

NEW BISHOP ENTHRONED

(Continued from Page 1.)

separating himself from the work so close to his heart, yet he would find this a good place in which to make a home, amid its historic association, the prosperity and its flourishing condition surrounding him, and in the home and hearts of the people. He spoke with emotion of the two deceased bishops of the diocese and hoped that the present one would be long spared to the field of labor to which he had been called.

Mr. William B. Butler made the address of welcome for the laity. He believed that in all the annals of the Central Pennsylvania diocese this hour must ever be historic. The bishop has come a weary journey across the continent. From all over the diocese have gathered those in this historic place to look for the first time upon the face of their new bishop. Only a few months ago and Bishop Rulison here made his last address. It was here that they gathered before laying him away on the hillside, where he sleeps so near that almost can be heard the sighing of the wintry wind in the branches over his grave. In their need this bishop has come; they had prayed God to guide him to come to them to help and to lead, and now between the living and the dead blossom the living hopes of spring. It is holy ground, and he prayed that a double portion of Elijah's power might descend on this Ebenezer. For him could be assured the certain loyalty and good faith of his people. As in the old feudal days, when a vassal came before his lord, placed his hands in his, said, "I am your man in life, limb and earthly honor, so would the laity place their hands in those of the bishop, pledging loyalty and devotion.

Mr. Butler then spoke of this diocese as rich and fruitful as the land of promise, with which two missions of people contained a mission well calculated to make the new leader tremble and draw back. In the old times there was that greatest King Ethelbert called to a work so stupendous that had he realized it he would have hesitated to enter, but being once engaged, the historian tells us, he yielded not to discouragements but in every respect made a reign beneficial to his people and glorious to himself and governed for fifty years. "In all that is best and noblest may our gracious Ethelbert far exceed that record," were his closing words. Bishop Talbot then came forward and said, in part:

BISHOP TALBOT'S RESPONSE. Clergy and Laity and Good People All: One cannot listen to words like these without feeling deeply the sense of one's own personal responsibility. I have a suspicion that in the outline thus clearly drawn, that I have not been called here from the frontier and its high altitude, to make this merely a health resort. I need not say that I am proud to be welcomed in such a manner. I only pray that I may be worthy of the love, sympathy and co-operation signified by these pledges. I would like in some poor way I could have the power to enthrone my people to great deeds and service; I hold it a great honor to follow men like the first and second bishops of this diocese, in their planting me it may be found that missionary bishops are likely to be auto-crisis appointing their own standing committee for the future of the diocese; but I hope to make at least a gradual adaptation of myself to the work of an older diocese and as far as may be to follow in the footsteps of my predecessors. In accepting this election I feel it to be just as truly a missionary work as in the Rocky mountains. I see no hope of parochial endeavor, no future of parish or individual work that does not extend beyond its own parish. Just as our hearts are warmed and filled with enthusiastic devotion just in proportion to the extent of these blessings we seek. It is the Spirit that must animate us in our labors, just as day by day we live lives of purity, modesty and love in the presence of our dear Lord will bless us and give his inspiration and peace.

The high solemn celebration of the Holy Eucharist followed, the bishop being the celebrant; Rev. Edward Pratt the epistoler, and the Rev. Charles J. Anderson, archdeacon, offering for diocesan missions, were the hymns and the recessional to the hymn, "Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken," ended the service.

A luncheon was served to the visiting clergy by the parish. This evening a brilliant reception was held in the parish house. Among the Scranton visitors were Rev. Rogers Israel, Brother Francis, Rev. F. S. Ballentine, Rev. E. J. McHenry, Mr. A. D. Holland, from Wilkes-Barre, Dr. Jones, Rev. Mr. Johnson, Archdeacon Cox, Rev. Mr. Stone, Rev. Mr. Wares, accompanied with a purse of $1,000 in gold by West Pittston. The bishop was preceded by Honorable Rev. Mr. Harrington, members of the parish of the Church of the Nativity at South Bethlehem.

