> PLAN OF THE NEW BUILDING

It Is Proposed to Make It in a Sense a Home for Young Men -- If the Wyoming Avenue Lots Can Be Sold Another Site Will Be Obtained. Properties That Have Been Suggested for New Building -- Financial Condition of Association.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Young Men's Christian association in the office of Colonel H. M. Boies yesterday, the following appeal "to the citizens of Scranton" was drawn up.

In the destruction of our Young Men's Christian association building, a great disaster has befailen our city. It is the first serious public calamity, affecting all classes of our people alike, which has ever overtaken us. The loss of property is great, but that we can restore. The unfortunate loss of precious life which has followed the ravages of fire is ir-reparable, but we can do something to comfort the widow and fatheriess, and relieve their necessities. These things which we can do we should do. We feel confident you will do them.

The building which was burned, as 'he rapidity of its ruin has made evident, was exceedingly dangerous for the public uses to which it was devoted. Often over a thousand people within its walls have been exposed to the dangers which so suddenly destroyed it after it had closed its doors Thursday night. The work of the association had outgrown its accommodation. Now was it desired to meet modations. Nor was it designed to meet the present requirements of highest usefulness, although it is difficult to estimate how much of our present prosper-ity, our rapid growth in population, largedue to the high character and reputation we enjoy, is due to the influences this association has thrown around the young men who have grown up in Scranton during the last thirty years of its existence here. We believe it is not too much to say that every property holder in our city, every person who now en-joys its privileges and opportunities, owes no small percentage of all he has ac quired or values here to these potent in-fluences, which, like the rain of the heavens, have fallen on all altke.

AMOUNT EXPENDED. The trustees of the Young Men's Chrisian association have expended upon this operty since March, 1885, including the 000 given by Mrs. F. A. Hackley to defray the cost of the plant, and fixtures for the installation of the John Raymond Institute and Manual Training school, the sum of $101.232. We estimate the value of other contributions by the directors and public in furniture, improvements allower of the State of ments, library, etc., at $10,000; making a total cost of our loses, $111,252.

We estimate the present assets of the association to be the value of the two ts on Wyoming avenue, at $800 per front bot, $64,000; the total amount of insurance on building and furniture, $58,000; John Raymond endowment fund, $39,-000; a total of $152,000, which important amount is idle and inproductive without a suitable home and building for the association. What is needed now is a fire-proof building, the first four stories of which should contain stores to rent for income, a good hall, gymnasium, swimming and other baths, offices, reading rooms, parlors, class and manual training rooms, and at least three stories of dormitories and rooms for sin-gle young men, which can be rented, say at an average of $2.00 a week, to the number of at least 100, together with apartments for the secretaries and em-ployes, a cafe, kitchen and roof garden. this evening at 7.30 o'clock. All members

In short, a Christian home for the home-less young men of our city. We estimate that such a home can b provided if you will contribute by your subscriptions the sum of $100,000, which has been destroyed by the flames. In the hope that you will do this, a few subscribers have already piedged, on condition the whole amount is raised, $20,000. The subscriptions are made payable in five equal annual installments, so that the burden may be as light as possible. SUBSCRIPTIONS ASKED. Will everyone who will recognize his obligations to the association, and wishes its highest future usefulness, everyone who is interested in the salvation of young men, and the future of Scranton. send to any member of the board of trustees, whatever subscription he or she can make to this cause, whether small or great; and do it now; in order that may know without delay what plans to adopt for immediate reconstruction? We will see as many as we can; we cannot see all. We will endeavor to execute your wishes prudently and faith-vestment of money in it. Vice President.

A. W. Dickson,
E. B. Sturges,
For the Board of Trustees. H. M. Botes, Secretary and Treasurer.

Hon. William Connell, president of the board of trustees, which consists of five members, was unable to attend the meeting owing to a business engagement which called him from the treasurer. city. W. R. Storrs was chosen vicepresident and presided over the meeting. E. L. Fuller was elected a trustee to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of James Blair. A letter was read from W. D. Mossman of New Haven, Conn., the first secretary of the association, expressing his sympathy at the loss the association had sustained in the destruction of the building.

SITES PROPOSED. Several sites were discussed by the trustees for the new building. It will first be necessary to dispose of the present lots. If this can be done a site will be selected elsewhere. The Pierce property on Washington avenue, near Vine street, which is now occupied by P. S. Page, was offered for $40,000. The plot of ground on which the house stands is 120 by 150 feet in size. The Stewart property on Spruce street, occupied by the Gorman stable also being considered. It is 65 by 230 feet in size and is considered one of 230 feet in size and is considered one of the most valuable pieces of real esday, Feb. 8; Company B. Wednesday, tate in the city. Attorney Kulp, of Feb. 9; Company D. Friday. Feb. 11; Wilkes-Barre, was in the city yesterday and discussed a price for it with nembers of the board of trustees.

The latter are very much in favor of securing a property that will be more desirable than the Wyomicg averue site for the work of the association and they also earnestly desire to ere't a building after the plan out-Mned in the appeal to the end that the association may be of the greatest possible service to the young men of this

APPEALS BEGIN TODAY.

