AN INJUNCTION

PETITION TO DAUPHIN COURTS

The Request Combatted by Counsel for the Commission, Who Insists that It is an Interference With the Rights of the Legislature .- The Matter Will Be Argued on Wednes-

Harrisburg, Feb. 4 .- Attorney General McCormick today sought by preinjunction to restrain the liminary building commision from capitol awarding the contract for the erection of a capitol at its meeting next Monday. The petition for the injunction was presented to the Dauphin county court by the attorney general accompanied by a request that Auditor Ceneral Mylin be restrained from iswarrants and State Treasure Haywood from paying money for work done under any such contracts.

The petition was combatted by counsel for the commission, who insisted that it was an interference with the rights of the legislature and might make impossible the construction of a capitol in time for the next session the legislature Attorney General McCormick denied that there was any intent to delay building operations and contended that there is nothing to proyent the commission from opening bids next Monday, after which the proposals will have to be considered for some During this intermission the time. matter could be argued before the If the commission were right, court. he said, he wanted it to go on and if wrong it was his duty to stop furthat it was a matter of grave importance to the state and one which would ultimately come before the supreme court, to which counsel assented. Aftor consultation it was agreed, without issuing a preliminary injunction that the institer should be argued next Wednesday morning, meanwhile the commission will receive blds, but will not award a contract. The petition rets forth that the commission purposes of building a state house in violation of the act providing for such structure.

MILKMAID BOUND AND GAGGED.

Neighbors Found Her After Robbers Had Fled with Booty.

Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 4 .- While Miss Lydia Yarling lay bound and gagged in her home, in the Mahantongo Valley last evening, two strange men ransacked the house in search for money, appropriating $80, all that they were able to find.

Miss Yarling encountered four strange men in a sleigh as she was returning to the house from the stables, after completing the evening dairy work. One of the men requested a drink of milk from the pail she was carrying, and two of them followed her into the house, ostensibly for the milk with which she agreed to favor them. They were evidently aware that she was the only occupant of the house, and knocking her down, bound her securely and fastened a gag in her mouth.

In this condition Miss Yarling was found by neighbors some time after the robbers had departed. She is in a critical condition from nervous shock.

natter, the coroner's jury tonight brought in the following verdict: "We find that Mrs. Jennie O. Whiteside came to her death from exhaustion produced by violent spells while suffering from mental derangement, Sald exhaustion being the result of gross neglect of Rev. C. H. Pridgeon, Miss Ella McMillan and Mrs. Flora Holliday, who were in charge of the deceased and refused or neglected to call on a physician to give proper medical atention. We recommend that they be made to answer in court for their neglect.' Rev. Pridgeon is pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this place, and is a pronounced faith curist. No arrests have as yet been made but are expected soon, and as all connected with the affair are prominent in social and religious circles great in-terest is manifested in the outcome.
