Able counsel have been employed on both sides. District Attorney Martin will be assisted in the prosecution by John M. Garman, chairman of the Democratic state committee, and John McGahren. THE PROBABLE VERDICT. The verdict will depend on points of aw more than upon the testimony. The lawyers for the prosecution will quote decisions from the higher courts to show that such a body of men had a right to move on the public highway while engaged in a peaceful mission. On the other hand, counsel for the defense will charge that the strikers were riotous, that they were armed, and that their intention was to destroy property. They will call witnesses to show that the people living in the strike district were fearful for their lives and that some of them moved away for safety. It will also be shown that the sheriff had come in conflict with the strikers at Hazleton on the morning of Sept. 0, and that he then and there warne them by reading the riot act that they were violating the law and that they should disperse and go to their homes. instead of accepting this advice, they jeered the officers of the law and proeeded on their march to Lattimer.

Prominent Citizen of Hawley Passes Away ... Was at One Time Sheriff of Wayne County, and Was a Prenounced Patriot During War Time. Special to the Scrawton Pribune.

Hawley, Pa., Jan. 30.-Loseph Atkinnged 63 years, one of the most prominent men of this place, died at 5.45, o'chek this morning. He had seen confined to his home several weeks with a serious illness, against high medical aid was of no avail. Mr. Atkinson did valiant service as a captain of volunteers in the late war and always entertained proniunced views on patriotism. He was seriwounded in the battle of Chancellorsville, and sent home on a long fuciough upon a surgeon's certifi-Before he had recovered from ois disability, and while he was yet currying his arm in a sling. Lee's second invasion of Pennsylvania occourred and it became evident that a great battle was about to be fought. Regardless of the furlough which he was then carrying in his pocket, the e gullant captain hastened to rejoin his mmand, and led his company with distinguished bravery in the three days' battle at Gettysburg. He was ceneatedly urged by his intimate friends to apply to congress for a Medal of Honor, to which his conspicuous bravery on several of the great hattlefields of the war clearly entitled him, but his unwillingness to assume any exploitation of his own acts and his naturally modest bearing withheld him from doing so. His keen sense of honor-ferbade him from applying for a pension, stating that his means were ample for his own needs and those of his tamily. In politics he was an ardent Republican, and although never active as an office seeker himself, he was once elected sheriff of Wayne county. Atter serving a term in this office he took up his residence in Hawley, and was elected president and manager of the Hawley Glass cor wany, and held the office up to the time of his death. He carried on an extensive lumber business, and for many years was one of the largest operators in the Paupack lumber region. He was also the owner of a large box factory in this place at the time of his death.

Grievances Arranged.

Hazieton, Pa., Jan. 30,-Representaives of seven locals of the United Mine Workers met in McAdoo this afternoon and heard the report of the grievance committee whose members, representing 1,800 men, had a conference yesterday with Superintendent Gomer Jones, of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company, relative to the adjustment of grievances presented a few days ago. The driver who was discharged will be reinstated by Superintendent Jones tomorrow, and the alleged unfair treatment of the men by under bosses will

Mr. Roche on Avenue Extension. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: So much has been said and writ-As there is a large panel to select from, it is believed there will be no trouble over the selection of twelve write you with a view to correcting the opinion the public must necessarily have opinion the profile must necessarily have formed of the profilet. The reporters of the dailies are largely to be blamed for this. They know that I do not undertake an enterprise of this magnitude and im-portance unless well fortified with facts. yet not one of them sought information from me. They said at first it would cost a hundred thousand dollars or more, then reduced it to seventy-five thousand, and now indicate that it may cost less. They sought information from councilmen opposed to the measure who were not informed and took no pains to seek it where it would naturally be found, with its advocates. But this is aside. In your article on the 28th you say that three options have not been received by the city, namely, for the lands of James Kearney. W. Gibson Jones and the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, James Kearney does not own any property on the line of the avenue. The city bought from him at the time it They sought information from councilcity bought from him at the time it bought the Swift lot on Phelps street. The deed may be seen at the city solicitor's office. The option of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company is in the city solicitor's hands also. There remains, therefore, only the Jones property. The city has no option on this. I have not the map before me, but my recollection is that the property the city needs of Mr. Jones is 7x90 or 650 square feet. Land at this point is not worth 60 cents a square tracks upon, that the city pay for the removal of the tracks, that a triangular piece of land between their present freight house and the Dickson Manufacturing company's boiler house be purchased for a new freight house site and that the city agree not to open Penn avenue through the old cemetery plot. This means the purchasing of 630 square feet for the tracks at 60 cents a foot, $78 the cost of moving the tracks-less

This in going there was to intimidate the piece fronts on no street. It cannot or cut up in lots on account of its acute triangular shape and is not worth more than $3,000, according to values in that locality. As to these values interested parties can easily determine whether it am right or not. As to the cost of re-moving the tracks I have built railroads and know whereof I speak. There is scarcely an element of uncertainty regarding this option. The city will never open Penn avenue through the cemetery open Penn avenue through the cemetery plot. It would parellel Capcuse avenue within fifty feet of the latter avenue.

