WOMAN SEEKS VENGEANCE.

Miss Harrity Threatens the Man She Loves-- He Is to Wed Another.

There were exciting scenes behind closed doors in Alderman Jones' court last night. A Miss Harrity, of Scranton, had been placed under arrest at the instance of John Shaff, of this city, who is to be married in a few days Her offense was that of following and threatening to injure him. It is alleged that the woman has been in love with and has annoyed Shaff for the past five years. When she heard of his intention to marry another she came to this city and went to his home, from which place she was taken by officer last night with much difficuity.

The complainant was inclined to be easy with the angry woman and agreed to drop the matter if she would leave Constable Neary finally pertown. suaded her to board the 9.50 train for the Electric City. On the depot platform, however, she vowed that she would return and make it hot for the man whom she believes has injured

"I weigh one hundred and fortyeight pounds," she said. "I am straight and muscular as any of 'em. I can whip him the best day he'll ever see!" and her eyes flashed with delectation as she looked ahead to the time of vengeance.

Miss Harrity is a brunette, apparently about twenty-five years old, and handsome and was well dressed. She is determined, and says that she will surely return.

WORSE THAN REPORTED.

A traveling salesman named Kohn. in conversation with A. S. Lewsley yesterday, told of his recent trip to Cuba. He returned New Years and this is his first visit to this section since. He said the state of affairs is ven worse than depicted in the news paper. Starvation and death are every where apparent in Hayana. While there he was obliged to shoot a man who pulled a stilleto on him. His daily expense was $21,80 and nothing but gold would go.

A SERIOUS ERROR.

I have been requested by Mr. Hocking to correct an erroneous statement which appeared in the court notes, of county papers, to the effect several that he married Mrs. Arnold, whose husband's term in jall for shooting a man, recently expired, Mr. Hocking was wedded to Miss Annie Shelly, a respected lady of this city, last March. The correction is made in justice to Mr. and Mrs. Hocking.

Independent Order of Odd Fellows No. 668, will meet this evening in their hall on North Main street. Our borough thoroughfares are once more well carpeted with mud. The following has been handed to The Tribune for publication:

The following appeared in last Wednes-day's Republican: "Thomas T. Moses, the Republican nominee for council, is a young man of sterling integrity and should receive the support of every Re-publican. The citizens' ticket is composed of dissatisticd Republicans who failed to receive the Republican nominations." There can be no doubt to who wrote this item. It was the Republican scribe. But we, as the citizens' party, do not pay the least attention to such matters. We furthermore state that we, as the citi-zens party, are not composed of dissatisfied Republicants as the above states, but of as good a quality and of as much integrity as the worthy nominees on the Republicant ticket, from councilman down to inspector, and will do all in our power if elected to make the First ward be havener ward of the horough. Fire was discovered at the old Leitz roperty over on the east side at 2.50 clock yesterday morning. The building was unoccupied, and the origin of the fire is a mystery. Cecil's Papa Says He Is Obliged to Admonish His Daughter. During the Spooners' engagement in this city little has been said regarding the personal work of the family. Their company unquestionably gives the greatest quantity of good quality drama, music, specialties and novelties ever offered in this city at popular prices. No criticism has been offered on their work and even the chronic fault-finder has been silent. If any change would improve the attraction I believe it would be the shortening of the pantomime indulged by the acrobats who open the entertainment.

Spooner himself is an actor. He excels in his delineation of rustic life. His wife impersonates old maids and matrons with a naturalness that is truly artful. Edna May does the emotional work and is never without the sympathy of her audiences. Her refined manner and sympathetic voice have much to do with her success.

But little Cecil is a stunner. She has improved considerably in her dancing since last season and is a perfect whiriwind in the ternslehorean art.