SKETCH OF BISHOP TALBOT. The Right Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., LL. D., was born at Fayette, Mo., in 1848. Receiving his elementary education at Fayette, he entered Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., at the age of 17 years. Graduating there in the class of 1870, he entered the general theological seminary in New York the ensuing fall, and completing his three years' course in theology was ordained deacon by the Right Rev. Dr. Robinson in 1873. He was ordained priest in 1874 by the same bishop and became pastor of St. James church at Fayette, Mo., where he was elevated to the episcopate in 1887, his consecrators being Bishops Whipple, Quintard, Tuttle, Spaulding, Perry, Burgess and Seymour. His able administration of the affairs of the missionary jurisdiction of Wyoming and Idaho commended him to the hearts and judgment of the clergy and laity of the diocese of central Pennsylvania, and he was elected bishop at the special convention held in the Church of the Nativity, South Bethlehem, on Nov. 11, 1887. Bishop Talbot is a man of commanding presence, with fine clear cut features and a bright, alert and genial manner. A wide and enduring influence, and a wise and successful career is predicted for him in the diocese of central Pennsylvania, to which he has been elected.

Oil Market. Oil City, Pa., Feb. 2.—Credit balances, 65, certificates closed 64, shipments, 4,574 barrels; runs, 30,857 barrels.

Restore full, regular action of the bowels, do not irritate or inflame, but leave all the delicate organs in perfect condition. Try them. 2c per box. Prepared only by Dr. H. Wood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, Feb. 2.—The stock market was under liquidating pressure today, but the strength of some special stocks and manipulated advances of others made the market exceedingly uneven.

Scranton Board of Trade Exchange Quotations—All Quotations Based on Par of 100.

New York Produce Market. New York, Feb. 2.—Flour—Quiet and considerably weaker in undertone. Wheat—Spot weak; No. 2 red, 1.07 1/2 c, f. o. b. about; No. 1 hard, 1.07 1/2 c, f. o. b. about; No. 1 hard, 1.07 1/2 c, f. o. b. about; options ruled firm all forenoon on foreign buying and better closing.

Philadelphia Provision Market. Philadelphia, Feb. 2.—Wheat—Dull and lower. Corn—Steady. Pork—Steady. Lard—Steady. Butter—Steady. Eggs—Steady. Cattle—Steady. Hogs—Steady.

Chicago Grain Market. Chicago, Feb. 2.—Scalping operations continued in the grain market today. Wheat was strong early on a rally at Liverpool, but turned weak later.

New York Live Stock. New York, Feb. 2.—Steers—Quiet and steady; rough butchers' stock active and strong; mature steers, $4.00-5.00; calves, $3.00-4.00; lambs—Active; slightly firmer; sheep—$3.50-4.50; hogs—$4.00-5.00.

Buffalo Live Stock. Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 2.—Cattle—Steady. Hogs—Steady. Sheep—Steady. Pigs—Steady.

Del., Lacka. and Western. Effect Monday, Nov. 21, 1887. Trains leave Scranton as follows: Express for New York and all points East, 7:30 a. m., 12:30 p. m., 6:30 p. m.

Delaware and Hudson. On Monday, Jan. 17, trains will leave Scranton as follows: Express for New York, 7:30 a. m., 12:30 p. m., 6:30 p. m.

Chicago Live Stock. Chicago, Feb. 2.—Cattle—Firm for good to choice droves; slow, barely steady for others; the bulk went for $3.25-3.50; veal calves, $3.00-3.50; sheep and lambs—Active; slightly firmer; sheep, $3.50-4.50; hogs—$4.00-5.00.

DRIDPATH'S CONSENTS

January 13th we should have been compelled to announce the closing of the Wanamaker History Club, as the club limit had been reached.

Such a course would have keenly disappointed thousands who had neglected to join the club. The case was laid before Dr. Ridpath, and he generously consented to our having another edition, but only one-half as many as the former one. But he insists that no more shall be sold at this price.

