Haulon's Superba.

A phenomenal child whistler has been secured for Hanlon's "Superba" this this year, fresh from a triumphal tour of the principal cities in Europe and America. She is conceded to be the finest of her sex. In fact she far surpasses, from all accounts, anything that has been heard in that they bear year. in that line. Her New York success was instantaneous and she need never ap-pear outside of this great metropolis did she not desire to travel. Her tones are singularly sweet and she whistles with ease, the most intricate cadenza or a popular air with equal sweetness and expression. Her execution is marvelous, it is said, and her whistling can only be considered in the light of genius. She is as great an artist in her line as Joseph Hoffman was, except that she has a slight advantage over him in years.
