OSCAR WONNACOTT DIES.

Passed Away Very Suddenly Last Evening at His Home.

Oscar Wonnacott, one of Carbondale's brightest and most promising young business men, died very sud-denly last night at 5 o'clock at his home on Wayne street. He had been ill only a day and the sad news will be a great shock to his numerous friends

Mr. Wonnacott was born in Waymar nearly twenty-five years ago. For several years past this city has been his Some months ago he became home associated with his brothers in the Ploreer laundry business, of which he was part owner. He had not enjoyed the best of health, but always attended energetically to his duties and no one suspected he was near death's door. The family intends having a post mortem examination made as the cause of death has not been definitely determined by the physicians. The fatal attack was the third violent illness the young man has had. The trouble was in his head and, it is suspected a blood clot was the cause

STILLMAN HADCOCK BURIED.

Funeral at the Presbyterian Church Was Largely Attended.

The final rites over the remains of the late Stillman Hadcock, the poputar Ontario and Western engineer, of Hancock, were conducted at the First Presbyterian church of this city yesterday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, Rev. Charles Lee officiating. The edifice was filled and among the assemblage were a delegation of engineers from Hancock and the Hancock Masons in full regalia.

The pastor preached an impressive sermon in which he called attention to the fact that Mr. Hadcock had recentembraced the Christian religion. Music was furnished by a male quartette composed of Professors A. P. Thomas and W. D. Evans and Messis, Russell Shepherd and Dwight Crane, The remains of the unfortunate man. who fell a victim to disease in the prime of life, were viewed by many friends. They were hardly recognizable, however, the final struggle having reduced him in weight from 225 pounds to 105, a mere shadow of his former self.

DOG CHEWED A HORSE.

While Dr. J. J. Thompson was driving down Sixth avenue yesterday afternoon his "pet" bull dog became angry at his gray horse and commenced chewing the equine brute's fore leg. Finally it imbedded its teeth in the horse's fleshy breast and refused to let go until the physician left his cutter and frightened him off. The horse came nearly rearing over.
