NEVER AGAIN

When any regular theater goes reads the list of the comedians and comedienne which constitute the Charles Frohman "Never Again" company, which is to appear at the Lyceum Wednesday, Feb. 8, he or she is perfectly satisfied with the prospect of a good performance for such a reliable organization, no such assembly of foremost players of character or comedy roles has been placed in a single play for many years.

THE GIRL FROM IRELAND

"The Girl from Ireland," with pretty Kathie Rooney and her company, will be presented at the Academy of Music the first half of this week. It is a farce comedy of the merriest kind, and is full of complications. Many songs and dances are introduced. Dainty Katie Rooney will give her celebrated imitations of her father, the late Pat Rooney.
