C. L. Griffin and family spent Tuesday night in Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Gearhart will spend the next fort night in New York city. C. R. Fuller and R. B. Penman have returned from Hermuda

Miss Rogers, of Boston, is visiting at the home of W. G. Parke.

Miss Thorpe, of Honesdale, was a vis or in the city yesterday. Miss C. E. Fester, of Honesdale, is vis Iting friends in Scranton. Hon. S. S. Jones, of Carbondale, was a Scranton visitor yesterday. Miss Sherer will go to New York on fonday to stay for a week. Mrs. F. H. Connell will go to New York today for a fortnight's visit. Mrs. Thomas Dickson will spend most of next week in Honesdale Mr. Ray Resenctants, of Wilkes-Earre is spending Sunday in the city, Miss Law, of West Pittston, is visit ng her aunt, Mrs. D. E. Taylor. District Passenger Agent W. L. Pryot was in Mauch Chunk Wednesday M. H. Holgate and mother, Mrs

Sarah Edwards, are in Atlantic City

The Misses Sterling, of Orange will be he guests of Miss Archbald this week. Miss Edith Pierson will return next week from an extended stay in Newark and Mrs. W. H. Sterrs and Alice Matthews have returned from New York

Mrs. E. H. Davis has returned from Unadilla, N. Y., after a visit of several weaks.

Miss Gertrude Kemmerer, of Mauch Chunk, is visiting her brother. Mr John Kemmerer Mrs. H. C. Sanderson was called to Eric last night by the death of her father. Mr Constable.

Very Rev. John Finnen, V. G., of Pittston, was a visitor at the Epscopal residence yesterday Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Finley, Joseph J.

Jermyn, James Shepherd, Mr. Winters, of Peckville, and Messers. Robertson and Worldlie Song-Jehosophut Watkins Very Worldie Story-Experience Timberman. Another Worldlie Piece-Nebuchad.

"Auld Lang Syne" and "Blessing. All ye Whole Compan Who Now Say Goode Nighte.

HOWH SHOT.

A Texas military company were out or range recently practicing at rifle-oting. The lieutenant in command suddenly became exasperated at the poor shooting, and, seizing a gen from one the privates, cried angrily-"I'll show you fellows how to shoot?" Taking a long aim, and a strong aim, and an aim altogether, he fired and missed. Coolly turning to the private who owned the gun, he said-That's the way you shoot." He again loaded the weapon and Turning to the second man in the ranks he remarked: "That's the way you shoot." In the way he contribed to miss about fifty or sixty times, illustrating to each soldier his personal incapacity, and fin-ally he accidentally hit the target.

"And that,' he ejaculated, handing the gun back to the private, "is the way

TO A SPARROW. Hail! English sparrow, venturesome yet shrinking. I know thou wilt not trust thyseif too near; But, poising on one foot and softly bling ng. Thou scann'st my store of crumbs as if in fear. Now with thy kindred's chirping congre gation Like leaves before the north wind's aud den gust.

Thou risest up as if from earth's pulsa tion. Thou tiny speek of animated dust!

hear thy twittering voice, but canno find thee

So very dusky is thy sober dress, Thou hypocritic Quaker, No tics bind thee To treat thy feathered tribe with kindl ness.

See how, like crushed and vanquished Carthaginians. All birds are forced some other clime to seek! Never did Turk pursue oppressed Armenians With sword more cruel than thy sharp ened beak.

And now, thy vengeful soul appeased by slaughter,

Thou by some streamiet tak'st thy pious stand;

Or, like true Mussulman, in dearth of water

Performest rapt ablutions in the sand

Now on a llly-pad which, gently swaving Dips to the water's edge thy downy weight.

see thee in cestatic uttor playing And showering diamond dew-drops o' thy mate.

No human law debars thy visitation

To granite cornice or to columned brass Thou mak'st the rugged Treasury of a natior Gay with a crown of nestling twigs and STRSE.

And so thou art ubiquitous of motion; But all thy sinful antics we forgive Type of our loving cousins 'cross the ocean. In spite of angry threats we lef the live!

