MRS. SARAH GILDEA DIES.

Mrs. Sarah Gildea, one of the oldest residents of this vicinity, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Patrick Walker, of the south side, Friday night. She had been in poor health for some time past. Her death was due to general debility.

The deceased was born in Ireland. She had resided in Carbondaie for over half a century and had a large circle of friends in this city. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Edward Moore, of New York city; Mrs. Patrick Duffy. of Mayfield, and Mrs. Patrick Walker, of this city; and three sons, Bartholomew, of this city; John, of Olyphant, and James Gildea, a comedian well known throughout the West and who has several times appeared on the stage in this city with marked success.

The remains of Mrs. Gilden will find a resting place in St. Rose cemetery tomorrow. The funeral procession will leave the house at 2.30 and go to St. Rose church where the last sad rites will be observed

THEATRICAL ATTRACTION.

Many of the admirers of Edward Harrigan's plays regard "Old Lavender" as the best of all of them. It certainly gives Mr. Harrigan better opportunity than usual to combine comic and pathetic touches. The play is also stronger in plot than most of the others, and Dave Braham's popular mu-sic and songs contribute their usual large share toward making it enjoyin "Old Lavender" are-"The Jolly Old Owl;" "When the clock in the Town Strikes Twelve," "Please to Put That "Poverty's Tears Ebb and Flow;" "Get up Jack-John Sit Down." It is safe to predict that a large audience will welcome Mr. Harrigan at the Grand Opera house next Wednesday evening, Feb. 2.

F UNERALOF MARGARET THOMAS.

The funeral of the late Margaret Thomas was held at the home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Fessenden, of Jermyn, officiated. was assisted by Rev. D. C. Richards. The obsequies were very largely attended. Music was furnished by Geo. Moon, David Lewis, Hannah Leonard and Mrs. Howell. Interment was made in Maplewood.

The pallbearers were: Thomas Morgan, Francis Smith, George Evans, William Isgar, Isaac Rogers and William Foster. The flower bearers were: William White, Anthony Loftus, John Lewis, Levi Toby, Harry Roberts, Owen Reese and Daniel Burgess,

THIRD SEMI-ANNUAL SHOE SALE

The Newark Shoe Store.

The policy of "The Newark" is never to carry over their shoes from season to season, to become old, shop-worn and out of date, but at the end of each season's trading to dispose of them at prices that make them go quick, thus keeping their stock always new and clean and showing each season only the latest and most desirable goods the shoe markets produce.

William Lewis, who is employed as Our Third Sale Commences February 1st And Continues the Entire Month.

We propose making this sale sensational as regards to prices. Every pair of shoes in the store will be subject to big cuts in price, but the odds and ends, broken lots and surplus lines will be tabled at prices much less than you would think of offering for them. It isn't often you have such extraordinary money-saving opportunities for shoe buying. So take advantage of Our Great February Shoe Sale. Note prices carefully:
