J. W. Kilpatrick Calls Attention o

Select Council to the Matter. Messrs. McNulty, Swigert, Dilts, Gilhool and Nealon were present at last night's meeting of select council. J. K. Kilpatrick appeared before the body and said that liens amounting to more than $200 stand on the books at Scranton against his property and that each has been paid in full. He asked that the docket be satisfied and justce done his business interests. He stated further that many other property owners on Main street, who have paid up have liens against them, and suggested that councils go into the wholesale lien erasing business. His complaint was referred to the proper

The ordinance requiring the Ontario and Western railway company to put up safety gates at all city grade crossings passed final reading. An ordinance fixing the compensation of city assessors at $2.50 a day passed two readings. The annual report of Fire Chief Moffitt was received and ordered filed. It recorded forty-one fires for 1897. None of them was disastrous. An affidavit from J. L. Stewart stating he is under age and a request to be exonerated from the payment of city tax, were referred to the committee on finance and taxation. Regarding an office for the city so licitor it was decided to give him the mayor's office upon the expiration of Mayor O'Neill's term. A large amount of minor business was disposed.

DEATHS.

Louis Silsbee Passed Away -- Child Dies from Burns.

Louis Silsbee, one of the city's oldest residents, passed away Sunday night at the home of his daughter, No. 16 Porter avenue. Mr. Silsbee fractured his hip by a fall about two weeks ago and has since been confined to his bed. He was born in this city sixty-six years ago last June. BURNS CAUSE DEATH.

An awful accident caused the death of Bridget, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Farry, of Carbondale township, Saturday, Mrs. Farry had heated a boiler full of water for use in some household duties and lifted it from the stove to the floor. Her little girl was playing about the room at the time and while the mother's attention was attracted to something else she wandered over to the water and, leaning over the side of the boiler, lost her balance and fell in. Her cry brought her mother to the rescue in an instant, but the little tot had been enirely immersed and the whole surface of her body was badly burned.

Dr. Gillis was burriedly called and did all in his power to save the child, but her burns were too severe to admit of recovery. She died at 6 o'clock. She did not seem to suffer much, which is accounted for by the great nervous shock of the plunge.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Rose cemetery.

Every Seat in the Grand Opera House Occupied Last Evening.

The Spooners, Edna and Cecil, and their splendid company of dramatic and vaudeville stars, opened a week's engagement at the Grand opera hous last evening. The theatre was packed to the doors, many being turned away, and both stars and company gave the best satisfaction and received the highest commendation from the big audience. The dramatic entertainment was well and capably presented and the excellent line of high class specialties would do credit to any metropolitan theatre. From present aspects the

LAUNCHING THE LIFE-BOAT.

There are greater dangers than those of the angry sea. That dread discase—con-sumption, kills more men and women in a generation than the sea has swallowed up since the earliest history of navigation.

There is a sure and safe life-boat ever ready to be launched for men and women who suffer from this merciless destroyer. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures 98 per cent, of all cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, laryn-gitis, weak lungs, spitting of blood and throat and nasal troubles. It acts directly can the lungs, driving out all impurities and disease germs. It soothes and heals the mucous membranes of the lungs, bronchial tubes, throat and nassil cavities. It restores the lost appetite, makes digestion and assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, and purifies and enriches the blood. It fills the blood with the life-giving elements of the food that build new and healthy tissues. It tears down, carries off and excretes the diseased and half dead tissues upon which the germs of consumption upon which the germs of consumption thrive. It checks the cough and facilitates expectoration until—the lungs are thoroughly cleared. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. Unlike cod liver oil, it does not build flabby flesh, but the firm, muscular tissues of health. It does not make coroular tissues of health. not make corpulent people more corpulent. Thousands have testified to their cure under this great medicine after they were given up by the doctors, and all hope was gone. An honest dealer will not suggest some inferior substitute for the sake of a little extra selfish profit little extra selfish profit.