-Joanna R. Nicholls in Leslie's Weekly,

Mr. Hair was ill only two weeks and his douth was a great shook many, his intimate friends had been but watching for the end for several days. The funeral was held last Tuesday, with services in the Mankato Methodist church. Mr. Hair was born at New Castle on Type, England, Dec. 6. 1815, and in 1851 was married to Miss Davison. They came to America in 1854, locating in this state and Mr. Hair joined the Wyoming conference. They moved to Northfield, Minn., in

in the last of the American society of Religious Education, and their object is to improve the efficiency of Sunday school teachers by giving those who have assumed or may assume such responcollege offers a two years' course, the work of which is divided into weekly sections, forty weeks to the year, and to give skill and efficiency in methods of study and teaching. The work of the college is based upon the fundamental principles of education derived be addressed to him."

The

sibilities a special preparation.

1589. Mr. Hair was a member of the Christian ministry for forty-two years. He served fourteen years as presiding older, his last service in this capacity being in the Mankato district six years.

The twenty-sixth anniversary of the Wilkes-Barre Young Men's Christian association will be observed with appropriate exercises tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 in the new St. Stephen's Episopal church. H. A. Fuller, the president of the association, will present his annual report. Hon. George D. M. Creary, ex-city treasurer of Philadelphia, will discuss the asso-'ation movement from the standpoir of a business man, and Thomas H. Atherton will deliver an address on the origin and providential development of the association movement. . . .

The members of the Junior Endeavor society of the Grace Lutheran church and friends were entertained at the home of Miss Anna Conrad, 335 Kressler court, Thursday evening. Present

> Mr. and Mrs. George Conrad. were: Mrs. M. Whittaker, Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Shimer, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Hineline, "illiams, Mr. J. E. Thayer, Mr. Fred Rev. Mr. Gift. Miss Mamie Hines, Miss Lottie Young, Mrs. H. Conrad. Hattie Kline, Florence Yost, Edith Kaufold, Agnes Lorimer, May Hinskler, Ida

Getz, Jane Kusle, Gerald Walters. Pearl Linker, Lizzie Sunday, Jane Lawrence, Carrie Drew, Lizzie Williams, Eva Shimer, Anna Conrad, Minnie Thayer, Florence Luther, Arthur Thayer, Charles Linker, Charles Haas, John Nyman, Royal Linker, Harry Mead, Willie Moser, Walter Luther,

Walter Lawrence, . . . By request, the Christmas cantata, The Coming of the King." by Dudley Buck, will be repeated at the Sanday evening service at the Second Presbyterian church. The music will be under the direction of J. M. Chance, organist.

Religious News Notes. There will be preaching by the Free Methodists at 425 South Main street, Hyde Park, this Sabbath at 7.30 p. m.

81.

All are invited. Mr. and Mrs. Seuft, of Philadelphia, will be at the all-day meeting Tuesday, Feb. 1, at Gospel Tabernacle, near Forest Hill cemetery. 'The Mission band of St. Mark's Lutheran church will meet this afternoon at 2.39. The Sunday school will return the covenant boxes for Foreign missions at tomorrow's service.

Rev. Dr. McLeod's series of sermons on "The Beautitudes" are attracting much attention. The one of last Sabbath, "Blessed are They That Mourn." was notably brilliant. The subject for tomorrow will be "Blessed are the Meek.'

The Christian Endeavor society of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church will observe the seventeenth annivers-by pastor. Topic, "Divine Government ary of the organization, Endeavor the Joy of People." Senior Christian En-clock. Union Bible class for lessed Fool." No. 5 in series on the "Fools of tudy. Bring your Bibles. First Church of Christ (Scientist), 519 the Bible Baptism at the evening set vice, Sunday school at 2 p. m. Amerman Memorial mission at 3. 30 p. m. Christian Adams avenue. Sunday service, 10.30 a. m. Testimonial meeting Friday evening at s o'clock. All welcome, Seats free. indeavor at 6.30. The strangers' Sab People's Prohibition church-Rev. Dr. lird, pastor, There will be regular bath hom-Jackson Street Haptist church-Moraig prayer meeting at 9.39, leader, Brother preaching services on Sabbath at D. C. Thomas, Preaching at 9.25, ander, Brother D. C. Thomas, Preaching at 9.25 by Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, Topic, "Popular Drifts," Sunday school at 2 p. m.; even-ing service at 7, prake and aong service, New books have been purchased for this Adams avenue. A special sermon at 10.30 a. m. followed with the communion. Sunday school at 12 m. Evening subject. 'Ranquet Shame and College Infamy, Everybody welcome. Calvary Reformed Church-Roy, G. W. Everybody meeting. A short address will be deliv ered. Topic, "Before and After," At Weish, pastor, 10,30 a, m., morning ser-vice, Subject, "Saul the Persecutor," 11.45, Sunday school; 6.45, Christian En-deavor, lender, C. E. Weidaw; 7.36, even-deavor, lender, C. Statistical ("Zation"), "Saut be administered. You are always wel-Green Ridge Baptist church-Rey, W. J.