Ridpath's History of the World

If you don't know the unique place this work holds in English literature—read a minute—it's more than interesting. John Clark Ridpath, A. M., LL. D., is one of the most eminent historians of this or any other time. He spent over forty years in writing this History of the World. We'd like you to get a clear understanding of this wonderful work, but it's hard to convey by telling.

You will some day feel the need of this greatest of all histories. Buy it now while you can share in the benefits we have obtained from the publishers. Join our HISTORY CLUB and you save one-half! You pay the membership fee, ONE DOLLAR, and the full set is delivered at once.

Application for membership should be made at the office of this newspaper, where a complete set of the books may be examined.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES. PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. Schedule in Effect Nov. 23, 1897. Trains Leave Wilkes-Barre as Follows:

Lehigh Valley Railroad System. Anthracite Coal Used, Ensuring Cleanliness and Comfort. IN EFFECT NOV. 16, 1897. TRAINS LEAVE SCRANTON.

Del., Lacka. and Western. Effect Monday, Nov. 21, 1887. Trains leave Scranton as follows: Express for New York and all points East, 7:30 a. m., 12:30 p. m., 6:30 p. m.

THE WESTON MILL CO. Scranton, Olyphant, Carbondale. WOLF & WENZEL, 240 Adams Ave., Opp. Court House. HUNT & CONNELL CO., 434 Lackawanna Ave.

The Princess of Wales. JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT. MARLBOROUGH HOUSE, S. W. Please send for the use of H. R. H. the Princess of Wales, six dozen of JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT as soon as possible. Kindly give two bottles to bearer for to-day's luncheon. Yours faithfully, JOHN GWILLIM, Cellarman, For H. R. H.

Fine Carpets, New Wall Paper, Fine Lace Curtains, Artistic Draperies. The Largest Stock.

Williams & McAnulty. 127 Wyoming Avenue.

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA. HONESDALE. Tuesday evening, Feb. 8, Professor Douglas, the magician, will appear at the opera house under the auspices of Grace Church Sunday school.

Friday morning, Feb. 11, at 9:30 o'clock, the farmers' local institute will hold their opening session in the court house, Homer Green, esq., will welcome the institute.

Notwithstanding the severe storm on Tuesday, all trains on the Gravity railroad made all their trips nearly on schedule time.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Langefie church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. Frew this afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Sengt, of Philadelphia, will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Haste this afternoon in the interest of the Christian Alliance union. Everybody is welcome to the present.

Mrs. A. J. Weisley, of Tyrone, Pa., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McDonald, of the North End.

A committee of ladies are perfecting arrangements for a pre-lenten dance, to be held in Sarsfield opera house on Feb. 16.

No other history contains one-half as many essential facts of the world's past

No other history ever recorded the progress of the Races of Mankind from the beginning down to the present day—in fact, there is no other history of mankind today—in any language. True, you can procure histories of some of the greater and a few of the minor races—separately—partial records for the most part—by various historians. True, also, you can consult the encyclopedias for abstract facts and incidents of various times and countries, though no consecutive or accurate record can thus be obtained except by the student.

Eight Massive Volumes. It'll be long past bedtime before you lay it down—and that's only treating it on the one side—as a work of absorbing interest—as fascinating as a romance!

PHILADELPHIA JOHN WANAMAKER NEW YORK

THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF SCRANTON. Special Attention Given to Business and Personal Accounts. Liberal Accommodations Extended According to Balances and Responsibility.

Our Carpets. Are first in quality, first in style, and first in genuine saving point of view, because they're lower in price than you can find elsewhere.

E. Robinson's Son's Lager Beer Brewery. Manufacturers of OLD STOCK PILSNER.

Full Set Teeth, $5.00. We guarantee a fit. Gold Crowns, $3.00. All other work at proportionately low prices.

THE SNOW WHITE PATENT FLOUR. We Make It. We Warrant It. We Wholesale It.

THE WESTON MILL CO. Scranton, Olyphant, Carbondale. WOLF & WENZEL, 240 Adams Ave., Opp. Court House. HUNT & CONNELL CO., 434 Lackawanna Ave.