At Alderman Baker's yesterday afternoon and evening there was a continuation of the hearing in the horse case in which H. E. May is complainant and Dr. W. J. Lowry defendant. Attorney R. D. Stuart looked after the interests of the former while Milton Lowry, esq., of Scranton, conducted the defense. Complainant contends that the doctor guaranteed the horse to be perfectly sound and that it proved to be "wind broken." The price agreed upon was $125 and in its present condition the animal is not worth more than one-quarter of that amount. The hearing was adjourned until Friday af-

GRAVE CRIMES ALLEGED about an hour later returned with

$1,700 worth of valuables carried away The lattice work of a rear vestibule door had been cut out and there were evidences that an effort had been made to break open the inner door. Failing in this, it appears, the thickes broke a pane of glass in a rear window, re-moved the catch and climbed in. Burnt matches scattered about the floor all through the house showed that the intruders had been there after sundown and presumably after nightfall. Every room in the house had been visited and the closets, bureaus and everything else that gave promise of booty ransacked. Jewelry to the value of about $1,400, a hundred dollar bill and two twenties, besides a quantity of silver plate, silver toilet articles, spectacles, opera glasses and the like were discovered missing.

Chief Robling was sent for and spent three hours examining the house in the hopes of finding a clue, but nothing was discovered upon which to begin work except a plentitude of evi-dence to indicate that the work had been done hurriedly and skillfully, and therefore most likely by professionals.

Hopes of ever unearthing the robbers was beginning to ebb away when three weeks later a telegram from Chief Detective Holleran, of the Chi-cago police force, told of the finding of welry that answered the description of the booty taken from the Bogart residence, which was sent broadcast throughout the country by Chief Robling. Mr. Bogart, accompanied by Detective John Moir, hastened to Chicago and found that it was, as expected, Mr. Bogart's missing jewelry or at least the greater part of it. The three men, Bixler, O'Neil and Johnson, arrested in connection with the find, were brought home a week afterwards by Detective Moir and Sergeant Robert Deiter, who was sent out later to assist Moir, and with them returned Mr. Bogart bearing his property, which he replevined from the express company, in whose possession it was when the authorities found it.

CAUSE OF DISCOVERY,

The fact that Mr. Bogart has a cousin who is a clerk in the American Express company's office in Chicago discovered the thieves.

It appears that after committing the rime one of the trio went to New York and packing the jewelry in a cigar box expressed it to Bixler in Chicago. He old the express agent in New York that the box contained medicine and after the express agent had, at the sender's request, written the address for him and sealed the wrapper, the sender wrote on it "handle with care." It will be shown, it is claimed, that this writing corresponds with that of one of the trio, Bixler.

This would indicate that Bixler addressed the box to himself and went on to Chicago probably on the very train that carried the box. He went to spending a few weeks with friends in the express office and asked for the package. The agent didn't like his looks and insisted on him being identified.

er happened to be this cousin of Mr. Bogert. He had heard of the robbery, and the suspicious appearance of Bixler, coupled with the fact, that the package was heavy for a box that contained only medicine, and the packing that would necessarily go with it, caused him to suspect that everything was not all right. He opened the box, found it filled with jewelry and hastened to notify police headquarters. Chief Holleran, with his other detec-tives in citizen's clothes, came to the express office and when Bixler and his ompanions sought to secure the package they were placed under arrest.

Like the professionals that they are suspected of being, they had nothing to say, but it is understood they will represent that the goods were shipped to them from a New York party to be sold on commission and that they did not even know that they were stolen. OPENIN THE CASE. Mr. Thomas, in his opening, said it would be proven that Bixler and Johnon were in Scranton at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the date of the burglary and that Johnson was seen on the orch of the Bogart residence George Jay at 6 o'clock and that Jay talked with him.

Mr. Bogart went on the stand and old the story of his discovery of the burglary and the other circumstances related above in which he figured. He was quite positive that Bixler's face was familiar to him and had an impression that he broke on the D., L. W. w. six or seven years ago. Mr. Bogart read from a typewritten list the articles that had been recovered in Chicago. There is considerable more stuff missing in the shape of silver plate and the like.