ng service. Sublect, "Zwingle." Ford, pastor. Services at 19.39 a. m. and 7.59 p. m. Subject in the morning. "Why All welcome. Seventh Day Adventists-There will be Seventh Div Adventises-There will be peaching service in the Finn chapel, cor-ner of Penn avenue and Marion street, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject, "Surety of God's Promisea," Everybody Support Foreign Missions," in the even-"How a Saint Prays.

First Baptist church, Scranton street-Rev. S. F. Mathews, paster. Prayer meeting 19 a. m., leader, Deacon W. C. welcome. tavis. In the morning the usual ser tee, preaching by the pastor. In the vening, Bible reading, with an evangel-stic service. Sunday school, 2 p. m., Dr. One Beddoe, superintendent; Young People's rayer meeting, 6 p. m. Industrial school 36 p. m. Saturday, Miss Annie Morgan leader. All are cordially invited to these services. First Welsh Baptist church, Providence

-Rev. W. F. Davles, pastor, Preaching Sunday morning at 10 a. m. in English by Rev. James R. Hoghes, of South Africa. In the evening in Welsh, by the pastor. After the evening sermon ser-vice several deacons will be publicly ordained, after which the Lord's supper will be administered, and twelve members will be received into the fellowship of the church. Bible school at 2 p. m. The young people's societies will meet Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Episcopal.

St. Luke's Parish-Rev. Rogers Israel

rector; Rev. E. J. Haughton, curate Fourth Sunday after Epiphany to hiding her pin money in a new spot The last time she found a perfectly St. Luke's Church-Holy communion lovely and safe place of concealment. 7.30 a. m.; Sunday school, 9.15 a. m.; pray-er and sermon, 19.39 a. m.; evening prayit was the bag commonly employed as a receptacle for the dust cloths and she er and sermon, 7.30 p. m. put her savings well down in one cor-

St. Mark's, Dunmore-Holy commun-ion, 7.50 a. m.; prayer and sermon, 10.50 a. m.; Sunday school 3 p. m.; evening srayer and sermon, 7.30 p. m. St. George's, Olyphant-In Edwards top. The next day it occurred to her hall, Sunday school, 2.30 p. m.; evening handmaiden to wash that duster bag, arayer and sermon, 3.30 p. m. which she proceeded to do to the in-South Side mission, Fig street-Sunday finite detriment of the bills stowed chool, 2.30 p. m.; evening prayer and ermon, 3.39 p. m. away in the corner. There was enough East End mission, Prescott avenueleft of them to be redeemable, but a lay school 2.30 p. m. David's Episcopal Church-Corner new place of deposit has been secured where even the most keen scented of Jackson street and Bromley avenue tramp will be unable to detect their Rev. E. J. McHenry, rector, Morning service at 10.30 o'clock. Sabbath school The housewife is also more careful at 2 p. m. Evening service at 6.50 o'clock just now about locking the doors and

Preaching by pastor. Regular weekly fastening down all the windows. To be services. sure she usually discovers the next day

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian Church - Service 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Dr. McLeod will preach. He will continue his discourses preach. He will continue his discourses on the Beatitudes. Subject, "Blessed Are the Meek; for They Shall Inherit the to the upper regions, but still she takes Earth. Earth." Second Presbyterian Church – Rev. Charles E. Robinson, D. D. pastor. Ser-vices at 19.39 a. m. and 7.39 ρ . m. The pastor will preach in the morning on that extra precautions are being used. as she slips another button ho tween the two sashes in the third story side chamber, and jabs her husband's Thirst for God," and in the evening pet penknife, which he has inadvertentthe beautiful cantata by Dudley Buck. The Coming of the King." which was ly left on the chiffonier, over the attic ing on Christmas Sunday evening, will be repeated at the request of many. All are invited. Sumner Avenue Presbyterian Church-Corner of Sumner avenue and Price street. Rev. L. R. Foster, M. A., pastor. Morning prayer and praise service at 10.30 o'clock. Sabbath school at 2 p. m.

Evening service at 6 o'clock. Preaching