SNOW FLAKE SOCIALS.

The recent season of good sleighing sleighing parties. The style, or fad, this season is to exchange courtesies with friends in neighboring towns, Much jollity has resulted.

Saturday evening a large party, requiring three large "bobs" to carry them, came up from Pittston. They comprised the Elite Social club of that city, and while here they were the guests of the St. Leo's Glee club. The club rooms on North Main avenue were thrown open and the visitors made comfortable. Dancing was the main feature of entertainment. Michael Hennigan acted as pianist and Cornelius Coleman as prompter, At midnight a lunch was served.

Friday evening a large sleighing party came up from Avoca and were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gallaway, at their cosy home, on Corbett avenue. The hours quickly passed in the enjoyment of the usual diversions. At a seasonable hour the guests partook of a luncheon, provided by Mrs. Gallaway, They then returned to their homes, CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT. The enterprise of Clarke Brothers is not confined within the limits of their ade concerts on Saturday evenings at their stores. The best music obtainable has been provided, and the whole store thrown open to the freedom of any who cared to enjoy the concert. Saturday the usual concert was provided, and the attendance, which was immense, attested to the popularity of these affairs. One does not need to feel that a purchase is necessary to get in. Persons from every part of the city and from out of the city ere noticed in the throng Saturday night, and the happiness of all was a silent vote of thanks to the firm. Bauer, with his full orchestra, furnished a lengthy and entertaining programme, consisting of medleys, marches, overtures, etc.

DASHED INTO A FENCE. William, nine years of age, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allspaugh, of West Locust street, narrowly escaped fatal injury Saturday afternoon, while coasting on South Main avenue, as it to close. He was one of many who were coasting on the avenue. They started from Eynon street, and at Hampton street, a block further down, turned off onto Hampton and continued the ride down Hampton. Willie turned too far out in his endeavor to avoid etriking another lad who had gotten into the way. In doing this, Willie lost control of his sled and it dashed into an iron fence with the above stated results. Dr. J. J. Roberts

Number of Prisoners Were Then fore Justice of the Pence Cooney. Two Could Not Furnish Ball and specials" and a large band of citizens to bring about Saturday night the subjugation of a gang of foreigners housed in a place on the Throop land, near No. 1 colliery. Not until eight of the gang were placed under arrest did the representatives of the law quell the disturbance. But even then it was at the cost of many broken heads.

Fortunately the police escaped un-harmed. The trouble started when James McGrall and John Loftus, two constables, went to the house with a warrant for the arrest of two men on charges which dated before Saturday. This was at $20 o'clock. The house was filled with men and a few women drinking and having a general good time over the fact that it was pay day that day. Constables McGrail and Loftus arrested their men and were on the way to town when a gang of from thirty to forty men came after them from the house. At a secluded part of the read these men pitched upon the constables, demanding that the prisoners be released. The two constables fought until McGrail's club was cracked by a blow at one of his assallants. Then the constables fled, releasing their prisoners.

Reaching town, McGrail and Loftus organized a posse, including Policemen Bulgar and Pace, Special Officers John Pentine, Mike Millar and Frank Williams, and a number of citizens. At 11 o'clock the band left for the scene of the trouble. Reaching the house the officers quietly entered, clubs in hand, and laid hold of six of the loudest disturbers. The prisoners, followed by a gang of their friends, were taken before Justice of the Peace Cooney, by whom they were given a hearing. Three of the men were held under bail, two Alderman Johns yesterday. Both men of whom were arrested in the 'Squire's office by Patrolman Bulger. The other five were discharged. In default of bail Andrew Petoni and M. Nichola were committed to the county jail. The third man, Mike Ennetti, secured bail in the sum of $300. Further arrests will be made by the police today.

> INJURED WHILE WRESTLING. A young son of James Jearr, of Walnut street, sustained a fractured leg Friday night, while wrestling with an older brother at their home. The accident was most unusual in the fact that both boys are little chaps, barely in their teens. Dr. J. H. Murphy was called and at-

A TRIBUTE OF SCIENCE.

Synopsis of a most Remarkable Lecture Delivered Before the Ninth Medical Congress, by Dr. A. L. A. Toboldt, of the University of Pennsylvania.

The famous fountain of health at Carlsbad, in Bohemia, which has been the refuge of invalids for five centuries, is certainly well worthy of a careful study. My experience with this remedialagent has been such that I may truly say that no remedy which I ever employed has given me so much pleasure and profit as this particular one. Selecting a number of chronic hypochondriacs, whose afflictions have baffled all my previous efforts as my subjects, I was truly astonished to note that, although no rigid diet was prescribed, and only a limited amount of exercise was indulged in, I obtained most remarkable results-the complexion, even after a week's use, began to clear up, the step be-came more firm and elastic, and, what was more, the entire host of hypochondriacal complaints. seemed to vanish like mist.