Board Will Meet the Sixth Werd Complainants at City Hall.

The board of revision and appeal will begin its work today. The Sixth ward is scheduled for a hearing today. Judging from the unusual number of inquiries made at the city office the appeals this year will be larger than in any previous assessment. In the three central city wards the assessment has been based on an in-creased valuation of property. The hearing in these wards will come up during the last three days of the week The meetings will be held in the front room, formerly a reception room, the second floor of the city hall.

EXCEPTIONALLY FINE PROGRAMME Will Be Rendered at Pure Food Show

Wednesday. Those who failed to listen to the re cent delightful concert given by Baur's band in the Lyceum have probably wondered why there has not been a repetition of it. This would hardly seem necessary in view of the delightfu! series of concerts that are being given at the Pure Food Exhibit in Jonas Long's Sons' Store. Particularly will this be true at the concert to be given there Wednesday afternoon this

Prof. Bauer has arranged an exceptionally fine programme for that day which will include special solos by a number of his best artists and in addition the full orchestra will render a number of their descriptive pieces which have become so popular. Taking into consideration that these concerts are free to all, it is little wonder that enormous crowds are present there every day. Wednesday's attendance promises to exceed that at any of the previous ones.

PARTNER'S DISAGREE.

W. W. Van Dyke, A. L. Collins and W. F. Van Dyke are the complainants, and C. E. Spoerl, John Kashenbach and C. E. Hale are the alleged offenders. The company was organized in 1896 with a capital stock of $40,000. Of this amount, $23,500 has been paid in, the stockholders contributing as follows: W. W. Van Dyke and John Kashenbach, $5,000 each; C. E. Spoerl, $2,000; C. E. Hale, $1.500.

At the annual meeting held Jan. 7, 1898, Messrs, Spoerl, Kashenbach, Hale, W. W. Van Dyke and Collins were chosen directors and these afterwards selected W. W. Van Dyke as president, and W. F. Van Dyke, son of the former, ecretary and treasury.

Ignoring this agreement, so it is alleged, Mesers, Spoerl, Kashenbach and Hale met together and named Kashenbach for president and Spoerl for secretary and treasurer. They then proseeded to call a meeting of the directorate for Feb. 7, yesterday, at 9 o'clock a. m., with the purpose in mind of issuing $15,000 of the treasury stock to Speerl for a one-half interest for an anpatented invention, a machine for 'turting," which it is claired is not worth more than $200 at the most. To give $15,000 for Spoerl's alleged interest in the invention, as was proposed to do, would be fraud and the height of folly, it was contended, and court was asked to step in and prevent

An injunction was granted as prayed for, returnable Feb. 12th. J. W. Browning, John F. Scragg and Willard, Warren and Knapp represented the complainants.

CISNEROS LEAD THE GRAND MARCH

ton Leiderkranz, WAS A VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR

Annual Masquerade Ball of the Scran-

Opened with a Burletta Representing Carl Decker Going to Cuba and Evangelina Cossio Y Cisneros was wenty-ninth annual ball of the Scranon Liederkranz, at Music hall,

It was possibly the wittlest and prettiest little concert with which a Lie derkranz ball has ever been opened. The stage was very tastefully arranged, the costuming was ridiculously funny and the mechanical effects were mirth provoking travesty on the modern stage realism,

First was shown a ship departing from America with gallant Paul Decker (Louis Reichart) aboard. Arriving at Cuba, some ten feet away, he is received by his confederates two American newspapermen (Isadore Ross and Philip Wagner) and after saying a whole lot of happy things, which no Spaniard could ever make out, they proceed to assault the jail,

The now historic ladder is placed across from the adjoining building to the wall of the jail and lo! the happy Miss Cisneros (more familiarly known hereabouts as William Vockroth) makes her appearance at the jail winlow and climbing out is escorted across the ladder to safety and the tune of 'Home, Sweet Home,

After the risky ladder walking act is over the character of Cisneros is as-sumed by Miss Minnie Welker, the handsome young daughter of H. Welker, proprietor of "The Fashion." While the band plays "The Star Spangled Banner" the ship reaches New York and as soon as Miss Cisnero reaches land she is told by Carl Decker that he has brought about her rescue that she might be the Carnival Princess at the twenty-ninth annual ball of the Scranton Liederkranz. She now doubly thanks him and accepting the proffered hand of the Carnival Prince, Otto Stoeckle, she comes down from the stage and starts the grand march with four flower girls in her train, Lottie Vockroth, Lena Reichart, Lillian Greiglestein and Christine Zenke.

In other respects the ball was equally as successful. The number of masquers was larger if anything than usual and the character of the costumes was equally as rich and varied as on previous occasions. The decorations by Fuhrman were very tasteful. Bauer's orchestra furnished the music. J. D. Ferber, Louis Reichart, Isidore Roos, Victor Wenzel and Charles Nier was this year's committee of arrange-