The options received by the city for property on the bed of the proposed avenue are generally based on extraordinary values. There is nothing ancommon in this. It is asual to ask fictitious prices of the city and this weakness is not confined to any particular locality or any fined to any particular locality or any particular class. The rich and the poor, the educated and lifterate alike, ask the city two or three times the actual value for any real estate the city wants. No one having experience imagines that the prices asked will be the prices paid. There are eleven houses and two or three barns or sheds on the bed of the avenue. Three of these houses are worth about $2,000 each, two are worth in the neighborhood of $1,500 each, rather less than more; the rest range between $500 use among insurance agents all the buildings are worth $11,596.

The city will not be obliged to purchase all of the land on the bed of the avenuc. Wyoming avenue was laid out through the Lackawanua Iron and Coal company tract before the Delaware and will be buried in South Africa, the Hudson Canal company put their tracks on it, and that company does not claim to own it. The Lathrop and Jones ex tate extended it sixty feet in width to within 117 feet of New street. There is now a lane or alloy running diagonally from Phelps street to within 117 feet of New street on the northerly side. All of this we do not have to buy. It belongs to the city now. There remains, there fore, according to measurements made on the map of the avenue 49,900 square feet of ground to be purchased. What is this worth? The Lackawanna Iron and Coal company owns property near | He will have charge of the funeral. both ends of the proposed improvement It will be admitted that they get the price for lands adjoining them. parties to their representative to get their prices (I tried to get them direct but falled) and these persons tell me that prices for lots on Wyoming avenue just south of Pine are $1,000 per lot and on erly end of the improvement, they ask and kindness in their recent bereave-$2,200 to $2,400. estimated cost of buildings. $11.56. The cost of removing the Delaware and Hudson tracks. $1.00; the cost of triangular iece for freight house site, $3,990, and we ave a total of $40,596. Can the city secure these properties for this amount? I answer for less than these figures. To demonstrate this it will necessary to refer to the ordina Harrisburg, Jan. 30.—Harry Hoffaker, and city solicitor shall endeavor to reach per square foot it will approximate 50 cents. The 49,822 square feet which the city must buk will, therefore, cost in round numbers $25,000. Add to this the Tribune is directed to ask the court to appoint viewers to appraise the damages. It is not expected that the city officers will be able to come to an agreement with all the owners of picperty, if they do with any, and I contend that If viewers are appointed this amount will be reduced $10,000 by setting off benefits against damages and by the sale of the houses acquired by the city by condemnation. There are houses on the bed of the avenue that are appraised here at their full value that can be moved off and placed on the remainder of the lot for less than $200 each. Some will have to be moved only 10 to 12 feet. All the other REAL ESTATE ... SITUATIONS WANTED houses can be sold to adjoining property owners for at least one-third of their value. Two of the houses that can be moved are worth $1,590 each. The other buildings by my computations are worth $5,596. One-third of the last sum is $2,895. and the two referred to worth $1,500 each reduces the amount, say $5,500. What the viewers will compute the damages to the ground cannot be accurately estimated, but it is safe to say that in many cases where owners ask damages of $1,000 and more the viewers will say that they are benefited instead. I think fully $5,000 will be struck off in this way, leaving a balance of about $30,000 as the amount the city will have to pay. I may

The councilmen who oppose the ordinance for opening Wyoming avenue voted for that. There were no questions raised as to its legality. The mayor signed that. The circumstances are exactly alike. Now as to paying for this property if Now as to saying for this property if acquired. It will not be necessary to make any provisions for payment this year. It will probably be June or July before the viewers, if appointed, will make their report and the report approved by the court. The people who own the property will wait for their money until 1399 and by that time provision can be made in one or the other of the various ways suggested by Mr. Santhe various ways suggested by Mr. San-derson in his letter on this subject. Aubrey and Spencer to Go to Wilkes-Harre Prison This Morning.

Today Thomas Aubrey and Ambros L. Spencer will enter upon their twelve months term in the Luzerne county Attorney E. H. Shurtieff went down to Wilkes-Barre Saturday to ascertain from the district attorney as to when Aubrey and Spencer would be called upon to deliver themselves up. The district attorney was about to send them formal notice of the finding of the superior court and refusal of the supreme court to interfere, together with a summons to present themselves to Warden Boland as directed in the decree of Judge Wickham. Mr. Shurtleff's visit made these formalities unnecessary, it being agreed to waive technicalities and arrange mutually as to the time when the sentence should begin. The district attorney said they might come down any time now and upon learning this the convicted men decided to give themselves up today, wishing to have the thing over with as soon as possible. Mr. Spencer's business interests will

William M. Raynor Succumbs to Typhoid Fever.

A cablegram announcing the death of William M. Raynor, near the city of Johannesburg, in South Africa, was received Saturday by his brother-inlaw, A. F. Stokes, of 509 Prescott avenue. Mrs. Raynor, wife of the deceased, is at present visiting at Mr. Stokes' residence. Mrs. Raynor and a baby daughter survive the deceased. Mr. Raynor was formerly a resident
